EIGHTEENTH CENTURY ARKANSAS

by
Winston DeVille

One area that has always thwarted the efforts of researchers of colonial Louisiana families is that of the early Arkansas settlements. Little is known about exactly who lived at these half-way points between New Orleans and the Illinois posts, and few records are extant to enlighten the scholar.

Though very short in content, the following compilation is, nevertheless, invaluable to genealogists searching for an eighteenth century Arkansan. In the summer of 1967, I visited various Canadian archives under the sponsorship of the American Philosophical Society. Through the cooperation of Dr. W. V. Garnier of Bastrop, Louisiana, who is actively building a significant collection of early Louisiana records at the Morehouse Parish Library, I secured a copy of the following church records. The correct citation for this item is: Public Archives of Canada, Mss. Group 8, G14, Vol. 1, pp. 858-871. The document was translated by Mrs. Hubert Uptigrove and edited by Mrs. Linda M. Smith.

--- Winston De Ville, 1101 St. Paul St., Apt. 801, Baltimore, Maryland, 21202

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The Village of St. Philippe cannot be definitely located, but was probably not in what is now Arkansas. Margaret Ross of the Arkansas Gazette says . . . "It was about five miles from Fort Chartres, on the road to Cahokia, and was about a mile from the Mississippi River. It was in the French District of the Illinois, which doesn't necessarily mean it was in the present state of Illinois, though I think it probably was.")

THE FIRST FOUR GENERATIONS OF THE CARTER FAMILY

Compiled by the late Miriam Carter Douglas, Pasadena, California

Taken from the Handwritten Record of Mrs. Douglas which begins in the Year 1620 and closes with the Fourth Generation. Compiled from Mrs. Douglas's Record by:

Willma Humphreys Newton (Mrs. Lawrence Newton)
P. O. Box 41, Hampton, Arkansas 71744
February 18, 1970

COMPILER'S NOTES: I have tried to faithfully and accurately reproduce Mrs. Douglas' work by use of the typewriter. I have tried to make an exact copy, using her spelling, etc. The dates shown in the column at the left are as they appear in the Douglas record. Where I have included a page number in this column, it denotes that the information appears on that page in the Douglas record. Mrs. Douglas did not number all of her pages, and I supplied a number.

There were evidently two books of the descendents, one for the living and one for the dead, when Mrs. Douglas concluded her work in 1908. The names herein are those of the dead in 1908.

Mrs. Douglas descended from John and Ann Whipple Carter, the oldest son of Nathaniel Carter and Ann McPherson. I descend from William Carter and (Mary Jane Elliott?) through their son, William E. Carter, who married Martha Chipman. Through Martha Chipman Carter I descend from John Tilley and John Howland, who came to America on the Mayflower. Jane Chipman Carter, daughter of William E. and Martha Chipman Carter, married William Blanton Humphreys. They were my grandparents. Their son, William Fletcher Humphreys, who married Nellie Pledwell Himler, was my father.

Mrs. Douglas continued her record in the Fifth generation with the descendents of John and Ann Whipple Carter.

I am making a record of all the Carters (of the family to which I belong) Post Offices that I have at this time who are not liveing in order that I may have the record of all both liveing and those not living. Those of who are liveing are in another book but this book is to be used for those not liveing at this time. There are a few names in the book of the liveing who have died since 8th month 1907 who will be in this because since that time they have died.

THE FOURTH GENERATION

4 Mo. 19, 1734 John Carter. The first one of the fourth generation; his father (Nathaniel Carter of Dublin, Ireland) came to Chester Co., Pa. about 1731 or 1732, a single man 24 or 25 years old. Philadelphia was his P.O. from that time until he removed to Orange County, North Carolina in 1766. There his Post Office was in that part of the state but it was new country. I do not know the name of the P. O.

12 Mo. 15, 1732 In 1733 1 mo. 15th, John Carter's father was married in the old Sweedish Church, Wilmington Delaware (Holy Trinity) with Ann McPherson the only daughter of Caniel and Ruth Shires McPherson who lived near Kennett Friends Meeting in Chester Co. Pa. and Nathaniel Carter and wife settled near that Friends Meeting and there John Carter their first child was born and that near Philadelphia his P. O. must have been in that city until he removed in 1763 to Orange Co. North Carolina. There I do not know his P. O. Both Nathaniel Carter and his wife Ann McPherson Carter and their son John Carter and wife Ann Whipple Carter remained in N. C. the remainder of their lives. Nathaniel died in 5th Mo. 1795 and his wife in 9th Mo. 1795. near Spring Meeting of Friends and were buried there. Nathaniel and Ann McPherson brought up a family of children and they are all that I know of anywhere either in America or Europe who constitute the fourth generation of My Carter family.

Nathaniel Carter had but one brother who lived to mature age and his name was Nicholas Carter whose home was in Dublin Ireland and who bore the same name as his father and also of his grandfather. There were three Nicholas Carters, 1 in the first generation, 1 in the second generation and this one in the third generation in Ireland. This brother Nicholas in the third generation was born 10 mo. 7, 1702, married by a priest in 1725, had no children to come to maturity. Consequently he wished his brother Nathaniel Carter of Chester Co. Pa. to return to Dublin Ireland and take his (State legal place - NOTE: this term almost illegible - may be something similar) as his heir. Nicholas came to America to see his brother and try to induce him to return but Nathaniel who was the youngest of his parents children would not go. and never did return to Ireland.

(about 1740)

In the third generation besides Nicholas Carter and Nathaniel sons of Nicholas and Margaret Benningham Carter (of the 2nd generation) there was one son John who was born in 1701 and died in his parents home died 1715. There were in this third generation three daughters Anne born in 1698 or 99 married by a priest Mar. 1716 in Dublin, Ireland

Page 8

b. 1702, m. 1723

Rebecca married Thomas Rutter from Cheshire England and

b. 1705, m. 1733

Elizabeth Carter married by a Priest in Dublin, Ireland.

The above account ends until this time a clear definite knowledge of these sisters of Nathaniel Carter as he came to America about 1732 or 33 maybe as early as 1731 and now in 1908 nearly 200 years in the past gives no written facts as to their posterity.

1907 &amp; 8

I am now corresponding with some of the Rutter family in England to find if I can whether they are descendants of Rebecca and Thomas Rutter of Cheshire or not.

Miriam Carter Douglas 10th Mo 9th, 1908.

GARLAND COUNTY FAMILIES - 1880 CENSUS

The Garland County Historical Society publishes a year book and features a political township each year. This year we are doing two of the smaller ones in the eastern portion of the county -- Sulphur and Phillips that includes the Lake Catherine and Lonsdale area. I would like anyone who had ancestors living there on the 1880 census to contact us. We try to learn ancestry and list descendants of each family and have pictures when possible. We already have quite a bit about some of them, but others are blank. Address all queries and response to: Mrs. Frank Cline, 914 Summer St., Hot Springs, Ark. 71901

NEAL OR VAUGHN CEMETERY, HOWARD COUNTY, ARKANSAS

Go ten miles west of Nashville on Highway 24, turn left and go south to the first road to the right. This land leads to the Bearden place. The cemetery is across their south pasture on the hill in the woods to the east. Compiler's uncle helped make a mineral survey of this county in 1936 and to his recollection this cemetery had 30 to 40 stones. The area has had a forest fire since this time, so it is assumed that many of the stones are buried beneath the fallen logs and many pine needles.

TOLLETT FAMILY CEMETERY, HOWARD COUNTY, ARKANSAS

This cemetery is located on the Jeff Tollett place on Highway 28 E, about 5 miles from Nashville, Ark. It is in terrible condition and the reading of these few markers was made possible by Miss Jamie McConnell, Mrs. Juel Tollett and Mrs. Francis Reed. A tree has fallen across the cemetery and knocked the stones down. Too, the grass, thorn bushes, etc. have been allowed to grow. These are the few markers that were found.

HESTER CEMETERY, HOWARD COUNTY, ARKANSAS

This is supposedly one of the oldest cemeteries in our county. It is located between Center Point and Dierks on Highway 4. It is not far from the site of the New Salem Church and School, which is long past. Although about 100 yards from the highway, it is completely lost in the Dierks Forest. It is directly east of the Jerry Jacob's place. It was a large cemetery but the Jacobs family keep their Stone lot and the rest are lost to oblivion. -- Jo Dildy, Box 155, Nashville, Ark.

STONE, Mary E., wife of F.M.	Jan. 1, 1849	July 10, 1877

There was a stone on whose name I could not read. Mr. Jacobs told me that it was a daughter of Marion and Mary Stone, Tretta Lee Stone. This was all I could read: wife of J. H. Kennedy, Oct. 1867; Dec. 3, 1887.

OLD SARDIS CEMETERY, HOWARD COUNTY, ARKANSAS

Located one and a half miles north of Wakefield Methodist Church, this cemetery is much neglected, but I am told that at one time there was one of the largest Baptist Churches for those days near by. There were three stones that I could not reach because of weeds, briars and big holes. If there were graves between the present standing stones, then it was a very large cemetery. -- Jo Dildy, Box 155, Nashville.

* (Family tradition says that Carter Markham was hung during the Civil War by Yankee soldiers and left for dead. Then later he was hung again by the bushwackers. Neither hanging 'took', but left deep scars on his neck. Later he supposedly married four more times . . . so indeed he fought a good fight. I can't find one thread of evidence to back this up. This was my great grandfather, a Baptist preacher. -- Jo Dildy.)

HICKMAN

I am trying to trace the ancestry of William Preston Hickman, b. Jan. 18, 1804 in N.C., who bought property in the Parish of Natchitoches, La. on Dec. 30, 1830. The deed says he was "of the Terr. of Ark." and another record says "of Hempstead Co., Ark." Family custom says his father was William, and his mother we know was Mary Webster Hickman. His widowed mother came to La. with him and his two brothers, Peter Terry Hickman and Thomas Jefferson Hickman, soon after 1830, so his father must have died sometime between then and 1812, when the last son was born in Tenn. It is believed the family came across Tenn. from N.C. during the beginning of the 1800's. In the 1830 census, I find a Wm. Hickman in Hempstead Co., Ark. with 15 young white males living there, besides various other family members. I need to determine if this is the right family, where they came from and when.

ST A N D L E E

William Standlee was listed along with his children in the 1850 census as living in Cadron twp., Conway Co., Ark. William Standlee was 63, born Tenn.; his children were Robert, 24; Caroline, 14; Mary, 13; and William, 10. I have reason to believe that William Standlee was a brother to my gr-grandfather, Abraham Standlee.

Abraham Standlee was living in Lexington, Henderson Co., Tenn. in 1830. In 1850 he was living in Center Point, Blue Bayou twp., Sevier Co., Ark. In 1860 he was living in Antoine twp., Pike Co., Ark. He was born somewhere in Tenn. in 1789 and died in 1864, probably in Antoine twp., Pike Co. I would like to contact some descendant of William Standlee in an effort to confirm my belief that he is my gr-grandfather's brother.

QUERIES

SCRIMSHIRE

I found my gr-grandfather, William Scrimshire, in the 1860 census of Jefferson Co. His wife's name was Elizabeth. William was born in 1810 in Ga. and his children were all born there with the exception of the youngest, who was born in Ala. in 1859. In 1863 he enlisted in the war at Pine Bluff. This is the only record I can find of him. I need to know his wife's maiden name, and date of death on him and his wife.

Some of his children were: John Wesley Scrimshire; A. M. Scrimshire, a Church of Christ preacher in the Mizourn community; George; Soloman; and William.

SIMS - JOYNER

My gr-grandfather, George Hastings Sims (Simms), was born in Tenn. in 1814 and died in 1914 in White Co., Ark. in the Steprock community. He married Louisa --- Joyner, born in Tenn. in 1843, died in 1912, Steprock community, White Co. They are both buried there. They supposedly lived a while in Searcy Co., Ark before moving to White Co. They are supposed to have left Tennessee before 1885/90. Does anyone know where in Tenn.? I have some data on this family I will share if an interested person will write me.

My gr-grandfather, William Nathan Joyner, was born in Ala. ca 1815/20, m. Sarah Elizabeth ---, born 1824 in Ala. They moved to White Co., Ark. ca 1840/44. Both are buried in White Co. They raised a large family, one of whom was my grandfather, James Madison (Matt) Joyner, born in Steprock community, White Co., Ark. He married Nancy Elizabeth Sims, daughter of the above George Hastings Sims, in 1892. Does anyone know where in Alabama the Joyners came from?
