GENEALOGICAL BOOKLET
PUBLISHED BY DR. UPTON

A 16-page booklet "Finding Arkansas Ancestors", by Dr. James S. Upton, has been published by the Arkansas Genealogical Society. Dr. Upton, president of AGS, wrote the booklet for young people and beginners in genealogical research.

The booklet contains instructions on where to find family information, lists research material available at the Arkansas History Commission in Little Rock, and contains a list of publications which would be helpful to the genealogist doing research in Arkansas.

The center section of the booklet is a Pedigree Chart on which the researcher can list his ancestors back four generations. The booklet also contains charts for listing brothers and sisters of parents and grandparents.

The booklet sells for fifty cents and can be ordered from the Arkansas Genealogical Society, Box 587, Conway, Arkansas. Dr. Upton has donated all proceeds from the sale of the booklet to the Arkansas Genealogical Society.

ANNUAL MEETING SCHEDULED
FOR OCTOBER 13th IN CONWAY

The annual meeting of the Arkansas Genealogical Society is scheduled to be held Sunday, October 13th in Conway at the Silas D. Snow Fine Arts Center on the campus of State College of Arkansas. Time for the meeting is 1:00 p. m.

Speakers for the meeting will be Mrs. Albert L. Waring of Hughes, Arkansas; Mrs. Lawrence Newton of Hampton, Arkansas; and Dr. H. L. Minton of Conway, Arkansas.

Program chairman for the meeting is Miss Annie Laurie Spencer of El Dorado, vice-president of AGS. Dr. Upton, president of AGS, will serve as master of ceremonies.

"METHODISTS IN FAYETTEVILLE"
PUBLISHED BY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Deane G. Carter is the author of a new book "Methodists in Fayetteville", jointly published by the Washington County Historical Society and the Central United Methodist Church of Fayetteville, Arkansas.

The history covers 136 years, from the start of the Methodist Church in Fayetteville, through to 1968 when there are five congregations, the Assembly and the Wesley Foundation. Much emphasis is given to the early days and the pioneers who built the church and the community.

Mr. Carter had used journals, diaries, letters and rare and out-of-print books to make up this history and includes a summary of pastors, elders, and members for reference. The book contains more than 130 pages, including 12 picture pages, 8 1/2 by 11, with enameled cover. Price of the book is $2.00 plus 25¢ for postage and mailing. Copies may be ordered from either Central Methodist Church or the Washington County Historical Society, Box 237, Fayetteville, Ark. 72701.

AGS RECEIVES TWO BOOKS FOR LIBRARY

Two books on North Carolina wills have been donated to the Arkansas Genealogical Society by Mrs. E. M. Venable of Dallas, Texas. The books are: "North Carolina Wills and Inventories", published in 1912, and "Abstract of North Carolina Wills" published in 1910.

The books were donated by Mrs. Venable as a memorial to Mrs. Annie Robinson Davis of Plummerville, Arkansas, who died March 19, 1968. Mrs. Venable is a sister of one of our Board members, Mrs. Duncan B. Brown, Jr. of Little Rock.

RECENT PUBLICATIONS

"Tombstone Inscriptions of Madison Co., Ark.", contains inscriptions from five Madison Co. cemeteries. 102 pp. plus 25 pp. index. Soft cover: $6.00. Hard cover: $9.00 postpaid.

BELL - BRIANT - GOLDEN

I will appreciate correspondence from anyone interested in the following families: J. L. or J. B. Bell, b. Ala. ca 1821-23 (where?), his wife, Matilda, b. Ala. ca 1829. Where were they married? All known children were born in Miss. Their eldest daughter, Elizabeth Josephine (Betty) m. Aberham Absalom (App) Weir in Clark Co., where the Bells settled ca 1859. Other Bell children were Albert G., Alfred, Martha A. and Sarah A. Also need parents of Richard Golden, b. 1825, Ark., m. 1848 to Rachel; m. 2nd Armanda L. Briant, ca 1857. Armanda Briant was born in Tenn.; who were her parents? According to 1850 census of Clark Co., Richard Golden may have had a twin brother, Isaac, and a son was later named Isaac.

CAMP

For many years I have worked on a history of the Camp family. I have not been able to identify my gr-grandfather Camp who married Nancy Whitt, daughter of William Whitt of Gadsden or Sand Valley, Ala. I calculate they married ca 1820. They had six children: Mary Ann Camp Gideon; Benjamin P. Camp, b. Ala., June 19, 1828; Andrew F. Camp, my grandfather; Polly Ann; Amanda C., who m. James Carroll White and later John Hooker in Nevada Co, Ark.; and William W. Camp, who must have died young near Liberty Hill, IaFayette Co., Miss., where the widow, Nancy Whitt Camp, lived prior to and perhaps during the Civil War.
