MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT:

Continuing with the list of officers and directors of our Society, we have:

Miss Jennie (Jane) Belle Lyle, 2103 North Polk Street, Little Rock, Arkansas 72207, a retired employee of the Missouri Pacific Railroad Co., whose "Marriages of Drew Co., Ark. 1847-1861" have been a major contribution to Arkansas genealogical records.

A native of Jennings, La., Mrs. Willma Humphreys Newton, P. O. Box 41, Hampton, Ark. 71744, is a land title abstractor; does feature writing, a column for four years "I Discover Calhoun County", and she has all tombstone inscriptions in all Calhoun Co. cemeteries.

Carolyn (Mrs. Robert G.) Reaves, 3333 Ila St., Fayetteville, Ark. 72701, also does news and feature writing. A busy wife and mother, in her spare time she works with the Association for Retarded Children, Girl Scouts, PTA and teaches Sunday School.

Another member of our Board who has published important genealogical records ("Darby Family History in 1953" and "Union Co., Ark. Marriages 1829-1870" in 1962) is Miss Annie Laurie Spencer, Box 429, El Dorado, Ark. 71730, a real estate broker. Annie Laurie is a member of many historical and patriotic organizations: DAR, UDC, Colonial Dames of the 17th Century, Arkansas Pioneers, among others.

A retired teacher, Mary Margaret (Mrs. Morton A.) Neel, Box 283, Hazen, Ark. 72064, has the distinction of being the only member of our Board who has never missed a Board meeting of the Arkansas Genealogical Society during her term of office. She is a member of the Board of Stewards of the Hazen Methodist Church and is a Past President of the Prairie Co. Educational Association.

Louise Mixon (Mrs. F. O.) Griffin, Rt. 1, Box 125, Helena, Ark. 72342, a writer and homemaker, is co-founder of East Arkansas Poets Round Table and a member of Pioneer Pen Women of Arkansas, as well as the National League of American Pen Women. Her family lines are Mixon, Roseberry, Graham and Suddath.

Another retired teacher, Mrs. A. E. Dauley, Perryville, Ark. 72126, is researching the families of Van Zandt, Dean, McDonald, Pruitt and Dudley, among others. Her other special interests are her garden club, Wesleyan Guild of the Methodist Church, and flowers.

I have recently read that the National Archives has sufficient documentation on local post office operations since the Civil War, and occasionally some post offices find old records that may be of historical interest. Did you know that your local postmaster now has the authority to request transfer of such postal records to local and state historical societies and libraries? I suppose this would also include Genealogical Societies.

On August 24-26, Arkansas was represented at a Seminar, sponsored by the Tennessee Genealogical Society at Memphis State University, by Mrs. T. H. Bowles and Mrs. Lois Jones, members of the staff of the Arkansas History Commission; Mrs. Bob Lavender of Texarkana; Mrs. Paul E. Francis, Mrs. J. E. Bryant, and "yours truly" of Hot Springs. Principal speakers were Dr. Jean Stephenson and Milton Rubincam of the National Genealogical Society and it was a most enjoyable, as well as informative session. We met so many people whom we had previously known only through our correspondence. I believe another such Seminar is planned for 1969, and I hope our Arkansas attendance will be much larger!

THE FAMILY OF ELLISON THOMAS BLAIR II

by

Martrue Hutcheson Greenwood

Ellison Thomas Blair II was born Aug. 5, 1817, d. 1864, married Louisa Jane Peters, b. July 11, 1822, d. May 29, 1902. She was a daughter of Nancy Hutcheson and Joseph Peters, who were married April 22, 1815 in Grainger Co., Tenn. Louisa Jane was reared by an aunt after the death of her parents. The aunt evidently had some means for she reared Louisa Jane to be a "lady" and sent her to a "Female Academy" as girls' schools were called at the time. They lived somewhere in the vicinity of Chattanooga, Tenn.

After her marriage to Mr. Blair they moved to a large farm he owned near Ringgold, Ga. eight miles from Rome, Ga. in Catoosa Co. They lived there until 1860 when Mr. Blair sold his farm, mill, etc., taking Confederate notes and mortgages for his property and moved his family and slaves to land he had purchased in the area of what later became Logan Co., Ark., near Morrison's Bluff.

During the War Between the States, Mr. Blair was put into the Quartermaster for the Southern Army and was sent to Texas. Meanwhile, his wife was enduring many hardships, so he got a furlough and came home to try to get his family to Texas. He found his wife very ill with typhoid fever. Some bushwackers found he was home, captured him, and took him to Little Rock, where they turned him over to the Union Army. He died soon after in Military Prison of typhoid fever. He was probably buried in some cemetery in Little Rock. ;

During the War, the Union Army moved into the Blair home and the family lived in the servants' quarters. Mrs. Blair, who had all her life had means, found herself a penniless widow with a large family to feed. All the Confederate notes and mortgages held by her in Georgia were cancelled by the U. S. Government at the end of the War and she could not collect any of them. She died in 1902 at the family home eight miles from Morrison's Bluff, Logan Co., Ark., and is buried in the family burial plot on her farm. MARRIAGE RECORDS OF CALHOUN COUNTY, ARKANSAS

INDEX TO VOLUME "A"

COMPILED BY: Willma Humphreys Newton
 (Mrs. Lawrence Newton)
 Box 41 Hampton, Arkansas

COMPILER'S NOTE: With the exception of my son and a first cousin once-removed who came with her husband and issue from Iowa, I have no relatives in Arkansas. We all came to Arkansas after World War II. I am a Salt Water Cajun Gal from South Louisiana, with a passel of damm-fine Yankee ancestors. However, the roots of my husband's family go deep into the early history of Calhoun County, beginning with his second great grandfather, William Oliver, in the year 1845. William was born in Pendleton District, South Carolina, during the Revolution, died in Calhoun County during the Civil War. We first made our acquaintance with this fascinating ancestor when we found his well-marked grave in an old field about ten years ago. Everyone else brags about their lawyer, doctor, general, etc. ancestors, but our William rode out of Alabama at the head of a posse! Just ahead! But far enough ahead to get to Arkansas. That's another tale for another day, but it sent me straight into Great Grandfather's corner. I had been gathering tales of the Old Days in Arkansas, and I studied the land records, and finally copied and indexed the marriage records through 1877. Then, with the help of friends, we copied every tombstone inscription in Calhoun County and some along its borders. My marriage records are on 3 x 5 cards, and I have correlated other information concerning the parties as I found it, and placed it on these cards.

In 1959 I began to write a column in our weekly newspaper, "The Calhoun Herald", titled "I Discover Calhoun County" and for four years printed stories about the early pioneers and their descendants. I could have written for 40 years without leaving the room--just from what I had collected. I have files on many families--some of them back to the Revolutionary ancestor. Time is my task-master, and my chosen profession as a land title abstractor has to come first. While I am listed as a professional genealogist, it means more to me to see some person made happy by finding a genealogical fact for which he is looking, than does a fee. With this in view, I offer the following index. I wish I could add the information on some of the cards, but if I did, I could find time to write "that book".

Old James Harvey Means, late of St. Clair County, Ala. and sometime early Clerk of Calhoun County, wrote his capital "I's" and "J's" exactly alike. Please make allowance for this fact. OLA means "of legal age".

BISMARCK CEMETERY, HOT SPRING COUNTY, ARKANSAS

by

Lois Hodges Canfield
Bismarck, Arkansas

The Bismarck Cemetery was established about 1830 by the burial of the infant son of John Magby, an early settler of the community. Cedar trees guard the oldest section of the cemetery, but as years passed many graves, unmarked, have been lost. Older tombstones, some nearly illegible, are gradually bowing to time; therefore this record, as complete as possible, was compiled. Possibly others could add names and dates.

MOODY CEMETERY, BAXTER COUNTY, ARKANSAS

by

Mrs. Pat C. Herrington

The Moody Cemetery is located one mile southeast of Iuka, Baxter County, on land owned by Emmaline and Amos Moody, Sr. The exact date when the cemetery was started is not known, but before 1861.

During the War Between the States a company of Confederate Soldiers were camped at a spring near Uncle Jimmy McNeill's home on the road from Iuka to Pineville. A lieutenant became ill and was left in this home. He died and was buried in this cemetery in 1862.

Many years later a rock wall was built around the family lots. In 1913 there was a "working" of the cemetery. A "working" means a clearing of weeds. Wire for a fence was bought by J. W. Lackey, Andy and Bill Killian, and John Arnold, Sr. Frank Morrow and Mat Arnold helped build the fence. The first Memorial Service was held on the first Sunday in June, 1913, and was conducted by Rev. F. E. Hall, who was the minister for years; then Rev. Young Whitfield held services for many years.

The arbor was built in 1931 by the leadership of Dave Sanders and Virgil Killian. Frances Moody, granddaughter of Amos and Emmaline Moody, made a deed to the lot, free of cost, on July 13, 1940. The first member of the Moody family who was buried in the cemetery was Cletes Moody, infant son of John and Angie Moody in Nov., 1917.

REVOLUTIONARY WAR PENSIONERS WHO LIVED IN ARKANSAS

by
Inez Raney Waldenmaier

BROWN, William
N. C. Service
S 31563

(NOTE: William had a twin brother, Joseph, who was also a pensioner. They were the sons of John Brown, who was also a Revolutionary soldier. Joseph, the twin brother, in 1839 lived in Lincoln Co., Mo.)

William Brown, son of John Brown, was born in 1755 or 1756 in Bedford Co., Virginia. He enlisted (no date) at the town of Jonesborough (now in Tennessee), from the District of Tennessee as a sergeant.

After the war he lived in Cocke Co., Tenn.; Oglethorpe Co., Ga.; and Lincoln Co., Mo. He moved to Lincoln Co., Mo. about 1812, moving to Arkansas Territory "to live with a son and have lately returned to Lincoln County to reside with Levi Brown, another son, who lives in this county." On May 19, 1832, while a resident of Lincoln Co., Mo., at age 78, he applied for a pension based on his military record.

At this time, 1832, an affidavit was given for him by Mary Thurman, born 1760. She testified that "in 1770 her father, Jonas Little, removed to within ten miles of Jonesborough, then in North Carolina..." at which time William and Joseph Brown lived four miles away from the home of her father. Her brothers were also in the Revolutionary War: George, John and Benjamin Little, all still living in 1832. Also, according to Mary Thurman, her uncle was Colonel Jonathan Tipton.

In 1834, Nov. 6, William Brown moved to Lincoln Co., Mo. (Compiler's note: At about this time it is a little difficult to trace the veteran's whereabouts. Evidently he moved back and forth from Lincoln Co., Mo. to Arkansas Territory between May, 1832, and November, 1834. In any case, the above dates are "quotes" from his statements.)

On July 19, 1838 he was living in Washington, Hempstead Co., Ark. On Oct. 24, 1838 he gave his place of residence as Thompson twp., Pike Co., Ark., when he was about 83 years old. At this time affidavits were given for him by Silas C. Blain; Hiram Kezzia, a clergyman; and David L. Dickson, Clerk of the Court.

In May, 1839, affidavits were given for him by Martha Coker; Jesse Jenkins, clergyman; and Isaac White, all residents of Thompson twp., Pike Co., Ark. On May 25, 1839, he was again a resident of Lincoln Co., Mo.

On Sept. 16, 1838, his application was suspended because each tour of duty in his military service was not specified; his attorney insisted that Mr. Brown "was in the regular service of the United States". (Compiler's note: He was paid through March of 1840 so evidently here the attorney won his point.)

REVOLUTIONARY WAR PENSIONERS WHO LIVED IN ARKANSAS

BRYANT, Benjamin

Compilers Note: Help concerning Benjamin Bryant is requested. He is listed on the Census of Pensioners for Revolutionary and Military Services (as returned under the Act for taking the Sixth Census in 1840) thusly:

"SALINE COUNTY. Benjamin Bryant, age 80, and 'head of the family'".

He is also listed in Clara Eno's Historic Spots in Arkansas, page 85, as a resident of Pulaski County.

The Agency Books, War Department, shows that he was paid from March, 1831, to the first quarter of 1842. According to this record he died May 2, 1842. (If we could further identify his service, there is probably a Final Payment Voucher that may list his heirs.)

Three men named Benjamin Bryant are listed in Hoyt's Index of Revolutionary War Pension Applications. I read each pension. None lived in Arkansas at any time. My guess is that he was in one of the Indian Wars. Suggestions welcome.

Dear Society Members:

Please help me to find records on my Shumate and Bledsoe families. They lived on the state line of Missouri and Arkansas, north of Galena, Mo. about six or eight miles. Isaac Bledsoe was a very active soldier (Captain I believe) in the Confederate army. They moved to Wise Co., Texas about the time the war ended. Was Daniel Shumate the father of Sarah Ann Bledsoe? or was he her grandfather? I will pay for records on these people. Also want records on Hard Bledsoe of Stone or Taney Co. He was in the 1840 census of Taney Co. but not in the 1850 census. Daniel Shumate was 75 years old in 1860 census, born Tenn. Isaac Bledsoe was born in Tenn. in 1821.
