SPRING WORKSHOP

The ARKANSAS GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC., is planning a large genealogical workshop to be held SATURDAY, MARCH 12, 1977 from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the SHERATON LITTLE ROCK, 601 East 7th, Little Rock, Arkansas 72201.

Society President, Marion Stark Craig, M.D. says Genealogy (FAMILY TREE CLIMBING) is America's fastest growing hobby.

The workshop will feature Mrs. Gay Perry Kowallis of Logan, Utah, the "Book Review" editor for the GENEALOGICAL HELPER, who will talk about any of the following subjects:

1. Ten Fascinating Steps To A Planned Research Program
2. Effective Genealogical Correspondence
3. Note-Keeping Systems
4. Advertising For Lost Ancestors, A Very Rewarding Way to Climb Your Family Tree
5. Reading Early Handwriting Styles
6. Finding the Place of Origin of Your Immigrant Ancestor

Mrs. Kowallis has had over 25 years of genealogical research experience. She was librarian for the Cache Genealogical Library in Logan, Utah for six years and assisted in the preparation of the HANDBOOK FOR GENEALOGICAL CORRESPONDENCE compiled in 1963 by the Cache Genealogical Library. She was co-chairman for the revised edition in 1974 by The Everton Publishers. She has ancestral research certificates from the Brigham Young University in Basic Genealogical, American English, Welch, Danish and Swedish research. For the past 12 years she has been the Danish research instructor for the Cache Genealogical Library. From 1968 to 1972 she was co-editor for the DANISH GENEALOGICAL HELPER and the SCANDINAVIAN GENEALOGICAL HELPER published by The Everton Publishers. In addition to her work as the "Book Review Editor" for Evertons, she also writes the "Question and Answer Box" section of THE GENEALOGICAL HELPER.

After receiving her B. S. Degree from Utah State University in 1935 she married Albert B. Kowallis. They have two children and four grandchildren. She will be accompanied by her husband, Albert.

Thousands of persons have attended Everton workshops that have been sponsored by local groups all over the world. Seating for the workshop is limited and will be available on a first come, first served basis. Admission is $10.00 which will include a packet of genealogical material which will be passed out, and the noon meal. # PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

TO THE MEMBERSHIP AT LARGE ---

I am pleased to be President as AGS begins its sixteenth year. AGS is a fine organization and is enjoying splendid growth. It is especially pleasing that the Quarterly can still be produced and mailed without an increase in annual membership dues.

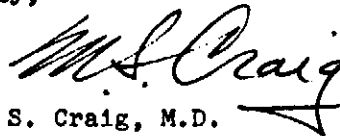

The Workshop sponsored by AGS on Saturday, March 12, at the SHERATON LITTLE ROCK, should interest all family tree enthusiasts. A good attendance is anticipated. Please make reservations in advance, if at all possible. These will greatly help the arrangements committee. A delicious luncheon is included in the $10.00 registration fee.

All of us should be interested in "spreading the word" and in assisting beginners to get started in the fascinating field of Genealogy and Family History. It would be wonderful if each member would bring at least one non-member to the Workshop.

Please spread the word about the Workshop and encourage many of your non-member friends to attend.

Hope to see you on March 12.

Sincerely,

Marion S. Craig, M.D.

YOUR EDITOR'S NOTES

Dear Beautiful Important Members:

You really are beautiful people! The pink slips with your membership renewals (and orders for Ancestor Chart Volumes) have kept many of us busy, getting organized for 1977. That has not always been such a large job, but 1976 we ended up with 740 members, and many have already sent in their money for 1977 (some have even paid thru 1979!).

This is very important, because we try to be very careful to mark each card paid, check to see everyone still lives in the same place and the zip code has to be correct, not even one number different in the street number (or the postal service, delights in collecting "postage due". Many new members have already joined us this year (a new metal addressograph plate has to be made for every new member, with all the correct information (as we do want everyone to receive their Arkansas Family Historian on time.

We have to have 200 to mail bulk mail, and by the very first day of 1977, we already had our 200. That is really great, as to this date not one statement has been sent to any member, just the pink slip in the December Quarterly. This means 13 cents plus the envelope, and time to get all those ready to send has been saved. Thank each and every one that really helps when the renewals are sent early. Especially does this help when the weather is so bad, our volunteer workers couldn't get together to help. Everyone has had to stay in, even here in Arkansas. For two week or more, your editor couldn't even get one block to the big mail box. There was a time (not lately) when the mail would arrive before noon and by 5 p.m. it would be answered and back in the big mail box one block away, for the evening pick-up. Many letters have been answered (even if the editor couldnot get to the box) even your President took arm loads several times, and our private printer (Mr. Cia) and anyone else, who came in and went out again, carried the mail for us.

Renewals are still arriving in piles and stacks and that is great, Ancestor Charts are being returned so another Volume will be forth-coming. Do not wait to send for the Volumes you want, as Volume I is about gone.

All our members did not make it in time to be listed in the December Quarterly. Many paid in after the December issue was printed. One of our Honorary members was omitted:

Miss Jennie Belle Lyle, 2103 N. Polk, Little Rock, Ark 72207

We are sorry, but we just slipped that time.

And sometimes our typewriter spells wrong:

Mr. George J. WEMPLE, 106 E. State Road 8, Crown Point, Ind. 46307 (was listed as TEMPLE) That may be a good lesson in Genealogy - look for several different spellings - especially if you know your ancestor was in the area. But we are sorry Mr. WEMPLE - Thanks for bringing it to our attention.

The new MORMAN LIBRARY (see December issue) near Jacksonville, AR which opened Oct. 1976 has been visited by many of our Arkansas Family Historians (even with the bad weather) and all reports so far have been fine. Someone sent us a list of rules.

LIBRARY RULES

1. Please no smoking anywhere in the building or on the grounds.
2. Please dress moderately as you would in any church. No shorts or mini-tops. Casual dress is allowed.
3. The fees as posted in the Library are to cover the cost of postage and handling of the film.
4. Fees will be collected when the film is ordered. When the film is received by the library, you will be notified by phone, collect, or by post card. At this time, you will be able to reserve a reader for a specific time, especially for those who live out of town.
5. The second Saturday of each month is reserved for our out-of-town members who are here for the stake leadership meetings. Many of these members cannot get here at any other time and we ask our local members and all non-members to please respect this rule.
6. Except for the reserved readers, if a patron is waiting for a reader, we ask that you please relinquish your reader after one hour.

Our goal is to serve our patrons to the best of our ability and rules 3 thru will be changed from time to time as seen fit by the library board.

Thank you

The following request was made from Mrs. Diane Dieterle, Director, GENEALOGICAL LIBRARY FOR THE BLIND AND PHYSICALLY HANDICAPPED, INC., 4176 English Oak Drive, Doraville, Georgia 30340 (404) 449-1533

"On Dec. 30, 1975, this non-profit, tax-exempt corporation was organized to provide genealogical instruction and materials to those who are blind, deaf, and otherwise handicapped, who are interested in their own families.

During 1976, genealogical instructional materials have been produced in Braille, large print, and on cassette tape for the blind. Classes in genealogy, taught in sign language, have been offered to the deaf, and a teletype has been installed so we can communicate over the telephone with the deaf.

Now we have been approached by the PARALYZED VETERANS OF AMERICA to establish a lending library for the handicapped who either cannot go to the record depositories and libraries because of the inaccessibility of the buildings, or who are strickly homebound because of their injuries. Mr. Barney W. Register, vice president of the Tampa Bay (Florida) Chapter, informs me that the national organization has in excess of 200,000 cord-injured veterans as members.

Acting on Mr. Register's suggestion, we are making plans for opening a lending library for the handicapped in 1977. To build up our current inventory of 270 genealogical textbooks and reference books, we are asking if you would please donate one copy of your for this library. Upon receipt, we will send you a letter for Internal Revenue stating the name of your books and the retail value of them, and declaring it to be a tax-deductible donation. In addition, the publicity that will be given this service, you will be mentioned by name as one of the book donors.

Will you help us? Any other donations would also be appreciated.

And another letter attached, from Barney W. Register:

The real problem for handicapped citizens who are confined to wheel-chairs in attempting to do any serious research, is the inaccessibility of Libraries and Research rooms, i.e. curbs, steps narrow door-ways and too-small restrooms.

The problem becomes almost impossible for the shut-in confined to his bedroom.

The cause, of course in both of these situations, is the lack of available reference material or more accurately, the getting that material to the individual. These materials are not loaned out by Libraries and if available, in original or copy for purchase, the cost is above his limited means. (Most handicapped individuals have income below the median level).

May I suggest that what is needed is a really broad coverage low fee rental arrangement on original material, sent direct to the home of the handicapped person? This would allow library like 'browsing the index' for unthought of leads to the particular subject. Along with this rental arrangement could go an economical zerox type copying service for those rare or irreplaceable works so that no loss could occur.

Funding for covering the subsidies required in this system as well as the occasional losses of originals could be obtained, I am sure, from some of the many philanthropic funds or foundations. A great need does exist!

I hopethese suggestions will prove of some value in your good works."
(end of both these letters)

EDITOR'S NOTE: Mr. Jim DeJarnett, Regional Librarian, for the Blind and Physical Handicapped, Atlanta, Georgia, was contacted by your Editor, and this information was verified 15 Jan. 1977. Needless to say both the ANCESTOR CHART VOLUMES 1, 2, 3, & 4 were quickly sent, and also the 1880 POPE COUNTY CENSUS RECORD was sent. Do you have a book you would like to donate to this worthwhile project? Write: Mrs. Dieterle.

Sincerely,

Elaine Cia (Mrs. M. Bla. Jr.)

PROBATE BONDS of
LAWRENCE COUNTY, ARKANSAS
1815-1835

Compiled by

Marion Stark CRAIG, M.D.
300 Beckwood Road
Little Rock, Arkansas 72205

Lawrence was created on January 15, 1815, as a county in the Territory of Missouri. From old Lawrence have come in whole or in part 32 of the 75 counties in our now State of Arkansas. No wonder she is called the "Mother of Counties." As shown by the U. S. census, of 1820, well over one-third of all inhabitants enumerated in the new Territory of Arkansas lived in Lawrence County.

A collection of loose probate bonds was discovered in 1972 in a box at the office of the County Clerk of Lawrence at Walnut Ridge by James Logan MORGAN of 314 Vine Street, Newport, Jackson County, Arkansas, and the compiler. These range in date from 1815 into 1835. Photocopies of all were obtained. From these the following two lists of abstracts were compiled. In addition, a third list of names was placed here by the compiler. This latter list contains names of persons known to have died in Lawrence County (1815-1835) for whom no probate bonds were found, but about whom some type of record is extant concerning their deaths.

Interested readers are advised to also consult a "Consolidated Index To Wills, Administrations, and Decedents In Genealogical Records Of N/E Arkansas: 1816-1830 and 1830-1838," by James Logan MORGAN, published in The Arkansas Genealogical Register, Volume 1, Number 4, December 1971, pages 50 thru 59. In addition, one should consult Genealogical Records of Arkansas 1804-1830, Volume 1 (Parts 1 and 2), 1973, by Mr. MORGAN.

Probate bonds are original instruments. Signatures thereon are authentic. Some appear as a "mark." Use of a mark does not always denote illiteracy. Infirmity, palsy, poor vision and other situations can be determining factors. Several females appear in the diminutive, such as, Polly (for Mary), Peggy (for Margaret), Sally (for Sarah), and Betsey (for Elizabeth). In the abstracts, all names appear as spelled on the bonds. Be sure to see all possible variations in spelling.

To aid in the proper understanding of certain legal terms, definitions are given. A testate estate indicates the deceased left a Last Will and Testament that was accepted by the Court. Intestate means there was no Will, or, if one were left, it was not accepted by the Court. The settlement of a testate estate is usually begun by an executor and/or executrix. Should these decline or cease to function, the Court appoints an administrator and/or administratrix "with the Will annexed" to carry the testate estate through the probate process. When an administrator and/or administratrix of an unsettled intestate estate ceases to function, the Court appoints an administrator and/or administratrix "de-bonis-non" to complete the settlement. The law required all such be bonded. The only exception would be with a testate estate when the Will requested the Court waive this requirement. The term "legal heirs" should not be interpreted as meaning only children of a deceased in every instance.

Each bond was required to be signed by Securities (bondsmen). These bondsmen (securities) were not professionals as we know bondsmen today. No fee was paid or received. Usually, in those long ago years, one signed only the bond of a relative or trusted friend.

All words within parentheses are those of the compiler. At the end of this compilation is an every-name index. This index is introduced by a paragraph containing special instructions for its use. This is the reason the paragraphs are numbered.

Two were father and son, Joseph HARDIN, Sr., and Joseph HARDIN, Junr. By early 1825 these two had removed to Hempstead County and soon thereafter to Antoine Township, Clark County, Arkansas, where they were still living when the 1850 U. S. census was enumerated.

161. The Joseph HARDIN who signed the probate bonds was in every instance the Joseph HARDIN who died on August 25, 1826, at his residence in Davidsonville, the county seat of Lawrence, where he was Sheriff of the County and Colonel of the Third Regiment of the Territorial Militia of Arkansas. It is he who is the great, great grandfather of the compiler. Specimens of the authentic signatures of the Josephs HARDIN are in the custody of the compiler. In no instance does the signature of the Senior or Junior appear on any of these probate bonds. The father of Joseph HARDIN, the Sheriff and Colonel, was the Revolutionary War soldier and pensioner, Benjamin HARDIN, who died at his residence near Goodie Creek, in Christian Township, Independence County, Arkansas, on April 2, 1848.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The WOOLVERTON FAMILY BIBLE records and the Grand Army excerpts were sent to our Arkansas Family Historian by Dorothy K. Alvis 33 Eaton, Little Rock, AR 72209 "I thought these records might be of interest to some of the AFH members and readers. I am not a subscriber, as I have no Arkansas families, but I am interested in genealogy and so would like to pass these items along in hopes that they will help someone". (She sound like she belongs to us!) Our many thanks to her for sharing with us.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS WHO DIED AT THE GENERAL HOSPITAL
IN LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS

EDITOR'S NOTE: "The following may be of interest to readers who had ancestors in the Confederacy and who died in Arkansas." B. C. Hulsey Our thanks to B. C. Hulsey for sharing this important information with AFH members.

In 1858 Buford W. Hulsey and his family moved to Tulip, Dallas County, Ark. from McNairy Co., Tennessee and remained until 1863.

On June 16, 1862 their son John enlisted in the 26th Arkansas Infantry, Daniels Artillery. According to his records, he died "of disease" at the General Hospital in Little Rock on August 12, 1862.

According to a report found in the 108th Communication of the M. W. Grant

Lodge, F. & A. M. dated Nov. 15, 1949, the old Saint Johns College erected by the Masons of Arkansas in 1857 just to the northeast of McArthur Park in Little Rock was converted to a general hospital in 1861. This is undoubtedly where John died.

We also found that "a number" of Civil War dead were buried in Oakland Cemetery, 21st and Barber, Little Rock. A search last summer showed that not only are a number of individual tombstones (for Civil War dead) located there (southeast corner) but the United Daughters of the Confederacy had erected a large monument "in memory of the 912 soldiers who died in the Little Rock General Hospital and who lie buried here".

Oakland Cemetery must be one of the largest in the nation. Its Sexton told me that "over 65,000 are buried there". For those who seek the final resting place of an ancestor who died in the Little Rock area, undoubtedly many are in Oakland either with a tombstone -- or buried along with the 912 in a common grave.

We have not learned why these men were not actually buried in the National Cemetery which is right next to Oakland Cemetery. Also the Sexton says no records exist on burials that far back. We wonder if he is right. Ideas anyone? How did the U.D.C. ladies learn that 912 were buried in a common grave?

We filed a history of St. Johns College with Mr. R. P. Baker at the Arkansas History Commission in 1976. The college burned to the ground on Jan. 18, 1890. (See Ark. Gazette for that date - page 1).

Their son, Hiram M. Sherrill is buried at New Hope Presbyterian Church, near Bethesda. Two other daughters are buried in California.

This is a very incomplete family genealogy record on these McDaniel brothers. Maybe some of the Arkansas Family Historian members and readers can help fill in some of the information and some of the family names. I would appreciate hearing from anyone with any information on any of these families. I will exchange any data that I have and will answer all letters.

*****

EDITOR'S NOTE: If every family had this much information in any kind of written record. Of course typed material is much easier to read but if it is written (even in ball point pen) it can always be corrected an added too. Much information is lost, because no one in the family bothered to write even the little bit they did know. This is such a large family and Mrs. Huffman has done well to get this much together over such a long period. There is no doubt many of these people will fit right into many other family records. We will be glad to know more about families like this McDaniel Family. ec

INFORMATION OFFERED
By Charles Etheridge

EDITOR'S NOTE: "The following information is offered for what benefit if any, it may be to others." by Charles Etheridge, 617 Annelle, North Little Rock, AR 72117 (Phone 945-5159)

Cornelius (Nealy) Etheridge, Jr. (1791-1856) and Martha (Patsy) Lawrence Randolph (1791-1816) were married in Norfolk Co., VA., Dec 18, 1809. The ancestry of both these people is detailed in Historical Southern Families by John Bennett Boddie, back to the immigrant Thomas (1607-71) in the case of Nealy and Sir John Lawrence, b. ca 1580 in case of Patsy. She was previously married to a John Randolph and had two daughters by him. She seems to have borne at least four sons to Nealy--Thomas, b. 1811, John, b. 1813, Cornelius, b. 1815 and William M., b. 1816. She died 1 June 1816. In Sept. of that year, Nealy married Frances Creekmuir (Creekmore). HSF reports, Nealy disappeared from Norfolk records from 1818 to 1841. He died there in 1856.

David C. Etheridge searched Census records in the National Archives & found Frances & Nealy Etheridge in Trigg Co., KY., in the Censuses of 1820, 30 and 40. The 1850 census revealed William M., b. 1816 and wife Sarah, b. 1815 in Caldwell Co., Ky. Sons in that family were: John, James H., Robert, Pleasant & William. James was then 13. The Caldwell County William M. Etheridge, listed Trigg County as his place of origin. James & wife Elizabeth were found at Benton in Marshall Co., Ky., in 1870, with sons, Robert, b. 1866 and William J., b. 1867. They were at the same location in 1880, but now had additional children: John R., 6; Sallie, 4, and Phelix, 2.

William J. Etheridge, was father of your informant, Charles. He and brother Robert, left home in 1880s and both lived the remainder of their lives in what is now Oklahoma. Will, died in 1927 and Bob in 1940. But neither apparently knew the further history of parents or brothers and sisters. There are descendants of Bob via his son Eagon and of Will via his sons David B. and Charles. I do not know if any of the other children of James and Elizabeth lived to maturity and had offspring. It seems likely they did.

The family of Hans Trachsel, b. ca. 1618 in the Bernese Alps & Elsbeth Gungsel has been heavily documented in church records, histories in Switzerland, Germany, Pennsylvania and elsewhere. Two sons of Jakob, son of Hans, settled in the Lehigh Valley of Pa. in 1730s. Hans appears to have been born into the Reformed Church. Jakob was in at the founding of the Schwarzanau Brethren (German Baptists). Henry Troxel (spelling changed in America) (John, Michael, John, Jakob, Hans) settled in Dayton, Ohio, in 1814. His son Henry W. was born there in 1825. Henry W. was a preacher and Brethren Church organizer who established first churches of the group in Wisconsin, Texas and Oklahoma. He and most of his 14 children participated in the 1891 land run into Oklahoma from Clay County, Texas. William J. Etheridge and Martha Bowman, granddaughter of Henry W. Troxel, were married at Comanche, Okla., in 1913. Martha was mother of David B. and Charles Etheridge.

JAMES MARTIN who died in 1821 in Franklin Co., Va., was reputed by members of the family to have lived 104 years. It seems likely he was born before 1730. Mrs. C. P. Kelley of Chattanooga, Tenn., has spent a dozen or more years compiling a history of the family beginning with JAMES and the speculation that his parents were associated with John Caldwell who led in formation of the Cub Creek Presbyterian Church in Charlotte County, first such in Va. John Caldwell deeded 324 acres to James in 1762, raising the supposition that James' wife might have been Caldwell's daughter. In 1782 James was paid for provisioning colonial troops (OB 3, p. 16).

James' son John (ca 1755-1849) moved to the Cherokee Purchase lands of Tenn. in 1820. His son Jesse moved to Ky. in 1818 but joined others of the family in present Meigs Co., Tenn., in 1820. Jesse Jr. was born in Ky. in 1819, first Lieutenant in Fifth Tenn. Confederate Cavalary, settled in Sebastian Co., Ark., in 1869. His brother Luke P. Martin lived out his life in Meigs Co. He was married three times. His first wife was Narcissa Powell, daughter of Scott Powell & Mary Isabel Womack. Their two children were James Pierce Martin & Mary Jane Martin. (The intermarriages of Powells and Martins is mind-boggling and sons of Jesse in the Fifth Tenn. almost as numerous). James Pierce Martin married Mary Mitchell in Tenn., and moved to north central Texas in 1870s, no more than 30 miles from where Henry W. Troxel and clan were. Willie Mae Martin (Mrs. Charles Etheridge) is grandchild of James Pierce Martin. Mrs. C. P. Kelley is grandchild of Mary Jane Martin Godsey.

Jesse Jr., had nine children. One daughter married Daniel W. Powell, son, naturally of Scott Powell and Mary Isabel Womack. There might be a considerable Arkansas interest in this information if it is not available.

MARBURY AND RELATED FAMILIES

By Mrs. Luther Greene, Jr. (Esther Clem Greene)
September 1976

(My mother was Mattie Dale Clem, a daughter of David Thomas Dale and Mary Marbury)

(Sources of information: Material copied from old family records of Aunt Coy Dale Fordyce and Aunt Bessie Dale Tonry (both now deceased); correspondence in 1956 from Mrs. Annette Marbury Halsell; copy of will of Francis Marbury 1733/4 of Prince Georges County, Maryland; Leonard (son of Colonel Leonard) Marbury's application for pension based upon service in the Revolutionary War; copy of DAR papers based on Colonel Leonard Marbury's service in Rev. War; pension papers of Anne Sommerville Marbury based on Colonel Leonard's service in Rev. War; articles in scrapbooks kept in Arkadelphia, Arkansas Library; Goodspeed articles - 1890 of Southern Arkansas - Edward Clingan, Hempstead County, and J. C. Saunders, Clark County; the book, "Across the Years in Prince Georges County, Maryland," by Effie Gwynn Bowie; censuses; marriage record books; and deeds and probate records of Haywood County, Tennessee; and Sevier and Howard Counties, Arkansas)

In Arkadelphia, the Marbury's were some of the first settlers of Clark County, Arkansas. They ran a big general store on Main Street and owned some farm property.

MARBURY - This is an exceedingly ancient family and is mentioned in works of heraldry as located in Chestershire, England, as early as the reign of Edward I. Marbury Hall in that county, about fifteen miles from the City of Chester, was owned by a branch of the family until sometime in the nineteenth century ...

The coat of arms borne by the Marbury's displayed a crusader's cross and under it a mailed hand grasping the head of a Saracen. This would indicate that the Knight who first assumed this design had fought under the cross in Palestine... The exact date of the emigration to Maryland of the first representative of the house is unknown, but it was probably between 1680 and 1690. The name does not appear on Colonial records prior to that era.

FRANCIES MARBURY emigrated from England and settled in Prince Georges County, Maryland near the town of Piscataway. In his will, he names sons Eusebius, Leonard, Luke, William, and Eli; and his daughters Susannah, Barbara Frazer, Mary, Elizabeth Davidson, Lucy Hatton, and Tabitha Hoye. (Have copy of will)

(I am working on the theory that Colonel Leonard Marbury may have been the Leonard named above in will - this will have to be proven) CAN ANYONE HELP ON THIS?

COLONEL LEONARD MARBURY - He moved from Maryland to St. Paul's Parish, Georgia, a few years before the Revolutionary War. He was Captain of a Georgia Company and was afterwards promoted to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel of the Light Dragoons. He was at the battle of Kettle Creek, the siege of Savannah, and in other engagements. In 1780 his property was confiscated by the British and his name placed on the list of those denounced as being forever debarred from holding office under the Crown. In this list which some Georgia histories call the "Roll of Honor," Colonel Marbury was designated a "Rebel Officer," a title he had doubly earned from having been a member of the Convention which decided on Georgia's separating from the Mother Country and joining the other colonies in establishing an independent government. This memorable assembly which is called "Georgia's First Secession Convention" was held in Savannah, July 4, 1775. Leonard was a delegate from St. Paul's Parish, now Richmond County. During the War, he gave generously to the cause of freedom, and lost heavily from the ravages of the enemy. In 1785 he received a bounty of 1150 acres of land in Franklin County for services rendered during the long struggle... another large grant of land was given him in Richmond County. In May 1789 he was a member of the convention which accepted the new constitution of Georgia.

Notes taken from book, "The Revolutionary Records of the State of Georgia," Vol. 2, by Allen D. Candler concerning Minutes of the Executive Council, Monday, 9th March 1778 - "Ordered - that a copy of the resolve of Assembly dated Sunday, 1st March 1778 requesting the Commanding Officer of the Continental Troops in this State to issue orders to Colonel Marbury to repair with his Battalion of Light horse to the defense of the frontiers of the State be immediately transmitted to Major General Howe and that it be recommended to give orders accordingly - finished"

From Vol. I - at a meeting of the Council of Safety on May 16th, 1776, the following was shown: "Orders to Captain Leonard Marbury - Sir: Whereas information has been received that one Few, and a company under his command, have killed an Indian and several accounts received respecting the Indians are very unfavorable, you are therefore ordered and required to use your utmost efforts to prevent the murder of any Indians in the Back Country and to apprehend the said Few, or any person that may be guilty of the above mentioned murder, or who may in any wise disturb the peace, or render himself obnoxious to the friends of liberty in the Back Country."

At a meeting of the Council, August 22nd, 1776 - "Capt. Leonard Marbury made application to the Board for leave to go with a detachment of Militia against some of the Cherokee towns. It is the opinion of the Board that orders be given to him accordingly."

Colonel Leonard Marbury died September 22, 1796, in East Feliciana County, Louisiana. He was married to Anne Sommerville on February 2, 1780, after his service in the Revolutionary War. Children of theirs were: William Marbury, Sr., Ann Marbury Carpenter, and Eliza B. Marbury Dunbar.

Colonel Marbury's first marriage was to ?

A son of Colonel Leonard Marbury by his first marriage was LEONARD MARBURY (4-4-1759/1-24-1839). His wife was Mary Rounsaval, born 3-8-1760. Do not have her date of death. Data obtained from papers on file for Revolutionary War claim for pension, File R6892, shows family history, as follows: (Have copy of this) Leonard Marbury, the name also shown as Marberry, son of Leonard, was born April 4, 1759, in Maryland. When young, he moved with his parents to N. C., and before the beginning of the Revolutionary War, moved to Georgia. He later moved to Rowan County, N. C.; thence to Montgomery County, N. C.; to Buncombe County, N. C.; to Warren County, Tennessee; and about 1829 to Haywood County, Tennessee. He lived in Haywood County, Tennessee, in December 13, 1832, at which time he applied for the pension. It was stated that while residing on the Savannah River some distance from Augusta, Georgia, Leonard enlisted in 1777, served 18 months as Private in Capt. Middleton's Company; Colonel Leonard Marbury's (his father) Georgia Regiment; and in several other mentioned battles. His claim for pension was not allowed; however, because of failure to furnish necessary papers as required by pension laws. Other family history shown was: In 1837 Leonard Marbury was living in Brownsville, Tennessee. In 1837 his brother, Luke Marbury, was living in Bedford County, Tennessee. He was born October 5, 1767, place not given. In 1837, Josiah H. Marbury, was a Justice of the Peace for Bedford County, Tenn., his age and relationship not stated. In 1833 one John Marberry, aged about sixty-four years, was a resident of Maury County, Tennessee, no relationship shown. Leonard came with a son to Sevier County, Arkansas, where he and his wife died soon after.

Deeds found in Haywood County, Tennessee, just prior to Leonard coming to Arkansas with his son, Benjamin, show also Andrew J., John, and Robert G. Marbury. The last three named are believed to have stayed in Tennessee. They are not found in records in Arkansas along with Benjamin and his family.

Another son of Colonel Leonard Marbury was LUKE MARBURY, born October 5, 1767. According to papers on pension claim shown above, Leonard, son of Col. Leonard, had a brother named Luke. This Luke also served in the Revolutionary War and is listed in the DAR Patriot Index as: Luke, born 10-5-1767, died 1852. His 3rd marriage was to Elizabeth Bullen.

There was a Thomas Marbury, born about 1756, died 1823, married Charity ? . He also served in the Revolutionary War, and listed in the DAR Patriot Index. Listed in the Georgia Roster of the Revolution is a Horatio Marbury. (Do not know the relationship of Thomas and Horatio. They are found in Washington County, Georgia, as well as Colonel Leonard Marbury)

BENJAMIN MARBURY & FAMILY

A son of Leonard Marbury - BENJAMIN MARBURY (12-24-1784/9-30-1838). His wife was Mary Hoodenpyle (5-5-1793/1873). Benjamin was born in N. C., and from there moved to Tennessee. (There was a Benjamin Marbury shown in the 1830 census of Haywood County, Tennessee - believed to be the same). About 1837 he took up his abode in Sevier County, Arkansas, where he farmed until his death, which occurred in 1838, of smallpox. He was a deacon in the Missionary Baptist Church, and a worthy gentleman in every respect. His widow died in Howard County, Arkansas, in 1873. She was a member of that church.

When Benjamin and family came from Haywood County, Tennessee, to Sevier County, Arkansas, they settled around Nashville, Arkansas (which is now in Howard County). Mary Marberry (should be Marbury) is found listed in 1840 census of Sevier County, Arkansas (Madison Township) as follows: In her home were: 1 male (5-10 years), 2 males (10-15), 2 males (15-20), 2 males (20-30), 1 female (5-10), 1 female (10-15), 2 females (15-20), and 1 female (40-50) (this last mentioned would be Mary - the mother).

Some of the children and their families were found in the 1850 census in Madison Township, Sevier County; and some were found in Mine Creek Township, Hempstead County. In 1860 census some of this family were found in Mine Creek Township, Hempstead County; and Brewer Township, Pike County. In 1880 one family was found in Brewer Township, then in Howard County. The above locations were all near Nashville, Arkansas, and were taken into Howard County when it was formed in 1873 from portions of Sevier, Hempstead, and Pike Counties. One of Benjamin and Mary's sons, Leonard W. Marbury, was living in Clark County before 1850.

Mary, widow of Benjamin Marbury, was married to John McLendon on July 24, 1842, by James W. Briscoe, JP - marriage recorded in Sevier County, book 1, page 35. John McLendon was a Minister of the Gospel and is shown as the Minister who performed the marriage ceremony of several of the Marbury children. John McLendon must have died before 1850 as Mary is shown again as head of household in 1850 census - Hempstead County (Mine Creek Township) - family #55. (this census was a bit confusing and incorrect in part (maybe written down wrong by census taker or one giving the information gave it wrong). Living next door to this family in this census was the family of John L. Matheson who married Evaline Marbury. Family #55 was shown as follows: Mary McLendon-age 54, Thomas-22, Peter-18 (Thomas & Peter should have shown Marbury - they were shown as two of the minor children of Benjamin Marbury, deceased, in probate records in 1841); next shown in same house was Sarah Faulkner - (Sarah married Fortenaw according to book of Sevier County marriages - was indexed Falconer; later in probate records referred to as Falkner, do not know which is correct - probably sounded same and was written down as Faulkner); next in same house was her child, Mary-6; and in same house was shown John McLendon-25, and Minerva-21 (sure the last two should have read John Marbury as he was married to Minerva Wicker in 1848 - they were living in home with his mother, Mary McLendon).

Probate Records - Special Term, Sevier County, Arkansas - Court Nov. Term 1838, the following found:

Mary Marbury, relict and widow of Benjamin Marbury, appointed administratrix of estate of Benjamin. She entered into bond with Pleasant H. Burton and M. Catoville as her securities - sum of $5,000. It was ordered that James Wakely, Samuel Wakely, and John Jarman (or Jerman) be appointed appraisers. (Note: there is a James Wakely shown in 1840 census living near Mary Marbury; also, the John Jarman was later married to Jane Marbury Clingan (widow Clingan)).

Probate Records - January Term 1841 - Sevier County, Arkansas

Mary Marbury came and asked the court to appoint commissioners to apportion and set apart her dower in the estate of Benjamin Marbury, deceased, whereupon John McCoatter, James Turrentine, and Archibald Turrentine were appointed said commissioners to set apart to the said Mary Marbury her dower in the slaves belonging to the estate of the said deceased.

Same day came John P. Marbury and Eveline A. Marbury, minor heirs of Benjamin Marbury, deceased, over fourteen and chose William G. Marbury as their guardian. Also, came the said William G. Marbury and made application for the guardianship of Thomas Marbury, Peter Marbury, and Mary Elisa Marbury, minor heirs under 14 years of age of the said deceased. It was ordered that said William G. Marbury be appointed guardian for above named minors. He filed bond for sum of $3,000 with David Foran and John Jarman as securities for him.

Probate Records - continuation on estate of Benjamin Marbury - 1843, book 2, page 231, Mary Marbury, administratrix of estate of deceased Benjamin Marbury came and on her motion the final settlement of her administration filed by her at the last term of court was examined and there being no exceptions filed to said account, it was confirmed and ordered to be recorded, and on further motion of the said Mary Marbury, administratrix, it was ordered that her administration be closed and that she be released from any further liability.

Probate Records - January Term 1844 - Sevier County, Arkansas - book 2, page 256 John L. McLendon came and petitioned the court to appoint him guardian of John, Emeline, Thomas, Peter, and Mary Eliza Marbury, minor heirs of Benjamin Marbury, deceased. He presented his bond in amount of eighteen hundred dollars with William G. Marbury and Elijah Tollett as his securities conditioned according to law for the faithful performance of his duties as guardian of said heirs. Bond was approved by court and it was therefore ordered by court that John L. McLendon be appointed guardian.

Deed Book E2 - pages 147 and 148 - Sevier County, Arkansas, filed for record and recorded 10-10-1845. L. W. Marbury bargained, sold, conveyed, and delivered unto John L. McLendon, the guardian of the minor heirs of Benjamin Marbury, deceased, two tracts of land. Deed was signed by L. W. Marbury and witnessed by W. G. Marbury and G. W. Falkner.

Deed Book 4, pages 184 thru 187 - Sevier County, Arkansas - on 12-2-1850 Leonard W. Marbury of the County of Clark, Arkansas, made deed to give, grant, bargain, sell, and convey a certain tract of land in Sevier County to Hamelton Props in consideration of one hundred and thirty dollars paid by Props. Test was by A. F. Willis and M. S. Prop.

On same day came John Prop, acting and duly commissioned Justice of the Peace in Sevier County and personally well known to Leonard, to acknowledge that Leonard voluntarily executed and delivered the deed.

On August 20, 1852, Cordelia E. Marbury, wife of Leonard W. Marbury, signed relinquishing any claims in lands sold to Hamelton Props.

On same day I. W. Smith, Clerk of Circuit Court in Clark County, stated that Cordelia E. Marbury appeared before him and she was personally well known to him, and that she signed the deed of her own free will and accord without compulsion on the part of her husband.

(NOTE: In 1850 census of Sevier County (Madison Township) Hamelton Props and his family are listed as family next door to William G. Marbury.)

Probate Records - Sevier County - March 12, 1859 - book 6, page 187 - In the matter of the guardianship of Mary E. Falkner, minor over the age of 14 years, made petition and chose her uncle, William G. Marbury to be her guardian. Mary E. Falkner's mother, Sarah Hoodenpyle, widow of Aaron Hoodenpyle, and lately departed this life. Also, came the said William G. Marbury and endorsed the petition to become such guardian. It was ordered that William G. Marbury be appointed guardian and also of the personal estate of Mary E. Falkner.

Probate Records - Sevier County - July 1859 Term - book 6, page 249 - In the matter of the guardianship of Mary E. Falkner, minor, by Wm. G. Marbury, guardian. Came said guardian by his attorney and presented, in that Sarah Hoodenpyle, mother of said minor, died intestate leaving said minor her only heir and possessed of a small estate in Sevier County. The same had been appraised in accordance with law and the amount of estate was one hundred thirty dollars and three cents. Said minor had lately married G. V. Littlefield, and now her lawful husband - and William G. Marbury had delivered said estate to Mary.

Deed of Conveyance - Howard County - filed 3-31-1874 - book A, page 253 John P. Marbury to Edward Clingan (Note: Edward Clingan was the son of Jane Marbury Clingan) - deed entered into on 4-12-1873 between John P. Marbury, Jane Jarman, Caroline Curtis, J. L. Mathison, and Evaline A. Mathison his wife, of the County of Hempstead, parties of the first part, and Edward Clingan of the second part. In consideration of $1 to each of them paid by Edward Clingan, a certain tract of land. (This was filed and recorded in Howard County as it became a county in 1873). This deed was signed by J. P. Marbury, Jane Jarman (her mark), Caroline Curtis (her mark), J. L. Mathison, and Evaline Mathison.

Mathison their true and lawful attorney to enter into and take possession of the real estate that the said Mary did possess to bargain, grant, sell, and convey the whole or part as he thinks best and to collect any money payable to them by reason of such sale and to pay off all indebtedness.

HEARD - MARBURY

Ancestry of Cordelia Heard Saunders Marbury (My great grandmother)

(Sources of information: censuses; article from Arkadelphia, Arkansas Library; correspondence from Mrs. Doris McMurchy with papers sent her by Mrs. Mary Warren, Editor of Family Puzzlers - (Mrs. McMurchy is a descendant of Thomas Heard and Elizabeth Fitzpatrick through one of their daughters, Mary Heard who married John Drury Cook); Joseph Habersham Chapter Historical Collections, Vol. II - 1902; DAR papers through lineal descent from Thomas Heard; book "Historical Southern Families" vol. XVII by Mrs. John Bennett Boddie - page 208 on Napier Family)

Cordelia Heard Marbury (widow Saunders when she married Leonard W. Marbury) was the daughter of Woodson Heard and Mary Peeples Heard. The mother, Mary Heard, was living next door to Leonard W. and Cordelia Marbury in the 1850 census of Clark County, Arkansas. Cordelia's brother, Thomas Heard, also settled in Clark County. Thomas was a teacher in a subscription school in 1843, and that was the year also that his younger sister, Sabina, was married to William A. Trigg. It is said that in honor of the event Thomas dismissed school and gave his scholars a full holiday. Thomas was first married to Catherine Anderson of near Arkadelphia. There were six children from this marriage. There is a tradition in the family that before Catherine's death, she called both Thomas and her sister, Almada, to her bedside and got a promise from both of them that they would marry, so "my children will have the right kind of step-mother." The pledge was kept and in 1866 Thomas and Almada were married. There were three children by this marriage.

Woodson Heard, father of Cordelia Marbury, married Mary Peeples. Woodson was born in 1782. Their children were: Sophrona, who married Hunter; Almyra;

Cordelia; Joseph, Columbus, Thomas, Nathan, Gustavus, Selina, Sabina, Frances, and Woodson.

Thomas Heard, father of Woodson Heard, married Elizabeth Napier Fitzpatrick. Thomas was a Captain in the Revolutionary War, Virginia State Troops. They lived in Virginia until 1784 when they removed to Greene County, Georgia. Their children: Catherine, Abram, Mary, Thomas, Elizabeth, Sally, Woodson, George, and Falkner. Vol. I, "Roster of Rev. Soldiers in Georgia," by Mrs. Howard H. McCall also shows another child, Joseph, in addition to those named above. Thomas' wife, Elizabeth Napier Fitzpatrick was the daughter of Joseph Fitzpatrick and Mary Perrin Woodson. The father of Joseph Fitzpatrick was William Fitzpatrick who came from Ireland to Virginia about 1710.

Mary Perrin Woodson, mother of Elizabeth Fitzpatrick Heard, was the daughter of Benjamin Woodson and Frances Napier, and great, great granddaughter of Dr. John Woodson (1586-1644). Dr. John Woodson, graduated at St. John's College, Oxford, 1604; came to Jamestown, Virginia, in the "George" in 1619 with Governor Yardley as surgeon to a company of soldiers; settled at Fleu de Hundred on the James River. He was killed in the Indian Massacre of 1644. He was married to Sarah Winston (born in England, died in Henrico, Virginia). In the Virginia Archives is the gun used by Sarah Woodson to defend herself and her two small sons in the massacre in which Dr. Woodson was killed.

Other ancestry of Mary Perrin Woodson was Dr. Patrick Napier through his son, Robert Napier; and Robert's daughter, Frances Napier who married Benjamin Woodson.

Following is taken from book, "Historical Southern Families," vol. XVII, by Mrs. John Bennett Boddie, page 208

NAPIER OF VIRGINIA, TENNESSEE, AND MISSISSIPPI

(Includes documented evidence of the Napier Family previously shown in "Historical Southern Families," vol XV)

"Dr. Patrick Napier, Jr., surgeon and planter, was born in Scotland about 1635 and had emigrated to Gloucester County, Virginia, by 1654. He married in 1658 Elizabeth, daughter of Robert Booth and his wife Frances. Robert Booth was Clerk of York County, Virginia, 1639; Justice, 1652; Virginia House of Burgesses, 1653-54.

Dr. Patrick Napier lived first in Hampton Parish, York County, Va., and later in Blisland Parish, New Kent County, Virginia. He willed his 1500 acre plantation there to his children, Robert and Frances, Feb. 20, 1668. He died prior to April 12, 1669 when his will was filed.

Captain Robert Napier, Sr., planter, only son, named in his father's will, was born in York County, Va. about 1660, and lived in New Kent, King William and Henrico Counties, Virginia. He married Oct. 11, 1688 Mary Perrin, born 1675, daughter of Richard and Katherine (Royall) Perrin (Katherine being the daughter of Joseph and Katherine (Banks) Royall) of New Kent County, Virginia. Capt. Robert Napier, Sr. was an officer in the colonial militia and in 1712 led a party of rangers from Henrico County. Between 1690 and 1701 he patented more than 1500 acres. He died after 1712, survived by the following children (in order of birth): Booth Napier, m. Sarah (LaForce?); Frances who married Benjamin Woodson; Robert, Jr.; Katherine; and Elizabeth Napier."

HUTCHINSON-MARBURY

(Following are records copied in 1956 from old records of my Aunt Coy Dale Fordyce who lived in Arkadelphia, Arkansas, before her death. I believe there had been research done on this family by someone from whom she acquired the records. However, I have not proved our Marbury connection with Anne Marbury Hutchinson yet)

"William Hutchinson and Anne Marbury were married August 1, 1612, in London. Their home was Alford Lincolnshire. They had 13 children. In 1634 they came to New England with 10 children, they had lost 3.

Both the Hutchinsons and Marburys were of distinguished ancestry. Dryden is one name on the Marbury family chart, a relative of the poet laureate, John Dryden. Anne Hutchinson was a woman with a natural gift for leadership in an age that had no place for such women. In 1911 the colonial farmers of New York State placed a tablet to her memory on a boulder in Pelham Bay Park, New York City, near the site of her last dwelling place. Of the children who survived the death or massacre of Anne Marbury Hutchinson, five in all, a daughter Faith married Thomas Savage and became the ancestress of the noted historian and genealogist of New England, Bridget. Her sister became the wife of Governor John Sanford and was the mother of another Governor of Rhode Island, Peleg Sanford. Charlotte and Culpepper Counties, Virginia, were homes of the Hutchinsons. James Hutchinson of Culpepper County married Margaret, daughter of David and Clara Hickman. This was toward the end of the eighteenth century. They raised a family of 12 children. The Markhams are one related family; also, the Truetts and MaGavocks. Hutchinson or Hutchison is favored by different branches in the south as the way to spell the name.

First Hutchinsons came here early. Arrived in America in 1633, then returned to England to wed.

In 1865 the New England Historical and Genealogical Register had a brief account of descendants of William Hutchinson and in 1866 was published at Boston notes upon the ancestry of William Hutchinson and wife Anne Marbury, from researches made in England. Also, there is a published account of the Hutchinson family's sixteen sons and daughters.

Captain Edward Hutchinson, son of William and Anne, married Catherine Hamby, born at Ipswich, Suffolk England. They were married October 13, 1636, and in England. Edward came to America in 1633 with his uncle, Edward Hutchinson. He was 20 years of age at this time. Three years later he returned to England to claim Catherine for his wife. They came to Boston and lived practically all the rest of their lives, though he was one of the founders of Newport R. I., in 1638. After the death of his wife in 1650, Edward married the widow Abigail Button, born Vormaless. He died in 1675 - was the father of seven children by his first wife, and four by his second. A daughter, Elizabeth, married Edward Winslow and was something of an heiress, inheriting land at Narragansett from her father and also she is mentioned in the will of her great uncle, Samuel Hutchinson of Boston.

Descendants of Captain Edward Hutchinson are eligible to several patriotic societies, for he was one of the founders of Newport, R. I., as mentioned above, and deputy to court in 1658. Also, Captain in King Phillips War. His descendants are legion, with many distinguished names all along. His son, Elisha, was father of Thomas, member of the Colonial Council, whose son Thomas was the last royal governor of Massachusetts. Elizabeth, daughter of Edward, who married Edward Winslow, was an ancestress of the wife of John Singleton Copley, an artist, whose son became Lord Lyndhurst, Chancellor of England. Elizabeth's sister, Susanna, married Nathaniel Coddington, son of Governor William Coddington, and of Anna Brinkley, daughter of Thomas Brinkley, Auditor General of both King Charles I and King Charles II."

(From 1954 Edition, "Encyclopedia Britannica," copyright by Encyclopedia Britannica, Inc.)

"Anne Hutchinson, American Religious enthusiast, was born in Lincolnshire, England the daughter of a clergyman, Francis Marbury, and according to tradition, a cousin of John Dryden."

Correspondence in 1957 from Mr. Meredith B. Colket, Jr., author of a book on the ancestry of Anne Marbury Hutchinson, stated that Leonard was a name common in the family of Francis Marbury who was in Prince Georges County, Maryland, by 1698. Also, there was evidence that Francis was from the Marbury family of Redfordshire, England, but not proved. The relationship to Anne Hutchinson is likely though not known.

WOOD Mrs. H. F. Hemphill, 112 Olive Street, Crane, MO 65633
My Great Grandfather Commadore R. WOOD and Great Grandmother, Alley M. (?) settled in Lawrence Co., MO near Mt. Vernon possibly just before, during or soon after the Civil War. The old Family Bible shows they were born in Tennessee, but does not give Co., or town. It also shows my Grandfather, was born 4 Sept. 1838 in Tenn. He was their oldest child. It shows a daughter, their second child also born in Tenn. The first record in Lawrence Co., shows a daughter born 26 Dec. 1848. But I have reason to doubt they were there that early. My Grandfather, James Marion WOOD, served in the Confederate Army, his younger brother, Thomas Jefferson WOOD, served in the Union Army. He told us our Grandfather was a "Bush-Whacker" which we believed until I began digging for proof and found his Army records. The records in Washington, D. C. He was wounded, captured at the Battle of Jenkins Ferry, Ark. and remained a prisoner of War, until 8 June 1865, when paroled at Shreveport, La. A Younger brother of mine tells me that the same Uncle, Thomas Jefferson WOOD, told him that they lived near Ft. Smith, Sebastain Co., Ark., before coming to Lawrence Co., Mo. I have records putting them in Lawrence Co., Mo. after the War was over. I am trying to trace them to where (?) in Tennessee, or maybe not Tenn (?) Can anyone help? I have belonged to Missouri State Historical Society for 20 years, and if I can help any of you, I will be happy to do so. (Mrs. Mary Hemphill).

CARR Albert Carr, 538 Briarwood Road, Venice, Florida, 33595
KENNEDY Last year while doing my research in the Wisconsin Historical Library (where we lived at the time, Madison, Wis.)
I came across information on a Carr Family History (Editor's Note: this was in the 1968 -p113-115, Ark. Family Historian, by Jo Dildy, now Mrs.
Glen Billings, Rt. 5, 418, Nashville, AR 71852 - she included all her inf. in that article on the Carr Family).

My Great Great Grandfather, John J. CARR and his wife Telitha E.
CARR, lived in the late 1800s for a while in Crawford Co., AR. After living there, they moved with part of their family to Benton Co., AR.
I believe they might have passed away in either county, but I can't prove that. They had a son, James Austin CARR, who possibly died in Crawford Co., but again, (?) Further, John J. CARR, b. 1832, Indiana, his wife Telitha Emma HUSSONG, b. 1831, Indiana. Their children: Margaret Ann, b. 1856, Iowa; William Morgan, b. 1858, Iowa (my Great Grandfather) Amelia J., b. 1861, Nebraska (?); James Austin, b. 1868, Neb. (?); Joseph M., b. 1866, Neb. (?); Lily Viola, b. 1869, Iowa. My William Morgan CARR above lived most of his life in Barry Co., MO. He married Sarah Dove KENNEDY, dau. of James KENNEDY. This James KENNEDY lived in Benton Co., AR also. Married a Naomi (?). I can't locate this family in Ark., either.
I know one of their sons, George Hamilton KENNEDY, was b. in Ark., but can't find out where. If anyone has information that would help me locate either of these families in Ark., especially the place of death of John J. & Telitha CARR, I would be very indebted to you. My Arkansas research isn't going very well!! Are there CARR or KENNEDY Families living that I could contact? Are there any records or either Family that anyone knows about in the Arkansas Libraries? Some please help.

REMINISCENT David R. Mills, 8053 Lincoln St., Lemon Grove, CA 92045
HISTORY OF I wrote to the Ark. Family Historian, 25 May 1976, apply-
THE OZARK ing for my first membership, and also asking about a book REGION REMINISCENT HISTORY OF THE OZARK REGION. To my request - you replied that you would make my request into a QUERY, which you did, and it appeared in Vol. XIV, No. 3. (1976). I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Ark. Family Historian members and tell you that I have received wonderful results. I now have a copy of the book. Through the Query I located my Great Grandfather in 1860 Census, where he was entered under an incorrect name, also that he was still alive in 1865 as he was on the Tax rolls. I have received several letters in reply to the Query and I am still getting them. I am quite sure that those that have written, have mutually benefited. I am enclosing my check and application for a renewal of membership.

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is just one of many letters telling how Queries in the Arkansas Family Historian have helped. We are happy DAVID R.
MILLS took time to tell us. (I wish he had told us, where he got a copy of the REMINISCENT HISTORY OF THE OZARK REGION). Even if a member does not know very much about the various Queries, just a tiny clue will often help.

HAVE YOU REMEMBERED TO THANK SOMEONE FOR HELPING WITH YOUR RESEARCH?

HAVE YOU FORGOTTEN TO SEND A SELF ADDRESSED STAMPED ENVELOPE (S.A.S.E.)?

BEAR Robert F. Beare, Sr., 1608 Oak Ave., Duncan, OK 73533
BEARE I am a Great Great Grandson of Peter BARR (BEAR) from Clark
BARR Co., Ark. Although I have tried for almost 10 years, I DAVIS have been unable to discover who his parents and brothers &
ALLEN sister were and where they came from. So I am appealing ANDERSON to the members of the Arkansas Family Historian for help.

The earliest of the Bear (Barr) Family name we find record of in Clark Co., Ark., are Joseph BEAR, who was impaneled as a juryman in April 1820 and a Samuel BEAR, who was admitted by the Court to serve as an Attorney (DAR Record). I have no way of knowing if they were related to my PETER BARR.

In 1825 Nancy BARR (Bear) married Edward DAVIS in Clark Co., Ark.
I believe this Nancy BARR was Peter's sister. I find Peter BARR (Bear) for the first time on the 1830 Census for Clark Co., with a female the right age to be his Mother. On the 12th of July 1832, Peter married to Elizabeth ALLEN in Clark Co., Ark. They are still there on the 1840 Census with 5 children: William, Thomas, Nancy, John & ELIAS (My great grandfather). Of course they were not listed by name on the 1840 Census, but were listed by name on the 1850 Census, but both Peter and Elizabeth were deceased & 17 year old Thomas was the head of the household. The only other BARR (Bear) on the 1850 Census is an 8 year old girl named Elizabeth living with William ANDERSON, who was 39 years of age, and Sarah 57 and Nancy DAVIS, 11. Was Sarah the widow of John B. ANDERSON of Clark Co.?
Was this Sarah a sister to Peter BARR & Nancy?

After Edward DAVIS died, we find Court Records where William ANDERSON was made Guardian of the DAVIS Children. Although, I did not find a WILL,
I found a Court record that stated that William ANDERSON was executor of Peter BARR'S Estate. This was 13 Jan. 1848.

I believe that Elizabeth (8 years old 1850) was the youngest child of Peter BEAR & Elizabeth (ALLEN) BEAR, and that Elizabeth, the mother, died shortly after her daughter was born. We now find that Peter BEAR, 37 years of age, married Sally LANGLEY, 40 in Denton Co., TX on 10 Oct. 1842
According to Lois LANGLEY BARNHART of Dallas, TX, this is indeed my PETER BEAR from Clark Co., Ark. Sally LANGLEY (widow of Miles LANGLEY, from Clark Co., Ark.,) was her Great Great Grandmother. Lois further states that Sally died about 1848 also.

Can anyone tell me what the relationship was between the ANDERSONS, Edward DAVISES and Peter BARR? Where did Peter come from and who were his parents, brothers and sisters?

I am sure that as PETER BEAR lived all of his adult life in Clark County, Arkansas and apparently died there, that the answers are to be found with some of the families from that County. HELP PLEASE.

 children. The family moved to Ponca City, OK, Feb. 1901. Two children died in 1901. My Grandmother died in 1903 in Ponca City leaving 5 orphan children. Since they were so young, we have never been able to locate the grave in Wheatley. I have searched through the 1850 Census here in Denver Library and have corresponded with the 5 County seats in Arkansas. The family has always said Darthula (Dula) TULLY HIX was part Cherokee Indian. I have been unable to document this to date by our re-also add that I think everyone in Arkansas is most gracious from the help to his homestead. I have a copy of Patent, deeds and transfer of the same, when he sold out and moved to Wise Co., TX in the fall of 1888.

To show relationship of the (2) Delaney LANCASTERS above: Jeremiah

HOGG C. W. Keasler, RFD # 3, Millport, ALA 35576 - We are DURRETT endeavoring to get the Civil War Record of William HOGG, b. 1818/19 in Ala. His wife's maiden name was DURRETT. She was dead before 1860. He moved from Arkansas to Tuscaloosa, Ala in 1880. His last home was in what is now Little Rock, Pulaski Co., Ark. This is not the William HOGG, b. 1822, wife Melinda of Union Co., Ark. 1850 Census). Any information will be appreciated and I will exchange data.

SCOTT R. P. Baker, 322 Laurel, Mabelvale, AR 72103 - Allen M. SCOTT, Arkansas lawyer, preacher, author, teacher, newspaper editor and historian. Lived in several places in Arkansas before 1860. Was reported to have died in Memphis, Tenn., about 1865. Will exchange.

MURPHY Avis Holt Rogers, 1104 Citizen St., Jonesboro, AR 72401 My great grandfather WILLIAM G. MURPHY, was born 23 May 1827, probably Tenn. When he was 9 years old the MURPHY family lived at the foot of the Cumberland Mountains (his parents). Before & during the war between the states they lived near Corinth or Booneville, Miss. My great grandfather William G. MURPHY brought his family through from Miss. to Sharp Co., near Hardy, Ark., in a wagon around 1870. Do not know if great grandmother Murphy died before they left Miss. He was married 5 times, but when he died 20 Jan 1911, he left his 5th wife living. The other 4 had died earlier. Would like to know who he married 1st or even 2nd, also when born & where & when died & where. If the 1st wife died after they moved to Sharp Co., near Hardy she would have been buried at Shilph Cemetery, where William was buried. The Cemetery is over 100 years old. If he ever had a headstone or marker, it had gotten destroyed. In the 1960s a tornado passed thru the Cemetery blowing down trees and headstones. Any information on WILLIAM G. MURPHY'S parents or the wife he married in Miss. She was my grand mother MURPHY SPURLOCK'S mother. Any information will be appreciated and I will exchange.

GATLIN Weldon W. Stout, 707 So. Okfuskee, Wewoka, OK 74884 - I would like to hear from anyone that has knowledge of JAMES T. GATLIN. He was in Nevada Co., Ark., in 1882. I have his Homestead Certificate No. 120821 to land in Twonship 21 Section 10 Range 22 West. This document was found in my grandmother's effects and we have not been able to place him in our family.

LOVE Mrs. Arley L. Daniel, 3413 Truman St., Lake Charles, LA DAVIS 70601 - I am looking for the land deeds of Robert HUTCHASON LOVE. He married to Eliza Jane DAVIS (sister to the father of LA ex-Governor, Jimmie DAVIS). They (Robert & Eliza) had 2 daughters in Hope, Ark., named Rosa Anna Francis, b. 3/6/1886; and Free Donna, b. 8/21/ 1883. 1880 is possibly the time the land was purchased. Robert Hutchason LOVE vanished from his family after he had moved them to Atlanta, LA (Winn Parish). He returned to Hope, Ark. in 1890, months before my father, HENRY ALLEN LOVE, was born. Did he return to Hope & stay? or what happened to him. He came from England with 2 younger brothers, and was born 3 Sept 1828. He was about 20 years older than his wife. Any information will be appreciated.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Martha Wilcox White has much additional LYON FAMILY information.

BRATTON Mr. Rogers Clinch, Sr., 404 Blue Grass Ave., Madison, HURSTON TN 37115 - I am working on a genealogy of the descendants HAIRSTON of Capt. Robert BRATTON of Augusta Co., Virginia. At present I need information concerning John Calhoun BRATTON (Tenn. ca 1830 - Ark. 1909), and his family. In particular, I need information on his wife and children. John Calhoun BRATTON settled in Bradley Co., AR about 1850. He was a businessman there for many years. He served in the Conf. Army with the 9th Ark. Inf. Regiment, and rose to the rank of Major In 1890s he was Co. Judge of Bradley Co., Ark. He died in the Conf. Home at Sweet Home, Pulaski Co., Ark., and is buried in the Conf. Cemetery in Little Rock. If at all possible, I need to learn when his exact date of birth. His wife was Harriet Ann (maiden name possible HURSTON or HAIRSTON) Birthdate, parents, place of burial? etc. At time of his death, Little Rock newspapers reported that he was survived by only grandchildren (names not given) Two dau. were living at that time. The names of six of his seven children were: James Madison; John Robert; Virginia; Mary Caroline; Nancy; and Lizzie. I have the line of Lizzie, but need all others. Known related families: Hughes, Robinson, DeLaughter, & Forrest.

Also need inf. on the family of James Colbert BRATTON (brother of John Calhoun BRATTON) who also lived in Bradley Co., Ark. I believe JAMES sired 21 children, I have a list naming 19 of them. I have inf. on this family prior to the move to Ark., and the family from them back to Capt.
 Robert BRATTON.

LATIMER Mary Lou Dalton, 38703 - 31 Street East, Palmdale, CA 93550 - Another ancestor of ours moved to Arkansas in 1836/37. WETHERAL LATIMER moved with his youngest child to Pope Co., when he was quite old, having been born in 1757. I have much data on the LATIMER Family and will gladly share it with any descendant. Who can tell me when WETHERAL LATIMER died and where he is buried? LATIMER has been spelled LATIMORE or LATTIMORE.
EDITOR'S NOTE: Pope Co., Ark., Marriage Records show: West, James to Lucinda LATEMORE, both of Clark Twp. 11 May 1841 by M. B. Webb, JP
A-44.

WOOTEN Mrs. J. R. Bush, 125 Pinewood, Hot Springs, AR 71901
MILLER Do any of you TEXAS subscribers know these families?
ROYSTON (or ROISTON) WOOTEN, BOLING WOOTEN, & JAMES WOOTEN, all sons of John WOOTEN, SR., b. 1796, Tenn. The sons were probably b. in Tenn. or Ill. and all three went to Texas before 1861 when their father died in Washington Co., AR Other children of John Sr., and 1st wife (name not known, b. in Tenn) were John Jr., William, & Harrison WOOTEN, all b. in Ill., and all living in Ark., in 1861; but John Jr., and two of his sons, Alexander & Thomas, later moved to Texas.
Two daughters of John Sr., were in 1861, Abigail Burnett, living in Crawford Co., Ark., and Mary Gibson, living in Calif.
John Sr., married 2nd to Allie MILLER, a widow with 2 Miller children. She and John had two sons, Stephen and Pleasant WOOTEN, whose progeny seem to be scattered all over Northwest and Central Arkansas, judging from Census Records of 1870, 1880 and 1900; many of Wm. WOOTEN'S descendants live in Sebastain and other West Arkansas Counties. One son of John Jr., James has descendants in Ft. Smith and Oklahoma. He did not go with his father and 2 brothers to Texas about late 1880s or early 1900s. Will refund postage to anyone who knows the descendants of Roiston, Boling and James WOOTEN, who were in Texas (County not known) before 1861.

GORE M. P. Gore, P. O. Box 65, McShan, Ala. 35471 - I would SANDERS like to know the parents of Thomas Tindall GORE, b. 1776 BICKMAN S.C. Married to Nancy SANDERS about 1798 (b. 1778 S.C., d. 1830, Pickens Co., Ala., children were: Rev. Ellis GORE, 3 Oct. 1800-1833; Rev. Ezekiel Fletcher GORE, 1808-1872; Manning
H. GORE, 1809-1849; Thomas Sanders GORE, 1813-1886 and Notley GORE, 16
Dec. 1816, S.C., d. 1879, Pickens Co., Ala. Thomas T. GORE is believed to have served in the Navy in the War of 1812 and was wounded. He sold his land in Chester Dist., S.C. in 1817 and arrived in Pickens Co., Ala., about 1819. On 30 March 1833 he married Jane Bickman (dau. of Wm.)
in Columbus, Miss., and about 1840 moved to Calhoun Co., Miss and died, and is buried at Calhoun City, Miss. All of his children except Ellis & Knotley moved to Miss., with him, and have many descendants. I have tried to connect Thomas T. GORE with James GORE who died in Camden, S.C. in 1783. His widow, Elizabeth's Will was probated in Chester, S.C. in 1788, naming James, Clement, John, Joshua, Michael & Eleazor (also spelled Ebenezer). Clement GORE's Will of 25 May 1801 in Chester Co., shows no
Thos. T. and I can find no other other early Wills of GORES in Chester Co. It is possible that his father moved out before he died.

 the descendants of Robert HARPER, Sr., who died about 1799 in Wilkes Co., GA. These records are at Georgia Archives, Atlanta, GA. Samuel Burgess

 WALDREP, born on the "Military Road" just above the Nevada County line.
 My Great Grandfather, Patillo Washington WALDREP, moved to the above location from Butts Co., GA in 1852. The home place still stands. There is a WALDREP CEMETERY located two miles west of Delta, Nevada Co., Ark. At that time, Nevada County had not been formed and that fact caused me to stumble severely in my research until I caught on. I will be happy to exchange data.

 HENSON'S birthplace, their marriage, who were his parents, his death, etc.
 Have found HENSONS & MANSKERS in both Tenn., Ill., & Arkansas Census Re-

MOORE Mrs. Earl Tate, Ridgedale, MO 65739 - My Greatgrandfather GROVES George MOORE, & his brother John, were born & lived at a place 4 miles up river from Ft. Smith, Sebastain Co., Ark., WHITE at Iron Gate (?) on an 800 acre Cotton Plantation. I can not find anyone that ever heard of such a place. Also George left, but John stayed with his mother. George went to Blue Eye, MO., married & had 2 sons, wife died (boys were pretty old) & he moved to Branson, MO & married again. Wife died when Baby John was 3 weeks old, he was left with his aunt that had a Baby girl (Susan Graves) a week or so older. George left later & went to Green Forrest, Carroll Co., Ark., & married a Susan WHITE & they had a son Arthur. Whatever happened to them is unknown. It is said he was married 6 or so times when he died a left a 5/6 year old girl named Viola. But no trace has been found to date on them. He never came back to see his son, John. George's mother's name is unknown, but I was told they came from Henderson, Tenn., & she was supposed to be Cherokee Indian. Can anyone help me to find what this Iron Gate is & where? Any information will be appreciated.

CAMPBELL Mrs. Alma Fay Stone, 29990 S. Barlow Road, Canby, OR 97013
BARRENTINE Perhaps some member may lend a helping hand: I need some SMITH Cemetery information. I understand my great grandfather, BRUNETTE John Lovid CAMPBELL, his wife, Mary Ellen BARRENTINE & DEAN ancestors on both sides are buried at Bear Creek Cem., in Kirby, Pike Co., AR In the 1880 Census of Pike Co., AR
John Lovid CAMPBELL is 12 yrs old. He has a sister, Nancy J., 14 & 2 bros., Posie, 9 & William, 4. His mother Martha A., is a 30 yr old widow.
They had not been in Pike Co., very long as the 4 yr old child was b. in Ala. All of the children were born in Ala with the exception of John Lovid.
He was born in Gerogia in 1868. His father was Elizah (?) CAMPBELL, b in GA. The name on the Census was spelled CAMEL. Elizah CAMPBELL died between 1875 & 1880. If he died in Ala or Pike Co., Ark., is unknown. The family was living in Clark Township in 1880.

In searching for my great grandmother, Mary Ellen BARRENTINE, I was extremely lucky: There was only one family of BARRENTINES in the 1880 Census of Pike Co., Ark. They were living in Antoin Twp and were listed as follows: Ebija BARRENTINE 34, Ala; Celia A. wife, 28, Ark.; *Mary E., 8, Ark.; Nancy R., 6, Ark.; William H., 4, Ark.; John H. 3 Ark.; Ebija, 9 mos. Ark. * Alexander BARRENTINE, father, 63, Georgia; Rebecka, step-mother, 64, Missouri. This particular census record gave me three generations. We are not always that lucky!! I searched 1870 Pike Co., Census & found Alexander BARRENTINE as head of household wife wife, Susan, born in 1813 in South Carolina. They have seven children at home, the youngest was 8 yrs. old. The youngest 5 were all born in Ark., yet I fail to find Alexander in the 1860 Census of Pike Co., Ark. The family apparently came into Pike Co. between 1860 & 1870. I have yet to find where in Ark. they lived before that date.

The maternal side of my father's family is skimpy indeed. Minnie (SMITH) CAMPBELL died when my father was only 6 years old. There does not seem to be anyone around who knows about her. On my maternal side I find I need Cemetery information on Martha M. E. (BRUNETTE) DEAN, wife of Wm. Moses DEAN, who died and is buried in Jamestown, Independence Co., Ark. She died 13 Dec 1908, & her full name was Martha Marguretta Emily(BRUNETTE) DEAN.

My mother's grandparents are really making problems: Matilda TAYLOR married Isaac (Isaah/ Izeah) JONES somewhere in Tenn. They raised their family in Mississippi. They died in Earle, Crittenden Co., Ark. He died about 1900, & she died in 1906. That is all the information I have on this couple.

I have only been actively searching for my ancestors for a short time, but have become deeply involved. Any information will be appreciated.

Lovie Ann OLIVER, b. ca 1820 Georgia, died in August 1840, in Dallas Co., Ark. They were married in Tenn., County unknown. Two daughters were born to them in Dallas Co., Ark.; Mary Eliza, b. Feb 1837, Joanna Agnes, b. April 1840.

John David TAYLOR married Disdean HOLLOWAY in 1844. In 1852 John David sold his land in Manchester Twp., and was in route to California's Gold Rush in 1853. In September word was received that he had died on about Sept. 23, 1853, and legal action was taken to protect any personal property he may have left in Arkansas. We do not know what became of his second wife, Disdean (Holloway) TAYLOR. The two little girls were brought up in the home of Sheriff E. M. HARRIS and his first wife, Mathilda. If anyone has any material on wagon trains which arrived in Dallas County in 1837 or on individuals from Arkansas who went to the Gold Rush, I will be most grateful to receive any information.

HIRST My Great great grandmother Martha ROGERS was a widow at the COOK time of the 1870 Census (8 Aug. 1870). In the 1870 Census Sintha Hirst, possibly Martha's mother lived with her. I find no mention of these folks in the 1860 Census. I suspect Sintha Hirst passed away before the 1880 census. Also my Great grandmother Elizabeth ROGERS married Jesse T. COOK between 1870 & 1873 and resided in Ouachita County, Ark.
Perhaps there was a transaction involving Mr. COOK incidental to his marriage and setting up household. Any help or clue would be appreciated.

KERSH Mrs. Myrtle K. Rogers, 412 Shamrock Dr., Little Rock, Ark
STIVENDER 72205 - Need any information on KERSH family. If Godfrey CORNWELL KERSH married to Ann STIVENDER, ever came to America from HOPKINS Germany? The KERSHS, I am related to, came from Chester

Great Grandfather, Dr. John Jacob Kersh, b. 1817, d. 1870 in Lincoln Co., Ark., married to Hannah CORNWELL, b. Jan. 10, 1829, d. 1901 in Lincoln Co., Ark. Memories of South Ark., published by Goodspeed Co., states that Dr. John Jacob Kersh was a graduate of U. of N.Y.; attended College in Philadelphia (Studying Medicine). Who were his brothers and sisters? Who is Dr. William D. Kersh? He is buried in Lincoln County, Mt. Zion. Dr. John Jacob KERSH had three sons: Virgel E. KERSH, b. Chester

THURMAN Roland Thurman, 1830 1/4 North Ivar Ave., Hollywood, CA McKINNEY 90028 - I am trying to trace my ancestry, beginning with my father, Atelius THURMAN. According to my birth certificate, he was born in Blackwell, Conway Co., Ark. The date of his birth is not given. He was twenty-eight (28) years old, when I was born 19 February 1929. He married Miss Marguerite McKinney, who was born in Hope, Hemp-stead Co., Ark. I suppose the date of my birth would place his birth ca the first of the century. I have an older sister Naomi Jeanne THURMAN who was b. 19 Nov. 1926. Both of us were born in Camden, Ouachita Co., Ark.
Please - can anyone tell me what I can do to trace the history of my family on my father's side? Will be happy to exchange data.
Also, I'd like to know what part I can play in the Arkansas Family organization to really feel a part of the society?

EDITOR'S NOTES

Our Arkansas Family Historian will accept Queries from anyone and will print without charge at present, as space permits. Many of our members are new and not familiar with many abbreviations. Our mail tells us many things! "Arkansas Family Historian, is so easy to read, especially the Queries". Many are enjoying for the first time our popular world-wide pass-time. This time we have a large number of Queries. Try to get them in early as possible, as it is a large task to answer (most of the mail).

Our mail recently has had most anything - Ancestor Cards for our office file, requests for information "how to become a member", Ancestor Charts (many well filled out) orders for Ancestor Chart Volumes, and many renewals.

You might like to watch others open their Arkansas Family Historian, and look at the Query Section first! Have you opened yours like that?

Do not be disappointed if your Query did not make the dead line this time, space does run out, and this time we have several pages more than usual. You are encouraged to write to anyone, you even think you might help, sometimes just a tiny clue, will open an entirely new area.
