MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT:

I am most happy to have been given the opportunity to serve as President of The Arkansas Genealogical Society, for there is no subject "more dear to my heart" than genealogy and the history of our own beloved State. I sincerely hope that all of you will join with me in attempting to enlarge and enrich our Society, its purpose and publication.

I urge each of you with family records packed away in boxes and filing cabinets to share this information with others through The Arkansas Family Historian, for each year with the passing of dedicated genealogists, countless priceless documents are thrown away and discarded by survivors who have no interest in, or do not realize, their value and the painstaking hours consumed in gathering such material. Record this data for posterity in your Arkansas Family Historian.

Mrs. Gerald B. McLane

And speaking of our publication, which is the lifeblood of our organization--our means of communicating with one another--I would like to pay special tribute to our editor, Mrs. Dolores Murphy, who gives us so much of her time. I wonder how many of our members realize that Dolores is solely responsible for the actual mechanics of publishing our quarterly? She not only undertakes this tremendous job, but attempts to answer all correspondence addressed to the editor and still has time for her home, her charming husband Guy and five children, four of whom are pre-school age! We are very proud of the high quality of our quarterly, and realize that we are indeed fortunate to have an editor who is willing to devote so much of her time and energy at, I am sure, personal sacrifice.

Thanks, too, to Mrs. J. R. Bush of Hot Springs, who carefully indexed Volume III, and to Mrs. Duncan Brown, Jr. of Little Rock for typing this valuable postscript to our publication for the past year. Postscript really isn't the right word, for I personally believe than an Index is an integral part of any publication, and these ladies have done an excellent job. I only hope they will volunteer to perform this task for Volume IV.

Special thanks are also due our retiring "pun-loving" President, Lee B. Spencer, and the members of his Board of Directors. No, that's not a typographical error; one of Lee's puns I particularly remember is his definition of the successful western bill collector: "The fastest dun of the west!" Lee formulated the first draft of our Constitution and By-Laws, a badly needed instrument for our Society.

This administration needs the cooperation of every member; we want your suggestions. Won't you please continue to offer new ideas and new material for printing and last, but not least, keep up your membership. We NEED you and you NEED us; who knows--this very issue may contain just the clue you need to complete that branch of your family tree!

W. J. LEMKE HONORED BY AGS BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Dr. W. J. Lemke, founder of the Arkansas Genealogical Society and first editor of The Arkansas Family Historian, was honored recently with a plaque presented by the Board of Directors of the Society. Dr. Lemke was also named the first Honorary Member of the Society.

The plaque reads "Presented to W. J. Lemke, Founding Father of The Arkansas Genealogical Society and the Arkansas Family Historian, October 2, 1966." The plaque was presented to Dr. Lemke at a meeting of the Washington County Historical Society on January 22, 1967. The presentation was made by Lee B. Spencer, Past President of AGS.

Dr. W. J. Lemke Lee B. Spencer

Dr. Lemke served as head of the journalism department at the University of Arkansas from 1928 until his retirement as Emeritus Professor of Journalism in 1959. In 1962 he was awarded an honorary degree of Doctor of Letters by his Alma Mater, Baldwin-Wallace College at Berea, Ohio.

In 1962 when the Arkansas Historical Association met in Fayetteville, Dr. Lemke called a meeting of those interested in family history and the Arkansas Genealogical Society was organized. He became editor of "The Arkansas Family Historian" and edited nine issues. He resigned his position as editor in 1964 to devote more time to his work with the Washington County Historical Society and its publication "Flashback". The publication "Flashback" has received national recognition with awards from The American Association for State and Local History.

Lillian Stevenson McGowen

Joseph D. McGowen was born in Duplin Co., North Carolina, May 3, 1824. Our Bible records show he migrated to Arkansas in 1844, was married twice, both wives named Elizabeth. I have not found his parents yet, but my search isn't over. The census shows an older Elizabeth living in the household, who must be his mother. Joseph D. settled south of Champagnolle and east of El Dorado in Union Co., Arkansas.

The 1850 census of Union Co., Ark. shows Joseph McGowen, 25, b. N. C.; Elizabeth, 18, b. Ala.; John W., 1, b. Ark.; Elizabeth, 58, b. No. C.; and James King, 14, b. Ga.

The 1870 census of Union Co. lists Joseph D., age 40 (?), b. N. C.; children John W., 21; Sarah, 18; Mary L., 16; Robert, 7; Martha, 5; Joseph, 2; Charles, 4 mo., all born in Ark.; and Elizabeth, 80, b. N. C. No wife is shown, as his second wife died April 13, 1870.

Joseph D. McGowen died Oct. 18, 1878, and is buried at Old Ebenezer Cemetery south of Champagnolle in Union Co. The 'El Dorado Eagle' in the October 1878 issue gave the following account of his death:

"The story of a sad accident on Wednesday last. A shocking accident on Mr. Tom Smith's place, five miles from El Dorado on the Moro road. A party of workmen were engaged in raising a press and had succeeded in lifting the heavy timbers to a considerable height, when the arrow broke, precipitating the same to the ground with a fearful crash, killing J. D. McGowen (others were hurt and gave their names).

"A few words taken from his funeral notice spoke well of him. He died as he had lived, a consistent member of Methodist Episcopal Church South. We believe from his walk and conversation that his soul is today basking in the Sunlight of Paradise. He was an affectionate father, but is now gone to climes above."

Also I found a "Funeral Notice": "The Mason brethern of Neighboring Lodge of Champagnolle No. 68 met to assist in paying their last tribute to the memory of brother Joseph D. McGowen. Friends and acquaintances were respectfully invited to attend the service."

The 1880 census shows the McGowen children living in different households. Robert L., the fourth child, left as a young man to live with a family who were able to help him finish his education, and we have not found him. In the "El Dorado Eagle" of June 30, 1881, it was stated that Robert was on the Honor Roll of The Independent High School and was one of the most energetic and worthy pupils in their well-disciplined and popular institution. From letters to his sister, "Aunt Missie" McGowen, we know he was in Texas in 1884 with John W. McGowen.

Joseph D. McGowen was married Aug. 31, 1848 to Elizabeth McWilliams, age 15. We do not know the names of her parents, nor the date of birth or death. She is buried at Old Ebenezer Cemetery in Union Co. Children of Joseph D. McGowen and Elizabeth McWilliams:

It is not known when Elizabeth McWilliams McGowen died, but the record of Joseph D. McGowen's second marriage is found in Book B, Page 264 of Union Co., Ark. records. He was married on Nov. 6, 1861, to Elizabeth "Bettie" Crawford, age 17, b. MARTIN CHRISTOPHER RANDLEMAN

by

Billee Snead Webb

Martin Christopher Randleman, b. Dec. 25, 1761, in No. Carolina, was the last child of German immigrant parents who had come to America in 1754. He served in the Revolutionary War in the Rowan County militia. After the war he settled near the Ohio River in western Kentucky, then moved again into St. Clair Co., Indiana Territory (became Illinois in 1818). In 1832 he applied for and received his Revolutionary War Pension at Belleville, Illinois.

Then taking his old wife "who was in need of the care and comfort of her daughter", he went to the home of his son-in-law, David Reece, in the backwoods of Washington Co., Ark. The 1840 Census of Pensioners shows him near Fayetteville, Ark., aged 79 years. Recent research there shows that he was probably buried on Reece's property about a mile and a half from Farmington. The graves have been lost but are remembered by persons who have lived on the property. Martin Christopher Randleman died in 1841; his wife, Mary Magdalena Furr, died in 1839, also in Washington Co., Ark.

Some of the descendants of Martin Christopher Randleman who lived in Arkansas are: Samuel Rendleman, son of Jacob Rendleman, b. Feb. 29, 1824, twin to Martin, came to Arkansas from Illinois by horseback in 1869 with his son Willis and homesteaded land northeast of Rector in Clay County. He was married to Katherine Kimmel, and their children were: Willis Scott, b. Jan. 21, 1850, Anna, Ill.; Lizzie, m. Henry Killey; Jane, m. --- Vancil; Belle, m. Alfred Davis; Anne, m. --- Featherston; Ott, m. Nellie Jewell; Walter, m. Cora Franklin; Sam; Dave; and Frank.

Willis Scott Rendleman, son of Samuel Rendleman, b. Jan. 21, 1850, Anna, Ill.; d. Mar. 30, 1930, Rector, Ark. Married 2nd Dec. 24, 1888, to Martha Elizabeth Wagster, b. Jan. 22, 1864, Dyersburg, Tenn.; d. Mar. 13, 1946, Rector, daughter of Wm. Culpepper Wagster and Jane Shaw. Their children, all born at Rector, Ark., were: Willis Rudy, b. July 21, 1891, m. Ida Whitaker; Calva Cleo, b. Nov. 12, 1892, m. N. A. Whitaker; Mabel, b. Mar. 24, 1896, m. Elijah Jordan; Henry Fay, b. Oct. 12, 1897; Everett, b. Apr. 18, 1899, m. Oct. 28, 1922 to Lillian Alvey; Herschel, b. Dec. 9, 1901, d. Jan. 25, 1911.

INDEX COMPILED BY: Deane G. Carter
Box 237 Fayetteville, Arkansas

This is the second in our series of indexes to the "Biographical and Historical Memoirs" of the counties of Arkansas, published in 1890 by the Goodspeed Publishing Company. In our last issue, Vol. IV, No. 4, we published the index to the counties of Southern Arkansas: Clark, Miller, Sevier, Howard, Pike, Lafayette, Hempstead, Columbia, Little River, Dallas, Bradley, Calhoun, Union, Ashley, Drew, Lincoln, Desha and Chicot. These were indexed by Mr. J. Floyd Bullock, 521 Chesnut St., Camden, Arkansas.

We are hoping that other of our members who have access to the Goodspeed histories of other counties will index these other counties so that we may publish them in future issues
