GARNER CEMETERY, CLEVELAND COUNTY, ARKANSAS

Copied by: Bennett Wood Garlington, Route 1, Kingsland, Ark. 71652

Edited by: Mrs. Lawrence Newton, P. O. Box 41, Hampton, Ark. 71744

Several months ago, when I was submitting some material for publication in 'The Arkansas Family Historian', I wrote to our Editor: "Today I have given an application for membership in our Society to Mr. Bennett Garlington of Kingsland, Cleveland County, Arkansas, and I do hope he decides to join us. He will make us a good member, as he knows so much about the old families along the Dallas-Cleveland border, and particularly in those townships that were taken from Dallas County when Cleveland (formerly Dorsey) County was formed. He can contribute much to our Society." (Some of the families he has done extensive research on are John Cook, Wright, Garlington, Garner, Childers, Chesier and Burford.)

Mr. Garlington has joined us, and my prediction that he would contribute has come true. He is with the Arkansas Forestry Commission and knows the location of many almost forgotten family cemeteries, and places where there are just two or three or a single grave, in places that were once part of a homestead or plantation. We agreed that if he would gather this information, I would type and edit it for him. The names have been alphabetized only by family surnames in an effort to keep inscriptions together as the graves lie in the cemetery.

-- Willma Humphreys Newton

We begin Mr. Garlington's cemetery listings with Garner Cemetery in Cleveland County on west side of 167 about ten miles north of Fordyce--NE 1/4, NW 1/4, Sec. 10, T9S, R13W.

TAYLOR - WALKER - LEWIS

I need information on Thomas Taylor, born during the Civil War era in Laurel Co., Ky. His brothers, John Henry Taylor, 1870, and William David Taylor, 1864; sisters Betty Ann Sasser and Nancy Robinson. The father Speed Taylor and wife, Ellen Yaden, brought these children from Kentucky to Capart, Ark. ca 1878. They lived around Boxley, Swain, Capart, Coal Hill and Red Star, Ark., where Rev. Speed Taylor preached. Later years Thomas took his family to Oregon, but he didn't stay very long. He wrote "home" that they were leaving Oregon for "home", presume Newton or Madison Co., Ark., but no member of the family ever heard of or saw them. I have no dates nor places pertaining to this family. I guess this was about 1900. I desire correspondence on any of these names.

I found some cemetery records on the Cash family. A friendly person went 15 miles out in the country and checked for me. I did not have any idea where they were. Aren't people nice?
