ARKANSAS GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY
NAMES THREE HONORARY MEMBERS

Mrs. H. A. Knorr

Mrs. Lady Elizabeth Luker

Mrs. Grace Benton Nelson

Three honorary members of the Arkansas Genealogical Society were elected by the AGS Board of Directors in 1972 and were announced at the Society's annual meeting in October. They are: Mrs. H. A. Knorr of Pine Bluff, Mrs. Lady Elizabeth Luker of Newport and Mrs. Grace Benton Nelson of Gurdon.

Mrs. Knorr, well-known to Arkansas genealogists as "Miss Kitty," has devoted a lifetime to family research and is perhaps the foremost authority in America on Virginia families. She has compiled and published 14 books on Virginia marriages, copies of which she has generously donated to the genealogical library of our Society.

Mrs. Knorr is a member of many genealogical and patriotic organizations, including Daughters of the Barons of Runnymede, a group whose lineage is traced back to 1215, the Society of Mayflower Descendants, Daughters of the American Revolution, the First Families of Virginia, Colonial Dames of America and many others. A more detailed article on Mrs. Knorr was printed in the Oct. - Nov. - Dec., 1970 issue of Arkansas Family Historian.

Mrs. Luker is well known in northeast Arkansas as a leader in historical activities and research. Under her personal supervision the restoration of the Jacksonport Courthouse in Jackson County and the restoration of the steamboat Mary Woods No. 2 on White River were undertaken and completed. For this project the Award of Merit was presented to the Jackson County Historical Society by the American Association for State and Local History.

The above restorations were the subjects of a film completed last year by the Arkansas Educational TV Commission and were much publicized by the state newspapers.

Mrs. Nelson is perhaps best known in Arkansas historical circles for her research into the life of Meriwether Lewis Randolph, last territorial secretary of Arkansas and a grandson of Thomas Jefferson. Three articles by her, published in the Arkansas Gazette in January and February, 1956, tell the story of how a chance remark in the 1930's led her to find the grave of Randolph some twenty years later in a remote section of southern Clark County.

Her years of research into the Randolph-Jefferson families made her an authority on the subject, and in 1966 she was invited to attend a reunion of Jefferson's descendants at Charlottesville and Monticello.

ARKANSAS GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY ANNUAL MEETING HELD IN OCTOBER

The tenth annual meeting of the Arkansas Genealogical Society was held Sunday, October 15, 1972 in Trieschman Hall at Hendrix College, Conway. Mr. Alonzo D. Camp of Little Rock, president, presided at the meeting.

The welcome was given by the Rev. James E. Major, Vice-President of Hendrix College. The invocation was given by Mr. W. E. Bailey of Enola, a former president of the Society.

Speakers for the meeting were: Mr. Russell P. Baker, Archivist at the Arkansas History Commission in Little Rock, who spoke on "Preserving Arkansas Records," and Mrs. R. E. Warren of Smackover, who discussed "Records and Research in the Genealogical Library of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Salt Lake City, Utah." The speakers were introduced by Mrs. Willma H. Newton, Vice-President and Program Chairman.

The following slate of officers was presented by the nominating committee and was elected by the Society to serve during 1973: Mrs. Willma H. Newton, Hampton, President; Mrs. Mario B. Cia, Sr., Little Rock, Vice-President; Mrs. M. A. Neel, Hazen, Secretary-Treasurer; Miss Annie Laurie Spencer, El Dorado, Corresponding Secretary; Dr. James S. Upton, Conway, Historian; and Capt. John C. Hammock, Dermott, Herald.

The following members were elected to the Board of Directors for three-year terms, beginning in January, 1973: Mr. Alonzo D. Camp, Little Rock; Mrs. Jerry P. Glover, Pine Bluff; Mrs. Hayle P. Hollis, Camden; Mrs. Robert G. Hubbard, Hot Springs; and Mrs. Leister E. Presley, Searcy. Mrs. F. O. Griffin, Sr., Helena, was elected to the Board to fill the unexpired term of Mr. J. B. Lemley of Russellville, who resigned.

Mrs. Lillian McGowen of El Dorado provided refreshments during intermission and was assisted by Miss Marie Murphy, also of El Dorado. Door prizes were awarded by Mrs. Duncan B. Brown of Little Rock and Mrs. M. A. Neel of Hazen.

Special Certificates of Merit were awarded to the following persons: Mrs. H. A. Knorr, Pine Bluff; Mrs. Lady Elizabeth Luker, Newport; and Mrs. Grace Benton Nelson, Gurdon, Honorary Members; and to Mrs. R. E. Warren and Mr. Russell P. Baker, speakers at the tenth annual meeting.

Recognition was given to past presidents of the Society who were present.

CORRECTION

In the Oct.-Nov.-Dec., 1970 issue of The Arkansas Family Historian, Vol. VIII, no. 4, an article concerning Mrs. H. A. Knorr of Pine Bluff was printed with the following names of members of Mrs. Knorr's family spelled incorrectly: Mrs. Knorr's mother's name was Bocage (not Bacade) and her maternal grandmother's name was Lindsay (not Lindsey).

MRS. MURPHY RESIGNS AS EDITOR OF HISTORIAN

Mrs. Dolores Murphy of Conway, who has served as editor of The Arkansas Family Historian since 1964, has resigned effective with this issue. Mrs. Murphy's resignation was announced at the annual meeting in October. The new editor of the quarterly will be Mrs. Mario B. Cia of Little Rock.

LETTER TO DR. JAMES BOYD BLACKERBY -- JULY 3, 1866

This letter was written by Benjamin Blackerby in South Carolina to his son, Dr. James Boyd Blackerby, who was living at the time in what is now Cleveland County, Arkansas. Dr. Blackerby migrated to this area from Shelby County, Alabama in 1849. He was one of the first medical doctors to practice here. Dr. Blackerby was a great grandfather of Herschel R. Garner, Rison, Arkansas. -- Mrs. H. R. Garner, Rison, Arkansas.

July the 3rd, 1866

Laurens District, S. C.

Dear Son and Daughter,

I take this opportunity of writing you a few lines to let you know that we are all well at this time hoping that when this comes to hand it will find you all enjoying the same blessings of life. I recd. your kind & welcome letter some time ago & I would have written sooner but I thought that I might have a chance to send it part of the way by hand.

I have nothing of interest to write at present we have a very good prospect for a good crop at this time but we have had most too much rain for cotten & the weather too cold but it is very hot at this time & I hope everything will begin to grow for crops are very backward for this time of year but our land is getting old and nearly exhausted so we can't expect to make very much at best what freedmen I have herd are doing as well as I could expect for them to do. I think the freedmen are generally doing well but they will quit and stray about, some of them changed homes several times this year. I think the ware has about ruined this state we can never be the people we were before for our land is too poore to work hired labor to advantage. They have been a grate many freedmen cared out west from this state so I think if you want to get hands it not be a very difficult matter to get them out hear for I am satisfied the majority of them will not make anything this year over a surport so I beleave they will begin to want to go whar they can get better wages but I leave this subject to some future time. I know that you want to hear more about what has become of the people. All my famley came out of the ware safe. W. H. Boyd's are all well they lost thir youngest son in 63 his name was Laurens Washington he was a nice boy & Lizy has never got over it yet for she thought a heap of him, their other children are all grown.

Your uncle John Boyd & moost of his famley are dead. Samuel L. Boyd his oldest son was killed on the coast of this state the first of the ware. Mary & Lizy his daughters died in 63 & he died in N. C. about the time of surrender so their are only two of the famley lef that is your aunt Sallie & Wm. their youngest son. Your uncle James Boyd's famley are all well and his children grown he lost his oldest son John Wesley in the battle around Richmond in 62 so this ends all the famley connection it would be too tedious a task for me to give a list of friends killed & lost in the ware surfice to say that our lost was heavy & there are many fond harts bearing in silenc the burning greaf that their sons are gone & nothing gained by their loss.

O we grive with you in your sour affliction in loss of your children but not as those without hope & as you say it will not be long before we will all meet whar I hope there will be no more parting I hope that you & Mary will bear up your loss with that christian fortitud which never forsakes us in no tryal however sever it may be this is the honest prayr of your father & mother. O James you don't have no idea how bad we want to see you, but we have but little hope of seeing you again in this wurd for we are far apart & life so uncertain & old adge keeps creeping on so it be can't count on a very long time to stay hear. But we do want you to come and see us if you can one time so we hope that you can spair that much time before long. So you must accept our love you & Mary & all the children. So I must end this letter for I cannot pen my feelings to you for they are too full of emotion. So good by,

Benj. Blackerby

LETTER (cont'd)

I forgot to tell you about Washington Sadler he married Elliot Boyd he was wounded in the left arm and has lost the use of it intirely. Freeing the negroes has left him in a bad condition. Hireing is not like having you own. They are hireing from sixety to 70 dollars and board themselves, from 30 to 40 and you board them and clothes them. I am living on Sam Boyd's land that I bought from him when he left in a half mile of Mr. Dave Vance. Whit Vance and Roseburrow Vance is living out there on red river I don't think it can be very far from whpre you are now living. James write and tell me all about the country the health and water. What has become of Samuel Boyd and famley. I am very anxious to hear from them. I don't know what has become of my brothers in Alabammer. Have you heard anything from them since the war. I would like to heare from them if they are in the land of the living I haven't heard from them since you left Alabamer. James you must be sure to come out this fall and bring your famley with you if you can. We all would be glad to see you. I have sent two letters to you since the surrender one by Landers Griffin one by Mr. Crook Lawrence started one by male. I don't know whether they have reached your hand or not. Write as soon as this comes to hand. I and mother brother sister join in love to you all.

There are many unmarked, lost graves in this very old cemetery, although many other unmarked graves are known to members of the families. I was advised by a descendant of the above Yates men that they fought in the Civil War for the Union yet they lie in unmarked graves. Four other graves said to be of a Dr. Whitehead, his wife and possibly two children. They are almost lost yet it seems someone would be related to them and interested enough to mark their resting places. -- Lois Hodges Canfield, Rt. 1, Box 56A, Bismarck, Ark.

ONSET, ARKANSAS

My grandfather, William Jackson Williams, died at Onset, Arkansas (Marion Co.) in 1892. Can't find this community on the map, nor anyone who has ever heard of it. Could anyone help me locate this community and possibly a newspaper that might have carried his obituary.

BRANDON

I would like to correspond and exchange data on Brandon line. My gr-grandmother was Elizabeth Brandon, born in Tennessee, married John (Peter?) Lindley, born in Kentucky. They probably married in Tennessee, as their first two or three children were born there. The family came to Arkansas in the early 1830's or before, settling in northwest Arkansas. Elizabeth had at least one brother, John Brandon, whose wife's name also was Elizabeth. The brother, John Brandon's, youngest son, George, went to Oklahoma in the late 1890's,

CRENSHAW

My grandmother, LeAnna Elizabeth Crenshaw, was born in Booneville, Ark., Nov. 3, 1849. She had two younger brothers, John Walter and Jessie; Jessie died early in life. Her father was John Crenshaw, believed born in Springfield, Mo. Her mother's maiden name may have been Mitchell, or that may have been the name of her second husband (after Crenshaw). They owned a farm in Booneville, but were burned out during the Civil War. LeAnna, her mother and brother, John Walter, left and started for Fulton, Kansas. The mother died as a result of abuse she had received at the hands of renegades when their farm was burned. She was buried on the way by the side of the road before they reached Fulton. This is all the information I have. Perhaps someone may advise me where to go from here.

James "Jim" Qualls is my husband's gr-grandfather. He was born ca 1843, somewhere in Tenn., married Sarah Elizabeth Willey, daughter of Washington Willey, their neighbors in Johnson Co. Nathan Qualls is said to have been killed in a duel on the streets of Ozark, Ark. right after the Civil War. He was unmarried.

We need more information about Russ Qualls, what area of Tennessee he came from. He is thought to have had sisters Martha and Nancy. Does anyone have any cemetery lists from Johnson County showing Qualls markers?

ROSE

I have been doing genealogical research on my family. Family tradition states that a brother of my grandfather was killed in the battle of Pea Ridge, Arkansas. His name was Rose, and we are trying to determine his first name. Could anyone tell me if there are casualty lists available from that encounter. I believe he was a Union soldier.

SCOTT - CHEAIRS

I am seeking information about Nathaniel Scott and his wife, Mary "Polly" Cheairs, born May 8, 1796, daughter of Nathaniel Cheairs of Montgomery Co., N. C. and Maury Co., Tenn. The following, I believe, are some of Nathaniel and Molly's children; Mary (Mrs. W. M. McNiell), Susan (Mrs. John B. Mallard), Nancy L., Abigail R., Emily (Mrs. J. M. Richardson). All of the above lived in Arkansas in the 1850's.

SMITH - GRUNDY - MYHAN

Felix Grundy Smith was born in Alabama, according to 1880 Arkansas census. He married Missouri Ann Myhan, who was born in Ga. They lived in Gray township in 1880. Their youngest child, John Henry, was born there. He was my grandfather. The Smith family moved to Cameron, Texas, Milam Co., before 1890.

There was a Felix Grundy born in Berkley Co., Va. in 1777, son of George Grundy from England. Felix Grundy had a son John Grundy (Tenn.). There is probably a connection with Felix Grundy Smith and Felix Grundy. Anyone who knows anything about the parents of Felix Grundy Smith, please write to me,

ORME - BLAKEMORE - MITCHELL

These families lived in Indian Territory at Catcher near Van Buren, Arkansas. Mary Idell Orme was born in 1855 in or near Van Buren. She first married a Dr. Blakemore, who was considerably older than she was. They had three daughters: May, Georgia and Daisy. Dr. Blakemore later died and Mary Idell married a Jesse Mitchell ca 1891-92. They had their first son, Jesse James Mitchell, Dec. 31, 1893. Jesse Mitchell was 68 years old and Mary was 38 at the time. They next had a daughter, Effie. She married a Lattimore, and on Jan. 25, 1924, she was murdered on her farm near Van Buren.

In February, 1898, a tornado hit Catcher and killed a Mitchell son (Jesse Mitchell's by his first wife). Would appreciate any information on these people.

ROLLER

I am researching the civilian and military life of William Roller, son of John and Mary Hunter Roller, wed July 11, 1846 at the head of Big Sugar Creek, Benton County, Arkansas, I need the following information:

The relationship of a Joshua Roller, born in 1817, and either married to or the brother of a woman named Nancy Roller, born in 1826, to the John Roller of my research, born about 1825 and wed in 1846.

The identity, by parentage if possible, of Mary Hunter, who wed John Roller and gave birth to William, I believe some time between June and December of 1847.

The relationship of the John Roller I have identified to Jacob Roller of Roller Ridge, who was wed three or four times and fathered 24 to 26 children.

The parents of the John Roller of my study.

The identity of John Roller's second wife who gave birth to the following children: George Washington Roller, born Oct. 29, 1870; Robert E. Lee Roller, born Feb. 14, 1873; Mary Ella Roller, born Sept. 17, 1876; and Elizabeth Jane Roller, born Jan. 30, 1878.

The William Roller I am researching served in the U.S. Army from 1869 to 1879 and died Dec. 14, 1880. Evidence points to his death in Fort Smith, but I am unable to locate the place of burial. I will appreciate whatever information you can give me.

LANEY

My father, Thomas Doris Laney, taught school at Greenbrier in Faulkner Co. prior to 1896. He and my mother married in Indian Territory in 1896; he had been teaching in Indian Territory when they married. I'd like any information relative to him. My opinion is that he went to that area about the time the Jackson Ellzey family went there. Jackson Ellzey was his mother's brother. I wonder if there is any record of his teaching that might tell when he taught, how long, his age, etc. Any information would be appreciated.
