AGS BOARD MEETING

The fourth quarterly meeting for 1967 of the AGS Board of Directors was held Saturday, November 18th in Hazen, Arkansas, at the home of Mrs. M. A. Neel. Officers of AGS and members of the Board were luncheon guests of Mrs. Neel.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT:

As you will note elsewhere in this issue, AGS has elected new officers for 1968, and we are most fortunate to have Dr. James S. Upton of Conway as our new president for the coming year. Dr. Upton, who has served as Vice-President in 1967, is a native of Yell Co., Arkansas, but spent his early years in Fordyce (Dallas County).

The Reverend Dr. Upton began his ministry as Pastor of Wesley Methodist Church in Fort Smith, Arkansas in 1934. He has served churches at Eureka Springs, Siloam Springs and Osceola. He assumed his present position as Head of the Department and Professor of Religion at Hendrix College, Conway, Arkansas, in 1943, and has continued in this capacity to the present time.

Mrs. Gerald B. McLane

Our President-elect and the Board of Directors have many plans for the coming year, such as regional seminars in various sections of the state and the copying and marking of cemeteries, including small, almost forgotten family and rural cemeteries that may not now be marked on county and highway maps.

We hope, too, to have our publication copyrighted in 1968. We feel this might attract authors who desire that their material be protected. I'm sure that all our members know that none of our contributors nor our editor receive any monetary remuneration for any of the articles, painstaking research and just plain WORK that goes into the publication of our "Arkansas Family Historian", and we need to protect this material by the provisions of the copyright laws.

Doubtless many of you have as yet found nothing to help in your search in the past issues of our publication; however, a quarterly such as this is not designed for light, quick reading, but is a reference tool to be used from time to time as the occasion arises. It could be that at some future time, these same issues, if retained in your files, will yield something of great importance in connection with a new line of research.

Mrs. Duncan Brown, Jr. of Little Rock, a member of our Board, has volunteered to see that a five-year index is compiled and published for these first five volumes of "The Arkansas Family Historian" and this will be of tremendous help in referring to these publications in the future.

With this issue we will mark the end of our fifth year of publication, and as the outgoing president of the Arkansas Genealogical Society, I want to remind and encourage you to renew your membership for 1968. There has been so little genealogical material published on our state, we feel that the "Arkansas Family Historian" fills an important need, and we need your support.

I have enjoyed my year as president of this Society and was delighted to have been appointed to the Board of Directors for a new three year term, along with other new directors, Mrs. Thomas H. Bowles of Little Rock; Mr. Joe C. Shaw of Conway; Mrs. Elaine Cia of Little Rock; and Mrs. Almon Faught of Jonesboro.

BLACKS OF ARKANSAS, ANCESTORS AND DESCENDANTS

by
Annie Laurie Spencer

Copyright 1967 by Annie Laurie Spencer

From North to South in Colonial records the name Black is found as early as the 17th Century, but no attempt has been made to connect the many persons by that name who came in that period. These records begin with Thomas, Robert, James and Samuel Black, brothers, single men, who came to the colonies about 1754.¹ They landed in Philadelphia and scattered from that point. James Black went to Maryland and Robert Black went to South Carolina. Samuel Black was with these two brothers, but his descendants have not been traced. Thomas Black was lost to the other brothers. Four sisters were left in Ireland, names unknown, but these sisters might have come later.² Their mother was Agnes Glenn and their father is thought to have been either Robert or Samuel.

Who were these men? What was their lineage? They descended from an old Scotch family which emigrated from Scotland about the time of Cromwell's invasion.³ They stayed in Ireland until their coming to America, but they held to their Scottish customs and were as Scotch as a Scotch could be whose family had lived in Ireland for a hundred years.

The Blacks were a sept of either the Lamont, MacGregor or MacLean of Duart clans. Clan septs were of two classes, those related to the clan by blood and who formed separate branches of the clan and individuals or groups from other clans who sought and obtained protection of the clan, which resulted in a clan having septs of different surnames.⁴

The Irish granted these persons permission to come there because these were a thrifty, hardworking race and the Irish wanted these good workers. Scots came in great numbers and stayed and prospered until their children were growing up and marrying into Irish families. This was taboo among the Scots. They arranged marriages for their children, approved of intermarriages with cousins who were not of the first degree, and out of this group came some of the strongest and healthiest immigrants who ever came to the American Colonies. Few groups have contributed as much to America as the Scotch-Irish.⁵

Where in Ireland were Robert, James, Samuel and Thomas from? Londonberry county is the most likely place. Other possible places are Donegal and Antrim counties. All three counties are in North Ireland just across the North Channel from Scotland. Recent descendants have claimed Londonberry County because the Seawrights and Russells were from Londonberry and these two families were closely associated with the Blacks.

1. David Russell who married Elizabeth Black (born Apr. 24, 1793, the daughter of Robert Black, born Aug. 20, 1767) had this record in his papers, which papers were carried to Mississippi by descendants of this couple and were copied in 1907 by other relatives.

 5. The Scotch-Irish in America. Proceedings and Addresses of the Third and Fifth Congress, 1891, 1893, 2 volumes, giving story of Scotch-Irish.

When the Blacks who descended from this family of Blacks came to Arkansas, the family had been in America only 85 years. For this reason many who were known at that time as relatives could have been from cousins of these brothers. Blacks were in Arkansas as early as 1819 when Governor Robert Crittenden appointed William Black as Justice of the Peace of Cash Township in Arkansas County.⁶ The records of Arkansas County at DeWitt have many deeds and other instruments executed by and to the Blacks. If the Blacks in Arkansas County were related to the Blacks who descend from these four brothers, the connection is not known.

Col. John Logan Black of South Carolina visited relatives throughout Arkansas and recorded his visits. He visited in Union, Pope, Logan and Bradley counties and in Pine Bluff and Hot Springs. Through his trips to Arkansas the connection with the family in Blacksburg, South Carolina, has been kept through the years. Col. Black was descended from these four brothers, and his letters to relatives in Arkansas would reveal the family connections.

So, Col. John Logan Black, whose record of the War of the 60's has been published as "Crumbling Defenses", is the link to tie all of this clan together in Arkansas. If some of his letters had not been found in an old trunk years ago, this history could never have been compiled.⁷

This record of the family is compiled through years of research which began with family records, old letters and many articles which came down five and six generations in the family. With the beginning of these family records, a lifetime has been devoted to collecting source material from Pennsylvania, Maryland, North and South Carolina, Alabama and Arkansas. All Blacks in Arkansas and Louisiana did not descend from these four brothers, but many did. Not one iota has been found to be inaccurate in the general skeleton of family history kept by those early members, but sorting the members in the correct position in line of descent is very difficult. Many married cousins and often their parents had the same given names.

James Black married Elizabeth Rogers in Maryland.⁸ Where in Maryland? Cecil Co is the most logical place because it is directly south of Lancaster Co., Pa., and that is the birthplace given on the Revolutionary Pension papers of their oldest son, Joseph. James Black and Elizabeth Rogers lived in Lancaster Co., Pa. and moved into Mecklenburg Co., N. C. sometime before the American Revolution. Their son, Robert Black, married Matilda Alexander, daughter of Captain James Alexander of the Revolution.⁹ The Alexanders were a Maryland family and Captain Alexander with his family also moved to Mecklenburg Co., N. C. They were probably the Alexanders who were in Cabarrus Co., N. C. when that county was cut from Mecklenburg Co.

The earliest copy of the papers of David Russell, made in 1907 and in the hands of the compiler this day, 1967, gives the name of James Black's wife as Elizabeth Rogers.¹⁰

Some who have worked in the family have said without giving the authority that she was Elizabeth Russell. Russell appears frequently as a given name in this family. According to Rowland Black of Blacksburg, South Carolina, Samuel Russell Black was the husband of Agnes Glenn and the father of the four Black brothers, and that Samuel Russell Black, the brother of Rowland Black's grandfather, was named for this Samuel Russell Black. ¹¹

To keep the members of each line in proper order, a number is given to each person with the immigrants being 1a-1 James Black, 1B-1 Robert Black, 1C-x Samuel Black and 1D-x Thomas Black. The 'x' denotes there is nothing else about this person.

- A1-1 James Black, born about 1728 in Londonberry Co., Ireland, came to America 1754, landed in Philadelphia, lived in that area for a number of years. He married Elizabeth Rogers and was living in Lancaster Co., Pa., before moving to Mecklenburg Co., N. C., where he died ca 1818 and is buried in Rocky River Cemetery. Children:
 - A1-2 Joseph Black, born Jan. 18, 1763 ¹² (tomb says January 17), died Nov. 7, 1843, buried Columbia, S. C., married Mary Burnett.
 - A1-3 Thomas Black.
 - A1-4 John Black.
 - A1-5 William Black
 - A1-6 Robert Black, born Aug. 20, 1767, married Matilda Alexander.
 - A1-7 Elizabeth Black. ¹³

On several lists of children of James and Elizabeth Black which have appeared without the sources for listing these children, a son Samuel, born July 11, 1769, died Feb. 28, 1842, and married to Elizabeth McKinley was given. On these lists the name of William has been omitted. Some have given that Elizabeth Black, the only daughter, married William Blair. Thomas is shown as marrying Mary McKinley and John is married to Rebecca McKinley. John and Rebecca Black are said to have moved to Texas. But no source for this listing has been given and to prevent confusion the list as given by David Russell is used. ¹⁴

- A1-2 Joseph Black, born Jan. 18, 1763, Lancaster Co., Pa., moved with his family when a small boy to Mecklenburg Co., N. C. Served in the American Revolution in South Carolina under General Frances Marion, ¹⁵ the famous Swamp Fox, in which army his uncle, b1-1 Robert Black also served. ¹⁶ After the Revolution he served for 30 years in the South Carolina legislature. He is buried in Columbia at the First Presbyterian Church cemetery. He married Mary Burnett. Their children were:
 - A1-8 Elizabeth Black, married James Alexander Black.
 - A1-9 John Burnett Black, born Dec. 27, 1789, died Mar. 27, 1844, m. Feb. 21, 1811 to Elizabeth Brownlee. ¹⁷

 A1-11 Robert Felix Black, m. Susan Prince.
 A1-12 Thomas Pickney¹⁹ Black, married Lucy Prince.
 A1-13 Joseph Addison Black, b. Mar. 25, 1802, m. Martha Kesiah Peay, Dec. 30, 1830.
 A1-14 Mary Black.
 A1-15 William Claborne Black, b. Apr. 13, 1806, Abbeville District, S. C., m. 1st Martha Ann Griffin and 2nd to Jane Logan, a half-sister to Elizabeth Sarah Logan.
 A1-16 Samuel Russell Black, m. Martha K. Kirkland. 20

Col. John Logan Black wrote in 1896, "Mary Black, my father's youngest sister, died single. . . . I remember seeing her only once when I was five or six. As she died young, I have heard little of her." The first pages of Colonel Black's family history are missing and the record begins in the middle of a sentence. Elizabeth Black is not given and neither is John, who were the two older children.

Rowland Black, a grandson of William Claborne Black, said in 1961 that his grandfather's brother was John Gailliard Black and that he married Mary Brownlee. Rowland Black also said that his father, John Gailliard Black, was named for this uncle. Rowland Black lived in Blacksburg, S. C. and had a very old manuscript of family records that he had kept through the years. He was very alert and this branch of the family had always lived in that area, or at least since 1840. The only reason that the name John Burnett Black was used is that the will of William Brownlee, Box 4, Pack 72, Abbeville, S. C., (page 17 Abstracts of Old 96, by Pauline Young), lists John B. Black as executor with John Brownlee, a son of William Brownlee. Elizabeth Black is listed in the will as having seven children. But, John Gailliard Black, wife Mary Brownlee, may be correct.

Mrs. Horace Laurens McSwain, Jr., Macon, Ga., who has done careful research in her husband's family, lists the son as John Gailliard Black. A 'G' and 'B' in the early handwriting are hard to distinguish. The wife could be Mary Elizabeth Brownlee. Mrs. McSwain is responsible for these records of Col. John Logan Black being in this compilation of the Black family.

18. Col. Black's papers.
 19. Given as "Pickney" in records of Rowland Black and Col. Black.
 20. Col. Black's papers.

(To be continued in next issue)

(NOTE: Any person with the name of Black who knows back to 1850 can send the records to me at the following address, and an attempt will be made to help in sorting of the family of these four brothers--or in the many other Black records the compiler has in her files.)

THE HINTON FAMILY OF HEMPSTEAD COUNTY

by

Marion McKinney Stroud
(using records of Carl and Nelle Hinton)

The Hinton family moved from Georgia by way of Louisiana to southern Hempstead County (Arkansas) in the 1850's. The first recorded tax payment was for 1858.

The Hinton family came from England. The following genealogy for England, North Carolina and Georgia was compiled by Miss Mary Hilliard Hinton of Raleigh, N. C. with additional data supplied by Helen M. Prescott of Atlanta. Both were registered genealogists in 1937.

James Hinton, b. 1642, matriculated at Queens College, Oxford, March 10, 1659, aged 17; admitted to Lincoln's Inn, March 10, 1659, as 2nd son of John Hinton of Earlscoth, Doctor of Medicine. Called to the Bar, 1666. He had three sons, James, John and William, who immigrated to North Carolina.

Chowan County, N. C. Records show that in 1703 Henry Hill proved his rights for importation of John, William and Elizabeth Hinton (N. C. Hist. & Gen. Reg. 2-305). Another note says John Hinton was said to be from Prince George Co., Virginia.

John Hinton settled in "Chowan Precinct", N. C. He purchased 126 acres from Nicholas Stallings on "south side of Bennet's Creek", April 17, 1716. Again a patent of 500 acres to John Hinton is recorded. In 1722 he petitioned for 350 acres on Bennet's Creek. He was Overseer of Highways in 1725.

Of him, Dr. Groves wrote in his "Allstons and Alistons of North and South Carolina": "Col. John Hinton, a man of prominence, wealth, and widely spread connection with many of the most influential families in the colony."

He married Mary Hardy, an English lady who survived him and later married Thomas Holliday. Col. John Hinton died in N. C. in 1732. In his will he names his wife and four sons Hardy, John (b. 1720), William and Malachai, and seven daughters. Executors were his wife, son Hardy, and brother William. Witnesses were brother, James, Joseph Ashley and Thomas Rountree.

Malachai (or ia) Hinton, b. June 20, 1730; d. Feb. 1808, the youngest son, left home after his mother's remarriage and settled in the wilderness of North Carolina in what is now Johnston Co., south of Raleigh. His first land grant was on the Neuse River, dated July 22, 1761. He m. June 6, 1764, Sarah Wimberley, daughter of Geo. Wimberley of Edgecomb Co. Malachai Hinton was a lieutenant in the N. C. Militia in 1754, and again in Capt. Jesse Wooten's Co., Col. Needham Bryan's Reg. of Johnston Co. troops (one note says 1774, another, 1776). He died in Johnston Co. in 1808. His will names five sons, three daughters and their husbands.

The second son, Jacob, m. in Johnston Co., Jan. 1, 1792, Sally Stallings. He m. 2nd Polly (Mary) Bradford, daughter of Capt. Jack Bradford and his wife, Martha Ricks. The Bradfords were residents of Halifax Co., N. C. and later of Wilkes Co., Georgia.

Jacob Hinton moved to Georgia. Military Records 1784-1813 show Jacob Hinton, Ensign in Oglethorpe Co. Regt., 1801, and Spy in Clarke Co., 1814. Jacob Hinton was J. V. C., Henry Co., Ga., Mar. 6, 1823 to Jan. 15, 1825; House of Rep., Campbell Co., Ga. 1832-33.

His will, dated Sept. 22, 1835, witnessed by John McCoy, Wiley Bradford and Joseph S. Camp, is to be found in Campbell Co., Will Book "A", p. 10. In it he mentions his wife, a son-in-law, Henry N. Pope and children:

1. Sarah, m. Hill
2. Harriett, m. McCree
3. Orrie Cox, m. Wm. Tuggle
4. Bradford (named Executor) m. Patience
Lucre in Henry Co., 1822.
5. Lovet
6. Martha, m. John B. Lovejoy
7. Henrietta, m. a Heard
8. Penina, m. E. Mosley.
9. William
10. Wiley

Bradford Hinton, eldest son of Jacob Hinton and Polly Bradford, is listed in the Georgia land lottery of 1820. his marriage to Patience Lucre in 1822. named in Campbell Co. census as head of family in 1830 (age 30 years or under) as Executor of father's will, sold land on Chattahoochie River to Thomas Camp, Dec. 10, 1838. bought 202 1/2 acres in Campbell Co. in 1831. made deed to Deacons of New Hope Church of 2 1/2 acres for "Love and affection" July 22, 1848. Sold to Joseph and James R. Crombie, 400 acres in Campbell Co. for $914.50, 1844.

Bradford Hinton's wife died in Campbell Co., Ga. and is thought to be buried at New Hope Church, Campbell Co. Hinton evidently sold his land after his wife died, and taking two household slaves, some livestock, and two or three unmarried children, moved first to Louisiana, then to southern Hempstead Co., Ark. His children were:

- I. Henry, the oldest son, was married and went on to settle in Ladonia, Texas.
 - A. Jefferson Bradford Hinton, moved to Gainesville, Texas, m. Rachel Dobkins 1886, at age 32; died 1930.
 1. daughter, Beattie Hinton Wright of Oklahoma City.
 2. one son, who never married.

 - A. Thomas Jonathan Hinton (widow still living in Texarkana, Ark.)

- III. B. George, was in automobile business in Hope, Ark. in 1922; later moved to Arizona. Of his seven children, Mina H. Campbell is still living in Arizona.
- III. Martin, who as far as I can learn, never married.
- IV. A daughter, whose name is thought to have been Mary or Harriett.
- V. William Jacob Hinton, b. Campbell Co., Ga., Feb. 15, 1840; d. Jan. 3, 1902, Patmos, Hempstead Co., Ark; moved to Ark. ca 1858. Married Dec. 16, 1869, Amarion Wallace Drake (b. Ala. Sept. 13, 1843; d. Patmos, Oct. 21, 1923). Her parents were Paris N. Drake and Rebecca Hill Drake who moved from Ala. to Hempstead Co. in 1844. W. J. and Amarion D. Hinton built with slave labor a log dog-trot house on land given them by her father. The house still stands. W. J. (Jake) served in Civil War, first at Little Rock, then at Washington as a guard. The couple lived and died in the dog-trot house. They had eleven children, eight sons and three daughters. They were:

FROM THE MAILBOX

Although all my ancestors stopped in west Tennessee and Mississippi, the magazine has been helpful as well as interesting. The migration of the Pirtle family from Kentucky to Tennessee (by Mrs. Doliente) was so similar to my Mitchell ancestors that I searched Livingston and Caldwell counties in Kentucky and was able to go back two generations. The last issue had the Revolutionary War record of Lawrence Angell, who turned out to be one of my husband's ancestors. Keep the magazines coming.

CLARK - THOMPSON

Would like to exchange information on James Harvey Clark, b. 1816, Tennessee, d. 1867 at Long View, Ark. M. 3rd in 1854 to Elizabeth Thompson, probably near Faith, Jefferson Co. Would like to know her parents. James H. Clark was a doctor and merchant during the Civil War, operated a store at Long View. He was a son of Andrew and Sarah Clark of Tenn. (where?) and had brothers: Frank (called Colonel) and William. Have names and dates of all of his five wives and his eight children.

DAVIDSON

I am trying to locate a death record and place of burial of William Davidson, b. in Tenn. Dec. 2, 1828, m. Mary Elizabeth Scott and had two sons. They lived near Hernando, Miss. when he became ill with "swamp fever" and having to leave the lowlands, went to Ark. to be with his older brother, John Henry Davidson, who was listed on 1860 census at Rust, Ark. This was in Independence Co. (later Sharp Co.) The records I have show William Davidson having died Nov. 19, 1858, but no place of death or burial. The brother, John Henry Davidson, served in the Confederate Army, Co. D, 8th Ark. Cav., taken prisoner near Little Rock in 1863, placed in a War Camp in Indiana, released on oath May 16, 1865. In pension records his date of death is shown as July 28, 1902. At date of death John Henry resided at Sulphur Rock in Independence Co., but am unable to find any record of his burial there. Need to find old newspapers, church or cemetery records or anything showing place of birth and place of burial of either William or John Henry Davidson.

EPPERSON - CARNAHAN

Matilda J. Carnahan, my gr-gr-grandmother, was b. Little Rock, Dec. 2, 1823. Her family emigrated from Ireland during the late 1790's or early 1800's. They were supposed to have owned the property on which the State Capitol stands. My gr-gr-grandfather, Jahile Epperson (Eproson, Ephrason) was b. in Tenn. or Ala. in 1824, half English, half Cherokee. Matilda and Jahile were married in Little Rock 1840-46. Their first three children were born there. I would like any information on this couple and their parents.

HARPE

My grandfather was William Harp (or Harpe), apparently born in Tennessee. He married Ellen Brownley in Arkansas ca 1853 in Carroll Co. They had seven children: Aresa or Arisa or Arici, b. Nov. 23, 1854, Madison Co., Ark.; Algerita and Louisa, twins, b. Mar. 8, 1856; Lewis Isaac Newton, b. Mar. 15, 1858; Sarah Elizabeth, b. May, 1860; James Oliver Perry, b. Jan. 3, 1861; and General Seigel, b. Jan. 9, 1862.

According to Mrs. Harp's pension application, Mr. Harp enlisted in 1st Ark. Cav., Co. B, at Madison Co., Ark., was mustered in at Springfield, Mo. in Co. B, 1st Reg. Ark. Cav. Vols. Died at Flat Creek, Mo. (Wilson's Creek out of Springfield) on Aug. 15, 1862.

His wife stated on her application that they had been married on Feb. 15, 1852, and their marriage was witnessed by a Mrs. Dan'l Brumley. Sarah and Daniel Brumley also signed her affidavit for pension, Jan. 30, 1864, Springfield, Mo. Mrs. Harp then took all seven children on to St. Louis, put them in an orphanage for children of soldiers, and died shortly thereafter.

We have found in the 1860 census records a William and Ellen Harp living in Clifty, Ark. (California twp.) and their children all had the same names as above and same ages, except for the last two born in 1861 and 1862. We do not know why the children were listed as Harpe in the orphanage. We would like any information on this family, especially the parents of William and Ellen Harp and her maiden name.

HARDIN

My grandfather, Alfred Alexander Hardin, b. Feb. 3, 1886, son of Mark Hardin and Martha Childres, had brothers and sister: William Mark Hardin, Charles Lee Hardin and Daisy Hardin. According to my grandfather's army enlistment papers, he stated he was born in Pearsall, Texas, but can find no record of Hardins there. Supposedly the father, Mark Hardin, died when the boys were small and their mother remarried. Would appreciate any information.
