Notes From Your Editor

DEAR MEMBERS AND READERS OF OUR ARKANSAS FAMILY HISTORIAN:

Another busy year has come to an end!!! This year we had to close our membership list out earlier than usual!!! Our supply of Quarterlies for 1979 ran out and if we keep trying to reprint several times, that takes time from something else, so if you did not read the notice in the September issue please turn to the inside of the back cover and read that very carefully. If the membership fee is not in our office by January 1 1980, you are late, and the fee will be $9. on January 2nd 1980.

Already many pages have been prepared for the March issue. Needless to say many of the Queries did not have space in the 1979 issues, we tried to work in as many as possible, but then when they are FREE and we try not to cut material down or even out, and there is much valuable inf. in all the Queries (for the present and for the future, so try to keep up with your Quarterlies, as genealogical inf. does not go out of date). Many members would love to have some of the earlier issues, but most of them are out of print (some few are still available, which at times we list as odd or back issues). This takes much time to dig thru and find the ones needed and postage is so high, this is about to come to an end also. For that reason your Editor is not unhappy when back issues are no longer available...takes a bunch of space for back issues, etc.

If you are keeping your file of Ancestor Chart Volumes current, we now have a total of 15 Volumes in print. Still $3. each.

If you are keeping your file of Family Group Sheet Volumes current, we now have a total of 3 in print. Still $3. each.

Several Volumes of each of these are being made ready for printing, and our paper stack is growing a little at a time (we plan to get some of those into print during the winter, we hope to keep the price at $3. for a while (until postage takes another leap). So if your Chart has not been printed up to this date, it may be printed before the March issue is released.

Many have already paid their 1980 membership fee and that is great! Can you imagine keeping a Zip code file & an alphabetical file also on over 1400 people????? that's not easy...but if you ask Marge or your Editor whether you have paid or not....you will get a fast answer...and correct too! We have our system working better than the U.S. Mail! I am not as hard on the U.S. Mail as I have been in the past--this past year one of my friends wrote to the Postmaster of a very large city and asked the address of someone and he(either or had someone else)took a page from an old phone book and sent it to her. I did not suggest that & still do not suggest that! But it sure did help that time!

Our many thanks to all the nice people who have donated valuable books to our Library, we try very hard to review as quickly as possible, and place them along with our other books in the Little Rock Public Library. Most of the books are reviewed by R. W. Dhonau, and our many many thanks to him (we have really kept him busy these past few years).

GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH & HOW TO BEGIN

The following few hints, as to how to begin, might help, some beginners & and some long time researchers, as we do tend to forget some hints!

MAKING A FAMILY RECORD may be up to you! If someone in your family has already worked on the records, fine! but you might like to recheck the inf. before you begin. Document your records as you progress. That means be sure to record where you found the record (courthouse, census, bible, etc.) Date your notes, and please write the name of the Book and page number. Many books are now published (many in the last 5 or so years) by individuals or family groups who have had an interest in preserving their family history.

START WITH YOURSELF, You are the beginning "twig" on your family tree, & work toward your unknown "roots". Find out the vital inf. about your parents, write it down, then look for data about your grandparents, great-grandparents, etc.

NAMES, DATES, PLACES, RELATIONSHIPS - You will be concerned with pulling from the many and varied documents of recorded history four key items: names, dates, places, and relationships. These are the tools of the family searcher. People can be identified in records by their names, the dates of events in their lives (birth, marriage, death), the places they lived, and by relationship to others either stated or implied in the records. HOME SOURCES, The place to begin is at home. Here you will find much inf. in family bibles, newspaper clippings, military certificates, birth and death certificates, marriage licenses, diaries, letters, scrapbooks, backs of pictures (we hope they have been identified) baby books, etc.

RELATIVES AS SOURCE - Visit or write those in your family who may have inf. particularly older relatives. More often than not others before you have already gathered family data. You should write a letter, make a personal visit, or telephone survey to find out about such persons and what inf. is already collected.

FINDING DISTANT RELATIVES - Before launching your research program in libraries and archives, search for distant relatives who may have already performed research. Advertise in the local genealogical bulletins (city, county, or state) where your ancestors lived. The most widely circulated genealogical magazine (which also specializes in getting people together who are working on the same families).

CHURCH RECORDS - A few churches have records of important events in the lives of members but many do not. Investigate the possibility of finding genealogical data in the records of the church to which your ancestors belonged.

BIRTH, MARRIAGE, and DEATH RECORDS - Some States began to keep records of birth and death earlier than others, but for most of the United States, birth and death registration became a requirement around the turn of the century, about 1890-1915. NOTE: Arkansas began keeping these records about 1914 (but many are not found, until much later) Write: Bureau of Vital Statistics - State Health Department, 4815 W. Markham, Little Rock, AR 72205 - ONLY if you know the month and year! then you will possibly receive a CANNOT FIND notice! Also there is a fee for the search (and they keep that, for the search - about $3.) Before that time these events may be found recorded generally only in church records and family bibles (some times in newspapers, along with the other news items, often hidden!) Marriages will be found recorded in most counties, dating often as early as the establishment of the county. NOTICE - remember the counties were not all established at the same time (you might also look in the next county, and for sure, the county -the known county was established from.)

DEEDS & WILLS - Records of property acquisition and disposition can be good sources of genealogical data. Such records are normally in the county courthouses. Often the earliest county records or copies of them are also available in State archivest.

FEDERAL RECORDS - The National Archives in Washington, D. C., has records of use in genealogical research. The Federal census made every 10 years since 1790 is a good source. The census records area also available on microfilm in the National Archives' regional archives branches located in 11 metropolitan areas throughout the country. Write: General Services Administration, National Archives & Records Service, Washington, D.C. 20408 for descriptive leaflet available, upon request. The National Archives also has military service and related records, passenger arrival records (again, a near date is necessary to search here!) and others.

LIBRARIES, SOCIETIES, ARCHIVES - Visit the State, regional, and local institutions in your area. Libraries, historical and genealogical societies, and archival depositories are all good sources for genealogical and family history data. In Arkansas - start at the History Commission 1st. The old newspapers are on microfilm, card file on various subjects, all census records for the entire United States from - 1790 to 1880 are on microfilm, Census of 1890 - 99% of the schedules were destroyed by fire in 1921. Content was similar to that for 1900 census. 1900 census for Arkansas, is on microfilm: Address (street & house numbers in large cities) relationship to head of family; color or race (W-white, B-black (negro or negro descent), Ch-Chinese, Jp-Japanese, and In-Indian); month & year of birth; age at last birthday; marital status (single, married, divorced, widowed); number of years married to present husband; number of children of wife; number of children living; place of birth of person and parents (state or country only); citizenship; if foreign born, year of immigration, and number of years in U.S.; citizenship status if over 21 (A1-alien, Pa-declaration of intent has been filed, Na-naturalized); occupation; education - can read, write, and speak English; ownership of home, (O-owned, R-rented); whether a home (H) or a farm (F); and whether free (F) or mortgage (M). Separate schedules were prepared for institutions, military establishments, and Indian reservations.

EDITOR'S NOTE: This information has been gathered from various leaflets: ARKANSAS HISTORY COMMISSION OFFICE, GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION, etc.

BOOK REVIEWS

by

R. W. Dhonau, Director

In the past three years I have reviewed more than forty books which have been donated to the Arkansas Genealogical Society's Library. Many of them have been Family Histories. Some people say they do not care about reading anyone else's family history, only their own. Others ask me if I don't get tired of reading all these family histories. For both remark and question, I must say I enjoy reading all of the family histories we receive. Those which are strictly genealogical listings, do not draw interest as well as those with stories and events also. If they are written interestingly, I enjoy the stories about other families, as much as I do my own.

New gift books for our Library are placed with our other books, in the Little Rock Public Library, 2nd Floor, in the Genealogical Room.

LET US BROWSE THROUGH THE FAMILY HISTORIES IN OUR AGS LIBRARY

Since our Arkansas Genealogical Society's Library has been merged with the Little Rock Public Library, the new Family History donations have been reviewed in our Arkansas Family Historian Quarterly. Others were already in our collection before this move, and have not had public notice given.

While reading these books for the purpose of reviewing, several have been found to mention the names of local people. This may be an opportune time to scan this listing, you might like to give a further look at those which might catch your eye here. The compiler is listed first.

OUR RECENT GIFT BOOKS - NOW PLACED WITH OUR AGS LIBRARY

A three volume gift "Genealogical History of the Rutherford Family" is from Mr. & Mrs. Kenneth Rutherford, P. O. Box 85, Lexington, MO 64067. We appreciate this immense collection of family information which includes so many families it would pay everyone to check the Tables of Contents for family names. The original volume published in 1970 accounted for sixty-nine different families in 549 pages.

During the Bicentennial it was revised to include new families and brought the total to 108 families. The revised information is divided into two volumes. Volume I shows the male lines and Volume II shows the female lines. Volume I contains 892 pages and Volume II has 926.

The records begin in the year 1140 in southern Scotland but it is more complete from Robert Rutherford, born about 1634, who lived in Essex Co., Virginia. Sources of information are included in footnotes and references. Family groups are listed if available. These three volumes, with many photographs, may be obtained from the compilers listed above for $40. per set. (Comment of Reviewer: "To my surprise Volume II of the revised edition includes a portion of my Stillwell Family which was my mother's maternal line. The family carried from the first American immigrant thru four generations to my 4-greats grandfather, Joseph Stillwell, I (born 1705) then divides to follow one of his cousins." R. W. Dhonau.

Another Gift Book is "THE CONDITT FAMILY, Volume 9. The Condits and Their Cousins in America" - 1978. It was compiled by five descendants with the Editor-in-chief being Norman I. Condit, M.D.

This volume is the first of a planned series about the descendants of Fielding Conditt who was born in Virginia on 8 Oct. 1771. His family moved from Franklin Co., North Carolina to Smith Co., TN in 1815. Other Conditt families are included, which are not related to Fielding Conditt. Several branches of the family plan to publish distinctly different volumes

The organization of the family for seven generations is excellent. A large amount of information is assembled in an orderly fashion. Many of these families now live in Arkansas, Texas, Oklahoma, and Tennessee.

Family names mentioned most besides Conditt are: Beasley, Edmondson, Halliburton, High, Moore, Rogers, Sherrill.

This book may be obtained from Condits and Cousins, Box 102, Tomahawk Lake, Blooming Grove, New York, N.Y. 10914. It has soft cover, 8½ x 11 inches, 118 pages, indexed, for $5. plus 75 cents postage. We appreciate this gift book.

"SURNAME QUEST - 1978-1979", a new Gift book, uses a unique approach to obtain genealogical information. This booklet was compiled by four members of the North San Diego Co., Genealogical Society, P. O. Box 581, Carlsbad, CA., 92008.

The purpose is to present surnames and where they are thought to have been at a certain date. These surnames are problem areas for members of the California Society. For instance, if a person in Arkansas sees a name who was thought to have been married in Conway Co., Arkansas in 1844, and they have the information concerning that person, a code number in the back section of the book gives the name and address of the person seeking the inf. They can contact the seeker in Calif., and exchange inf. You might receive inf. from them in return.

You might have a look, and see if you can help. Another possibility is that the persons coded name may be a family name you are working on & would like to make a contact. This seems to be a novel way to seek inf. The names beginning with "A" have three Arkansas problems. Those surnames are Adams, Adair, & Avant. We appreciate this booklet, with a new slant.

"THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF ULYS JACKSON, M.D., by Mrs. Ulys Jackson" (Mary Ruth Simpson) - 1977, is a gift for which we are grateful. The Jacksons live at 424 S. Willow, Harrison, AR 72601.

This book tells about the family of Dr. Jackson beginning with his father's experiences, Dr. George Ira Jackson, on thru four generations. It is the record of the way of life of people in the Ozarks, especially in Boone Co., Arkansas, where they lived from 1905 to the present.

It gives a down-to-earth account of the young man growing up and a detailed story of his World War II experiences. It is very interesting, well illustrated with documents, clippings, and pictures.

"Robert A. B. McCarter - In Navarro County, Texas, and Allied Families".

This book was compiled by Herbert H. McCarter and donated by Chaparral Genealogical Society, P. O. Box 606, Tomball, TX 77375. Robert was born in South Carolina in 1812 and married Sarah Ann Chance in 1838 in Alabama, and Mariah Louisa Meador in Alabama in 1844. They moved to Navarro Co., TX in 1849.

The genealogy of the eight children and descendants forms the book and is well supplied with family pictures. A history of the Hopewell Baptist Church is also included. Allied family names with largest numbers are: Andrews, Benson, Boyd, Corbin, Farmer, Graham, Greenup, Jones, King, Lamb, Meador, Swanson, Weaver, Williams and Woolf. Thanks for this genealogy of a large Texas Family.

The first of the 1900 Census Reports as donations to the Arkansas Genealogical Society Library was compiled and given by James M. and Lillian (Noles) Hart, 1604 Summer St., Hot Springs, AR 71901. The first is "Index of 1900 Census of Garland County, Arkansas" and may be obtained in soft cover for $5. plus $1. for mailing. Each name is in alphabetical order as the census is reported.

Second is "Index of 1900 Census of Montgomery County, Arkansas" with same description as above for $3. plus $1. for mailing from these same compilers.

Third is "Marriage Records of Montgomery County, Arkansas", (Books A & B - 1843-1893). Each book is separately indexed by full name. This may be ordered from these compilers for $12.50 plus $1. postage and mailing.

This same marriage book is also bound in hardcover for $17.50 plus $1. mailing charge under the title of "Love, Honor & Cherish". Many thanks for these valuable source books. RWD

"INDEX TO MARRIAGE RECORDS OF CANADIAN COUNTY, OKLAHOMA TERRITORY" Book 1, July 1890 - April 1894, was compiled by Mrs. Virginia Fike Lang and Mrs. Louise Finley Wilcox. It begins with a list of the maiden names of previously married women. The main list giving names and dates licenses were issued is alphabetical by both names of brides and grooms. Under the alphabetical listing is the name of the spouse of the alphabetical name. It may be ordered for $7.50 postpaid from Canadian Co., Genealogical Soc., Inc., P. O. Box 866, El Reno, OK 73036. Thanks for this valuable inf.

"ST. FRANCIS COUNTY, ARKANSAS MARRIAGE RECORDS - BOOKS D, E, & F", by Kathleen S. Bell, 1250 Chestnut, Forrest City, AR 72335. Soft bound $8. prepaid.

This is the first publication of any St. Francis County public records. Books A, B, & C were destroyed by fire. Book D begins in April 1875, Book E, begins in August 1885, and Book F ends in Jan. 1891. There are a total of 2,121 marriages or bonds arranged alphabetically by male names with a female index. Book F is indexed individually with 1175 male listings. Book E and F are indexed together with 956 male listings. Each has its own female index. (All this is published in one book, by Mrs. Bell).

EDITOR'S NOTE: Mrs. Bell is one of our new AGS Directors for 1980, and is working on two large cemeteries, and the records of Stevens Funeral Home 1897-1912. You might contact her, if you are interested in St. Francis County records (both these published and those unpublished).

We are glad to receive the donation of two books from the Topeka, KS Genealogical Society on "SHAWNEE COUNTY CEMETERY" listings. Volume I of April 1973 gives Small Cemeteries in the City of Topeka. Vo. 2 of April 1977 gives townships of: Auburn, Dover, Grove, Menoken, Mission, Rossville, Silver Lake. A complete county map shows the location of each cemetery. Historical information on each cemetery is given also. A complete surname index for both Volumes is given in Volume 2. Additional inf. on request from Mrs. Helen King, 2343 Indiana, Topeka, Kansas 66605. These volumes are appreciated very much. (Reviewed by R. W. Dhonau, AGS Director)

EARLY COURT HOUSE RECORDS OF JOHNSON COUNTY, ARKANSAS, by Mrs. Lillian Mickel, P. O. Box 250, Clarksville, AR 72830. Soft cover $15. prepaid.

Johnson Co., AR was formed in 1833, Clarksville was made County Seat 1836, the same time Arkansas became a State. These records date back to that time. RECENT GIFT BOOKS (Con't page 3)

"MARRIAGE BOOK D - 1877-1892, of CRAWFORD CO. ARKANSAS" & "MARRIAGE BOOK E - 1892-1896, of CRAWFORD CO. ARKANSAS", Two new books have been donated by Mrs. Oma Cole and Mrs. Hazel Brown.

Mrs. Cole is one of our AGS Directors, and she and Mrs. Brown have compiled several other Crawford County Books (and donated one each to our Library). Each book is listed by date of marriage in chronological order, with an Index of all surnames. They may be ordered from Mrs. Oma Cole, Rt. 3 Box 1, Alma, AR 72921. These are very valuable genealogical source books, thanks Mrs. Cole & Mrs. Brown.

"VAUGHAN PIONEERS - William and Fereby Vaughan of Russell Co., Virginia, & their Descendants" is a newly donated family history. It was given by Lewis E. Vaughan, one of our members in Maryland. Thank you fellow member, for the genealogical record of the Vaughan Family. It is a most scholarly work.

Vaughan is derived from the old Welsh name VYCHAN, meaning short of stature. Vaughan families were prominent in the British Isles as early as 1200. This family descends from a William Vaughan and this book goes through eight generations mostly in Virginia, West Virginia, Tennessee and Arkansas but also in Maryland, North Carolina, Kentucky, Ohio, Missouri, Nebraska & Kansas and others.

William Vaughan was born about 1750 reportedly in Wales, died between 1838-40 in Northwest Arkansas, married Fereby Benton, born about 1750 in North Carolina, died May 1850 in Madison Co., Arkansas. An Arkansas Period about 1822 and forward is well documented. Other family names most often mentioned are: Adkins, Archer, Beach, Booth, Calico, Davis, Dawson, Evans, Ferguson, Hatten, Johnson, Lycan, Miller, Osburn, Pyles, Skeels, Smith, Thompson, Todd, Walker, Wilson and Young. It would pay Arkansas people to check out this information. The book may be purchased for $17.50 postpaid from Lewis E. Vaughan, 5446 Varnum Street, Bladensburg, Maryland 20710.

"VALLEY FORGE, In Search of That Winter Patriot" by Ramona Cameron Worley, 27 Clover Drive, Belleville, Ill. 62221 was donated by the compiler. It was published in 1979, 140 pages, and may be ordered for $10 postpaid.

This is a comprehensive guide for tracing Valley Forge Ancestors. It is indeed a valuable genealogical source after two centuries of meager and scattered inf. about the veterans of the dark, doubtful days of the American Revolution.

Mrs. Worley's book is readable and easy to use. She gives facts and lists of sources for every new state which sent its soldiers to Valley Forge, that shrine of liberty. There is a surname index for all. We appreciate this well documented book.

"CIVIL WAR BURIALS - FREDERICKSBURG, Virginia", by Maud E. Sellman, is a gift from the compiler. Her address is 2517 Gates Ave., Redondo Beach, CA 90278. The price is $13. postpaid. In December 1862 the battles for this key city of the Confederacy took a heavy toll in lives.

There are 83 pages of the names with complete inf. on each in numbered graves. There is a full name index of 38 pages. We thank you for this valuable inf. It would be well for concerned persons to check this listing

"THEY FOLLOWED THE SUN" - Some Ancestors and Descendants of Zachary Taylor Cox and Elizabeth Jane Hitt, by Mrs. Lorena W. Bush and Mary Cox. Thank you for donating this book to our AGS Library, Mrs. Bush, (a long time member) who lives at 125 Pinewood, Hot Springs, AR 71901.

Much ancient inf. is documented on the Cox Family of the British Isles and the Continent and in the original American colonies. The subject of this book C. T. Cox was born to Moses Edward Cox and Mary (Campbell) Cox on 28 Sept. 1850 in Macon Co., Missouri, and died 3 Nov. 1908 in Hunt Co., TX. On 20 July 1871 he was married to Elizabeth Jane Hitt, daughter of Wm. Bradford D. Hitt and wife Cynthia (Williams) Hitt in Missouri. In 1876 they moved to Texas and in the next 20 years went to many states to then return to Texas.

Many documents and pictures tell the story of these families. It may be ordered for $20. from Genealogy Books, 3980 Moulton Dr., San Bruno, CA 94066.

NOTE: You might like to ask one of the researchers to check one or more of these books for you. Remember you Editor cannot even answer mail!!! but you do receive your Arkansas Family Historian on time!

"MARRIAGES OF ARKANSAS COUNTY, ARKANSAS" Volume I - 1786-1875, was recently published and is now available for researchers. Since this was the oldest county in the Territory that are the earliest recorded. They came from several sources and is now all together for your convenience.

These marriages came from Pre-Territory records of the Catholic Church, first Civil Records 1808-1819 - when Territory was organized, from unbound Record Book A, Deed Record Books B & C. To fill-in for lost or destroyed Marriage Book "A" -1819 to 1839 - those from newspapers, Justice of Peace books, etc. Then follows Marriage Record Book "B", 1839-1859, Marriage Book "C" - 1859-1875 and Marriage Record Book "D", 1875 - colored. "C" and "D" first time published and available. Oldest records for colored researchers. Full name index for 90 years of records.

This volume sells for $15. which includes all packaging and mailing costs for 168 pages, may be ordered from: R. W. Dhonau, 4410 Lee Avenue, Little Rock, AR 72205, the compiler.

"RESEARCHING ARKANSAS HISTORY - A Beginner's Guide" written by Tom W. Dillard and Valerie Thwing is now available. This is a guide that tells persons interested in Arkansas' past how to find out about specific events or persons.

"Researching Arkansas History" provides many keys to Arkansas' past, including a bibliography of what are termed primary and secondary reference sources. A primary source would be an item such as a diary or paper written by an Arkansan at the time the event happened. It would be a first-hand account of an incident. A secondary source would be a book, article or work written by a person who did not participate or witness the event but researched it through primary sources.

The guide also indexes the various historical societies in the state and indexes and explains what special features libraries throughout the state might be able to offer. For example, the library at the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville has a special Arkansas archive, Arkansas reference collection and early Arkansas manuscripts. Other special Arkansas collections and works which are located at other libraries are described in this research guide. Genealogy research methods and sources explain in one chapter how the beginner might trace his ancestry. Another chapter gives information on black history and describes some of the difficulties that may be encountered in performing accurate research in this area because few early records exist. Soft cover $3.50 prepaid, Rose Publishing Co., 301 Louisiana, Little Rock, AR 72201

"HAXTON GENEALOGY and ALLIED LINES" by C. Vale Mayes and Bertha Clark is a new donation to our AGS Library from Mr. Mayes of P. O. Box 245, Shell Knob, MO 65747. He is also a member of our AGS.

The Haxton or Hackston family is fully covered, starting with James Haxtone who was born in Scotland about 1664, and his arrival in Massachusetts in 1679. The main places where the family located early were in Rhode Island, New York and Connecticut, going to Pennsylvania and Ohio in the early 1800s and then to Indiana, Illinois and Iowa.

By 1870 descendants were in Northwest Arkansas, Kansas, Indian Territory and Texas. There are about 1,000 Haxton names indexed and near 2,000 of allied lines. The organization of this family information is particularly good. The narratives flow smoothly from one chapter to another without excess material getting in the way. The 49 illustrations are well chosen and add much to the 366 page book which has a hard cover and sells for $21. prepaid. This book is a welcome addition to our AGS Library.

SARAH SHAW - ABSTRACT OF WILL

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following was submitted by Mrs. Elva Pearl Merriott, 2351 Etiwanda St., San Diego, CA 92107

SARAH SHAW.* Children: Peggy Watson and her children Jesse B.; John M.; Sally; Thomas; Hugh C.; Robert F.; Mary Jane; and Margaret E. Watson and husband Samuel Watson; John J. Shaw and his wife Dicy, and their daughter Hannah SHAW. Owned land on Coldwater Creek. Also named a Grandson William M. Shaw. Executor: son, Hugh Shaw. Signed: Oct. 20, 1847. Witness: W. B. Rhea and Isaac J. Holman. Proven in Dec. Term 1847. (Page 333)

NOTE: the above information was from: Tennessee State Library and Archives, 403 Seventh Ave. North, Nashville, TN 37219 (March 10, 1979)

*Sarah Shaw wife of William Shaw, b. 5th Feb. 1758 in Killeleagh Parrish, County Down, Ireland. Came to America in 1772 at age 14. His parents not known at this time. Settled in Guilford County, North Carolina. He served in the American Revolution War from 1775, was still in service 1780 & later. He married Sarah Job (Jobb), born 5 June 1766, N.C. & died 9 Nov. 1847. (SEE WILL above). William and Sarah had to run away to get married (as reported by David Cooper, either a relative or neighbor) mentioned in Sarah's request or application for pension for William's War Service.

David thinks Squire Hanna preformed the ceremony. In her application, she said they had 3 children prior to 1794: Elizabeth Shaw; Joseph Shaw; and a girl believed to be Sarah Shaw.

Sarah was granted a pension of $46.66 per annum to begin 25th of Feb. 1845. Record Book "A" June 17, 1844. Vol. 2, page 197.

Sarah & William had other children (see abstract of WILL above).

Condition for marriage of William & Sarah (Jobb) are as follows:

Know all men by these present, that we, William Shaw and James McBride, both of Guilford County, N.C. are held and firmly bound unto Richard Caswell Esq. Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the State aforesaid, in the just and full sum of five hundred pounds, which payment well & truly to be made. We bind our (?) of our heirs, jointly & severally. firmly by these present, sealed with our seal and dated this 24 day of May A.D. 1787.

The condition of the above obligation is such that whereas the above bound William Shaw hath made application for a license for marriage to be celebrated between him and Sarah Jobb. Now if it shall not appear at any time hereafter that there is no just cause to obstruct said marriage, that then the above obligation to be void & of non effect.

Signed, sealed; and delivered in presence of (Seal) (signed) William Shaw
(Seal) (signed) James McBride

Wm. and family removed to Lincoln County, TN in the year 1790, and both William and Sarah died there. He died 5 years prior to Sarah, in August 25th 1842 and Sarah in 1847.

Only one son, Joseph, has been proven as being born in North Carolina, 19th January 1790, Guilford Co., N.C. He married, Sarah (?) born 22 Nov. 1812. Where? Need maiden name? She died 16 Sept. 1866, TN.

LEBOW Mrs. LaVena LEBOW WILSON, P. O. Box 684, Camp Verde, AZ 86322
My Great grandfather, Hiram LWBOW, died 8 March 1880 in Polk Co., AR., and I have been told he was bushwhacked by being shot in the back while riding in the woods. Also that he was some kind of an outlaw at one time, riding with QUANTRILL.

I cannot do anything about what he did, nor do I approve or condemn, but I would surely like to know the truth about him!

Is it possible that there could be something about this incident in the MENA STAR of Polk Co., AR.?

I am certainly a law-abiding citizen, and my son, Col. Donald WILSON served two tours in Viet Nam, and is presently in P.C. Zone., but there surely was a reason for Hiram LEBOW to do this, if he did!

I was born west of Wickes, Polk Co., AR, 2 May 1916, daughter of Joseph B. LEBOW and Elizabeth Kate BAILEY, but have been reared and schooled in Arizona, but have property in Montgomery Co., AR., that we are contemplating on retiring, when we can make up our minds as what to do.

Any inf. on this Hiram LEBOW matter will be greatly appreciated.

still be in Arkansas.

HULSEY Mrs. James R. Winkle (Thelma) 3366 Princeton Dr., Santa Rosa, GOODE CA 95405 - I have such a little inf. on both my Arkansas Families, I am back to Abraham, in TN Great grandfather of my husband. We didn't know his grandfather's name to begin with! Would like to correspond with other working on these two lines in Arkansas.

I will be glad to help with research, here in California (for a fee) please enclose S.A.S.E (self addressed stamped envelope).

EVERYONE IS ENCOURAGED TO CORRESPOND WITH ANYONE...EVEN IF YOU HAVE A TINY CLUE...REMEMBER THEY MAY BE ABLE TO HELP YOU ALSO!

MANY MANY Wanda Joy Ulmer Karrant, Star Rt., Box 18-A, Chester, AR SURNAMEs!!! 72934 - The surnames I am working on are as follows: (In BEING SEARCHED! order that they appear on my pedigree, not alphabetically).
Paternal side: ULMER, HOGGATT, BRINSON, RAY, GREEN, MOFFETT, CALLENDER, MAXWELL, TAYLOR, FRANCIS, FORE, KEES, HORGER, INABINET, SANDERS, PEMBERTON, S(C)HULER, SHAUMLOFFEL, NAGELY, BLAKE, RENTZ, SCHNELL, BALL, GOTSCHMAN, WILLIAMSON, BUCHER, STUFFENEGGER, & JENFER.
Maternal side: SMITH, RO(D)GERS, YERBY, BARR, HOLCOMB, HASSELL, BALLIENT
(?), MC MILLAN, BAINES (BAINS), PORTER, MC TYRE, SNELL, CHARLTON, BOGAN, WILKINS, BERGERON, PELETAN(T).

On my husband's pedigree: Paternal side: KARRANT (KARRANTULIUS in Greece), KOCHOVAS.

Maternal side: BOGGS, HARDMAN (HARTMAN), EYE, GOFF, REXROAD, RIDDLE(EL), PARSONS (?), PROPST, WELSH, GRAY, RENNICK, ZORN, BROOM, BALDWIN (BOYLDWIN), RULEMAN.

Have run some of the above surnames to their country of origin which puts me in the following countries: England, Wales, Scotland, Ireland, Germany, Switzerland, France.

In some lines I am back into the 1500s and 1600s. Some are rather complete and much more is in an incomplete state with much to be proven.

I will gladly share what I have on any of my or my husband's lines with anyone interested. I would greatly appreciate hearing from anyone working on any of these lines.

In the March 1979 issue of the ARKANSAS FAMILY HISTORIAN, the question was asked, "to share ways we had found help in a rather unusual way."

I really didn't have a great deal of information on my father's family as, my mother and father had divorced, when I was a baby and contact had been more or less lost, and ones I did know didn't seem to know much about the ULMER lineage, but knew that they had come from Mississippi. From some old report cards of my father's and bits and pieces, I eventually found my grand father's death date and place in Oklahoma. I sent for a death certificate and was eventually led to the area around Brookhaven, Miss. (Lincoln Co.)
and located graves of my great grand-father, whose name was rather unusual, Franklin HERGER ULMER and many of my other ancestors, plus many living distant cousins. My distant cousins raised in that area and still living in that same area couldn't tell me where Franklin Herger ULMER and wife had lived before coming to that area, nor could they tell me much more than I already had learned by that time. One day while just looking at any & all I could find on Mississippi, at the Century Enterprises Genealogy Library, that was then operating in Ft. Smith, Sebastain Co., AR., I picked up a history on Jasper Co., Miss., written by H. H. Daniels and noticed many ULMERS buried in that county and in particular, one or two bearing the middle or first name of HERGER. The author of this history had offered to help anyone needing help with Jasper County records, so I just wrote him and asked if he knew anything about the ULMERS of that county and explained my connection. A few days later I received a long distance telephone call from Mr. Daniel, and he informed me that I was a cousin of his and he had lost my Great grandfather after they left Jasper County, Miss., and he had been looking for any of his descendants for over 3 years. He had published a book on the ULMER family but had to leave out the descendants of Franklin Herger ULMER.

Needless to say, I have helped him as much as possible to contact all of the descendants I could, and he has published a supplement listing all of us and many of us have now been attending the ULMER Family Reunion held once a year, that we had never know about before. We have all met countless cousins, we would never have known but for my desperation and more or less clutching at a straw.

All long shots should be followed up for once in awhile, they pay off and reward you for all of the ones you write for, and don't pay off. I could tell many other stories similar to the above that have helped me beyond measure.

BIBLE RECORD FROM BIBLE OF HENRY HOLCOMB SMITH

Copied 15 May 1979, - Wanda Joy Karrant, Star Rt., Box 18-A, Chester, AR
The following information was found on a loose piece of paper in my Grandfather's bible when it was given to me several years after his death and the death of my uncle to whom the bible had been given. This record was handwritten and I believe it is the handwriting of my Grandfather. I will transcribe it exactly as written and then I will add my own postscript to fill in complete names as I have found them to be through several years of research and correspondence. The bible is a red letter edition published by The World Syndicate Publishing Co. of Cleveland, O. and New York, N.Y. copyrighted, 1901 by Louis Klopech, New York City. It was in very bad condition when presented to me and I have had it rebound. The writing of the record is very legible. I had the handwritten record bound in with the bible when re-bound.

BIBLE RECORD FROM BIBLE OF HENRY HOLCOMB SMITH (Con't page 4)

The compiler of the additions and corrections submitted is Wanda Joy Ulmer Karrant, the daughter of #25. She married Jimmie KARRANT, Jr., 7 September 1948 in Oklahoma City, OK. Their children are: Jimmie Karrant, III, b. 30 January 1950 married to Sarah Machen in Little Rock, Pulaski Co., AR., on 30 December 1978 and now living in Memphis, TN. Cynthia Ann Karrant, born 6 March 1953, Oklahoma City, OK., married Eric Raymond Berg in Rantoul, Ill. 6 April 1974, both were Sgts. in Air Force. They have one son, Timothy Allen Berg, born 19 July 1977 in Urbana, Illinois, and one daughter, Lara Noel Berg, born 29 November 1978, Weisbaden, West Germany (Air Force Hospital). Chris J. Karrant, born 6 November 1954, Oklahoma City, Okla., married Gloria Jane Dimarob, 27 December 1976, in Poteau, Oklahoma. They live on R. Route. Chester, Arkansas.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Our many many thanks to Wanda Joy Ulmer Karrant for sharing all this valuable information including the interesting way she told of her unusual good luck in finding her many relatives and ancestors' records. Many thanks again Wanda Joy.

Another important note from Wanda Joy, " I realize the importance of having some of one's records placed elsewhere in case of the original file being destroyed as sometimes happens. What I have, has taken over 20 years to accumulate and no one else has copies of most of my files. My daughter has only a small portion and I cringe to think it could all be destroyed so easily.

EDITOR'S NOTE: All the information published in the ARKANSAS FAMILY HISTORIAN goes to our now over 1300 members, including many Libraries, so with all those copies, the entire United States, etc will have to be swept away before they are all destroyed! That leaves a great feeling!

HANDLEY Mrs. Patsy Nye, 8707 E. 14th, Tulsa, OK 74112 - About 8 years WINNINGHAM ago we re-modeled an older home for some friends and we found a shoe box with some old letters and pictures, dated in the early 1900's. I forgot about them until a few days ago and I thought I would check with THE ARKANSAS FAMILY HISTORIAN MEMBERS to see if you may know if anyone is searching for the family of William HANDLEY or his sister Nellie WINNINGHAM. I am sure there are many other names mentioned in the letters that may help & someone can use.

The family was from Monticello, Arkansas (A. & M. College). Camp Pike, Arkansas. and Relp Bluff, Arkansas. Please write to Mrs. Nye.

garding any of the descendants will be most helpful.

FOSTER Howard E. Grayson, 4921 Seminary Road, Apt. 424, Alexandria, VA 22311 - The Family Historian is much enjoyed. Also I have something to be shared. Several have inquired about "FOSTERS" and while I haven't attempted to establish a relationship, one may exist. My grandfather was Doctor Oscar David FOSTER of Ft. Smith, Sebastain Co., AR. His father was Stephen Moore FOSTER of Roseville, Logan Co., AR. A great great uncle, William Thomas FOSTER, at the age of 80 in 1937 put in a letter, the FOSTER FAMILY GENEALOGY as he knew it. A re-typed copy of that letter with a traced signature is enclosed. I have not attempted as yet to verify this data. The readers of our ARKANSAS FAMILY HISTORIAN may find it of interest.

Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Dear Ernest:

Your cousin William E.G. Foster of Los Angeles, writes me that you would be glad to know more of your father and my brother, Erastus Duncan Foster, who died in 1890, prior to your birth. I can easily see that such desire is quite natural, and as I am the only person, perhaps, now living who can give you a fair account on this line, and as I feel it to be my duty, I am undertaking to satisfy your desire to know more of him and of the family. So, I shall go back as far as I well can, into the Foster ancestry. The name is quite old. In 912 Rollo came down from the north of Europe and made a deal with the King of France whereby he (Rollo) was allowed to set up a dukedom in the French province of Normandy which lay next to the English Channel on the north of France. Rollo went to work developing Normandy. Several rulers came in line of dukes who ruled Normandy down to 1066, a period of about 150 years. During this time the rulers had established and fenced a great forest reserve in which they kept deer, wild hogs, etc. to furnish amusement and diversion for the duke and his court members. To look after this forest and its fences and animals was a forester, appointed by the duke. One of the earliest of these was a man named Anacher. (pronounced An-a-ker) At first of course he was Anacher to all, but later those having business with him called for "the forester", gradually as the generation passed, he was called "the forster", and later "the foster", and at last they said, "I would like to see foster", then the little "f" became a capital and "F" came to make it plain "Mr. Foster". And so we suppose our name evolved out of "forester". Well as we are a somewhat romantic family, I am very well pleased to accept this name as we did. The last great ruler of Normandy and the greatest of them all was William of Normandy, who in 1066, on a claim that his son had saved the life of Edward the Confessor, of England, and later that this Edward had visited William in Normandy and while there had been induced by William to descend into a secret vault where were kept the bones of the saints - bones, heralded as those of some of Christs apostles, and there Edward the Confessor, after being blindfolded, bowed reverently on his knees and after being asked to extend his hands, they were allowed by William to rest on these bones of the saints. At this time the lamps were lighted and the hood-wink removed from Edwards head; Edward was now informed that his hands rested on the saints bones; Edward, a very devoted Catholic, very religious, timid, weak-willed, intoned: "I will the Crown of England to William of Normandy, at my death, confirming the same with my hands on the bones of the saints." He died in 1066. William demanded the throne of England. Harold, a favorite courtier of Edward was made King because Edward had so requested. In October 1066 William invaded England with a powerful army for that day. He landed near Hastings, England and camped. Harold, who had led an army into Scotland to quell a Scotch insurrection, left Scotland and hastened to meet William. The two armies came together at Hastings. Not a gun was fired - clubs, daggers, bows and arrows, were the weapons. (Gun powder did not figure until the battle of Creasy, in the fourteenth century.) The battle raged until ten o'clock, when William made a feint, ordered his men to make like they were running away, retreating. Harold ordered his men to leave their breast-works and chase the Normans. That order lost the battle for Harold. An arrow shot high into the air descended, piercing Harold's eye and brain. When withdrawn Harold died. The Normans had won. William rested there until December when the English sent him word to come to London. Later he was crowned King of England and became in history, William the Conqueror. And so this is the type of people we descended from, brave, aspiring, chivalrous, defenders of women and children. You must know that tradition is considered more reliable than history. History does not command the respect that tradition does. History is written from the viewpoint of many writers, very often, but tradition is almost sacredly regarded - no one ever dares to change it - even the words and order is not violated. Tradition is handed down from father to son and then from that son to his son and on and on. Our tradition is this: Three Foster brothers came over from Ireland to America in the 17th century. One of them settled in New England, one in some other place and one in Pennsylvania, near where Pittsburg stands. We are supposed to be in the line of the one near Pittsburg. He had three sons, one of whom went to the Carolinas. From that one we are thought to descend. Stephen C. Foster, the author of Swanee River and many other famous songs and musical compositions is descended from the one who remained in Pittsburg, thus we are about fifth cousin to Stephen C. Am glad of this kinship, he was great, and like most Fosters very affable and agreeable. In fact, he like some of his modern kin could not refuse a drink - and so, died at 38, - too much liquor - too much good cheer. Let me say here, this uncle of yours was never drunk, smoked, chewed or swore an oath, but I do not pass this to pose as angelic. Ive a poor record in some other human lines. Wish I could write at complete freedom on all lines - however, I would not wish to crowd Enoch and Elijah who went to Heaven on their record - did not go through the grave. My grand-father, John Foster was born in South Carolina, near Spartanburg. He had one brother, Anthony, quite a slave owner, and my Daddy used to tell me he one day met a negro in winter bare-foot, and asked him to whom he belonged. He answered, "Mas Antry Foster". He gave instructions to the overseer to put shoes on him. The point, Anthony owned so many slaves he did not know them by sight or name. John Foster, your great-grandfather, was a short, stocky man, very athletic, quick, but convivial - loved his dram, and when one night drinking, he was exposed to the cold, contracted pneumonia and died. He was a saddler by trade and a good workman. He married a lady in Buncome County North Carolina named Sinah Lack, Scotch descent. She was taller than he, a woman of keen mind, very industrious, a fine cook, gardener, (worked her garden at 90), bossed everything about her, gentle but commanding. In the 1830's she removed to Liberty, Tenn. Dekalb county, and opened a shop for saddlery, harness, bridles and etc. Did well, (she was a good saddler) trained all her sons to the trade, but did other work as occasion arose. When Tennessee built many turnpikes in the early day, she bid off a section of Snow's Hill pike, a road between Liberty and Smithville, and taking her eight sons, she bossed the job and finished her contract complete. She was a rare woman. She was good looking, pretty for an old woman in 1865 when I first remember seeing her. At 87 or 88 she was baptised into the Christian Church, what is now known as Church of Christ, the one that has no instrument in its choir. That was my beloved, grand-mother. I will here give you a list of your great-grandfathers children, eight sons, four daughters: I can not vouch for the order, but named as near right decent of age as can: Frank Foster, married, lived at Liberty Tenn. average family: short man, 5 ft. maybe, liked liquor, rode fine stock, saddler by trade, moved to Texas in 1870 or thereabout. Lucy (Baker) married Jonathan Baker, had a son named Bailey. Moved to Texas. William Golden Foster, my Daddy, your grand-father, one of the cleverest and best fellows ever, king to everybody, even to going security for them and sometimes paying it. A saddler. Pamela (Fletcher) married Moses Fletcher, a good man. No children. Lived in Union City, Tenn. Mary, I dont know who she married. John Foster, reared a family, settled near Rutherford, Tenn. The depot was built on his land. Tom Foster, reared a family, lived in Texas. Ted Foster, a bachelor a very masculine fellow. Polly (Brown) married Cage Brown, no Children. Lived and died in Smithville, Tenn. Anthony Foster, married Mary Cameron, a fine woman. Raised a fine family most of whom now live in Dekalb County, Tenn. Two of the sons, James and Alva, bachelors, and business partners engaged in banking and merchandising are considered two wealthiest men in Dekalb County, and now living at Smithville, Tenn. Bluford Foster, married a Steele lady, good woman, reared a large family, smart children. Bluford was a lawyer, a very brilliant speaker and writer. A very handsome man. Joel Foster, youngest of all, lawyer, married a Whaley, an aristocratic woman. He moved to Nevada in the 50's. Never heard much of him. He was also a very brilliant man. Now lets get closer to home. My father, William G. was born in either South Carolina or Alabama. He used to tell me how when living 12 miles from Huntsville, Alabama and about 5 years old, he used to go out when he heard the tinker coming; would hear his tin pans and scrap tin rattling as he came trotting his pony. He would describe the shiny, pewter pans and spoons the tinker would mould for them. My father later when about grown, removed with his mother to

Liberty, Tenn. There at age 27 he went courting in the Short Mountain country ten miles north, and married Minerva Spurlock, daughter of Bird Spurlock, my mother and your grand-mother. She died in 1860, leaving me about 2½ years old. I do not remember her. Those who knew her well told me she was a very smart woman, expressed herself well, was rapid in speech and good looking. I think a cold developed into some lung affection that was fatal. William Golden Foster, your grand-father¹ was born Feb 11, 1811. Minerva (Spurlock) Foster, your grand-mother was born Feb 7th or 8th 1818. To the union of my father, William G. and my mother, Minerva Spurlock, were born: John Bird Foster, April 28, 1839 died in 1916, Nephritis. Erastus Duncan Foster, May 27, 1841, died May 5, 1890, Pneumonia. Stephen Moore Foster, Feb 5, 1844, died Jan 18, 1902, dropsy. Josiah Spurlock Foster, Nov 7 1846, died in 1927 (at 81 years) senility, (old age). Sarah Elizabeth Foster, Sept. 16, 1848, died Aug 10, 1876, typhoid. Franklin Pierce Foster, April 16, 1853, died Jan 1, 1876, congestion. James Vaux Drake Foster, Aug 1 1856, died Aug 3, 1857, mal-practice. William Thomas Foster, Aug 3, 1858, hopes to see 1958.

Biographical Sketch:

J. B. Foster, at 22, light, 5ft 8 in. prominent Roman nose - Spurlock nose, enlisted on Confederate side in 1861, was captured in 1864, spent 18 months in Rock Island Prison Illinois. Came home when peace was declared: Made the war a great and funny experience personally, especially his prison life, saw usually the laughable and ridiculous side of anything, was a life time perpetrator of jokes, was the instigator of nearly every piece of deviltry in Rock Island. A cell mate after the war told of how J.B. plotted and carried out a plan whereby all prisoners in his section of prison had funds to buy smuggled in tobacco until the war closed. J.B. knew that a certain Yankee guard carried a large roll of money, swearing in all those in his section to secrecy, he waited his chance and knocked the guard out and got the roll. Studied law after the Civil War, practiced in all courts at Smithville Tenn. fairly successful, but ruined his opportunity to advance by a 42 day drunk. Sober once more, he removed to the pine forests 14 miles from Meridian, Miss. where he had married Mrs. Sallie Chaney, a smart, fine looking widow, years before. He studied medicine, took the medical examination, passed, went into practice, succeeded and quit drinking entirely. He was married four times, and with the fourth when he died. He had two or three sets of children, all of whom live around Meridian, Miss. J.B. was well educated, widely read and a gifted cartoonist. As a Doctor he was considered among the best of his day. E.D. Foster, (your father) stood about 6 ft. tall, maybe ½ in. more, weighed about 180, square shouldered, strong, erect, eyes gray, I think, smooth voice, rather slow speaker. Long scar in forehead from kick of horse when young, slanting scar running from above one eye downward to corner of other eye. Considered the handsomest boy of all the seven. Made friends easily. When the Civil War came E.D. enlisted on the Confederate side, and so continued for a year or so. A band of Confederate bush-whackers sprang up in the Short Mountain section ten miles southwest of Smithville, Tenn. (our home) and paid weekly visits to Smithville, robbing any who fell under their displeasure, and that included my father. He was a saddler and harness maker and much in demand, taking in considerable money each week. Pomp Kersey, leader of his band of 10 or 20 guerrillas, took this money each week. E.D. may have had that for partial cause to quit the Confederacy and come home, although E.D. was a Captain, chosen by his Company. He was popular with those who went out with him. Anyway, he changed over, joined the Federal Home Guards and set out to extinguish Kersey and his gang. I do not know who killed Kersey and his gang at Half Acre near Short Mountain, Tenn. in 1864. It was said that E.D. was the Federal Home Guard that did it. I had a half-uncle Ned Spurlock, who joined the Federal army. One night he came home to see his family. Kersey got wind of it some how and raided his home before day. Ned was "nailed to the cross", as they called it. No real nails in the operation. Two bush-whackers held his hand - a hand each - stretched as far as could be, one on each side, then the others stood in front of him and shot him to death, didn't even allow him to pray. E.D. was said to have declared that death of all of them should pay for Ned's death. Well, all but two died. About eight bush-whackers were asleep in their rendezvous, around the place where they cooked supper, but two other bush-whackers slept a little way from the large crowd. The Federals led by E.D. trailed Kersey by scatters of hay foraged to feed horses, waited for darkness to come, then the Federals crawled up closer and the sleeping men were partitioned out, so to speak, for Federals to kill. "Fire" was whispered, and eight guerrillas went

"over the range". The two sleeping apart jumped up and got away. E.J.Hawkins, and a White County man, Ike Gleason were the two get-aways. Hawkins was said to have declared that he meant to get even with E.D. when he met him after the Civil War. E. D. told me he met Hawkins in Texas but that Hawkins did not do a thing, not a word. After the Civil War E.D. went to Texas. During his youth, before the Civil War E.D. was a class leader in the Methodist church in Smithville, Tenn. He lead in prayer and was regarded as a model young man. But the war did for him what war has always done for young men - often all men, it opened the way for abandon and excess-drinking, women, profanity, etc. E.D. drifted. Let us hope in the last of his life he returned to sober contemplation and repentance. At heart E.D. was like most men, kind, considerate, affectionate. He wandered, so have all of us; We have all made mistakes that we would give worlds to undo. But we must brace up, make a brave fight, conquer our chief sin, we all have a chief sin, a dominant one, one which if defeated and put under foot, power comes to us to do and make the most of ourselves. But I must not grow didactic, this is a narrative paper.

Your uncle Stephen Moore Foster was a man of few words, great heart, sympathetic, the impersonation of honesty, fairness and courage. I do not think a braver man ever lived. He was for right always and ever. He could not be swerved from his convictions. Every brother he had, had the utmost respect for Steve's opinion on anything, nor did they attempt to change him. He was religious, kind, considerate, humane, slow to anger, but dangerous if attacked or violently opposed. He was peaceable and liked by those who really knew him. He was buried at Roseville, Ark. on the bank of the Arkansas River. His children now live in that section. Josiah Spurlock Foster, fourth son in father's family was always a weakling in body, and his mind was to an extent in sympathy. He was quick to take offense, petulant to a degree, impulsive, and disposed to be ironic, satirical. His volcanic out-bursts made him not so companionable, but he at heart was kind, unselfish and considerate. He made much money after the Civil War in the money brokerage business, buying up the old time bank bills of the Southern States. He gave his only sister anything she wished, regardless of price. He was a very competent trader. Later he settled down to the Foster trade, saddlery. He was a good, fast workman. His son Jesse Foster owns fine farms in west Texas. Joe died ten years ago at Fort Worth, Texas. He left a daughter, May Ella, married, Claude Foster and another son. Sarah Elizabeth Foster, only daughter, was one of the sweetest and best women who ever lived. She was right pretty, and very artistic. She could paint, could write a most beautiful hand, compose the best letter, a fine seamstress, could cut and fit clothes for any person, very popular, a Christian, neat, faultlessly so, and one of the best spirits ever on earth. She died triumphantly, malarial fever at first, then typhoid. 42 days ill. Franklin Pierce Foster, born about the time Pierce became president. We called him Frank. He was a fine spirit, brave, fair honest. Slow to anger, obedient to his father, kind to everyone, chivalrous with women. On his way home he was seized of congestion, the second shill was fatal. He is buried 14 miles from Fort Worth, Texas. He never married. John Vaux Drake Foster, was an infant when he died of mal-practice. My father always believed that a mistake was made by the Doctor. And here I am, the only remnant of my father's immediate family, like a goose barnacle I cling on to the old genealogical ship, not quite a hulk, nor yet a derelict, I hope. In good health, mind clear, sympathies intact, impulses good in the main, do not hate anyone, wish the world well, do not envy others, do not covet, doing everything I can to be content, work all I can for the same purpose, try to master my emotions instead of allowing them to master me. See much to love, little to despise, some to pity. I love the true, the beautiful, the good. I condemn the base, the ignoble, the dishonorable. I love the beautiful dead, my own, who helped me to build my own life, whose example was always good, inspiring and true, who stood by me 58 years and 20 days and departed for her house not made with hands - shall I give you her name? She was my beautiful, grand, good wife, mother of my seven children, Elnore Isabel Isaacs, the pole star of my life, my anchor, my guardian, my compass, my every-day inspiration, and now my magnet in the Eternal City.

Ernest, I wish I could see you; I certainly want you to succeed. This life is up to each of us, our fortune, our destiny perhaps. Your last Foster uncle wishes to keep in touch with you. Write to me often. In my next letter to you I will discuss my immediate family, my children. Let me hear from you. Having misplaced your address, I am handing this to Gladstone - known to Californians as Bill.

I am your uncle,

W J Foster

BUNCH Irene B. Keller, Rt 2 Box 140A, Minatare, Neb. 69356 - We are SCOTT searching for inf. for the John H. BUNCH family. We think he was married to Winnie Catherine SCOTT at Gainesville, Greene Co., AR in 1860. Their daughter, Mary Louella, said she was born there 27
Aug. 1861. John BUNCH was a farmer. George John Thompson BUNCH born there in 1863; Mary Louella only weighed 2 1/2 lbs at birth, and she had good medical care from a Dr. in Gainesville, AR.

In 1869, John BUNCH sold his land and property in Greene Co., and was in route to Ballard Co., KY with the proceeds of the sale, when he was ambushed, robbed, and murdered in Arkansas. It was close enough to Ballard Co., that his step-mother-in-law took the farm wagon and went after his body, & took it to Ballard Co., KY for burial. This happened probably in July or Aug. of 1869, just before my grandmother's birth on 11 Sept. 1869. It is impossible to get records from Greene Co., AR because of the Courthouse fires. We are looking for sources of inf. or vital statistics for this area and time in history, any suggestions, we will certainly appreciate.
John H. BUNCH's murder in AR was somewhere between Green Co., and KY line.
The BUNCH'S had property in Mississippi Co., AR in 1869 also.

WILLIAMS Mrs. Joseph E. Russell, 221 Greymon Drive, West Palm Beach, RALPH Florida 33405 - Wanter - any inf. about my grandmother
Susan Elizabeth (WILLIAMS) RALPH, early resident of woutheast Ark. Born in 1859, Where? Married in 1888 to Richard S. RALPH. Lived in Grand Lake, Readland, and Eudora, Arkansas. Son, James Lawrence RALPH; & daughter, Beatrice (RALPH) HAMMOND. Related to FORD, BRAWNER, and MAY Families all of Chicot Co., AR. 1st husband was a Mr. GILLET. Can anyone help with inf. about him? Need particulars on the entire WILLIAMS Family to complete my family genealogy. Will gladly exchange data.

RUFF Allene Coffin, 503 Circle Drive, Derby, Kans. 76037 - Enjoy our Arkansas Family Historian so very much, and have found it very helpful. In the April-June issue, page 85, Column 3, I believe that the name - D. P. RUPP shoul read D. P. RUFF. I have an affadavit he signed for Permelia Lee Jameson RUFF. This could also be verified by Helen Turney, P. O. Box 155, Harrison, AR 72601. No criticism - since I sent my chart, I have found a few errors.

EDITOR'S NOTE: This name probably was misspelled by the one who recorded the original list, as are many others names (be sure to look for many different spelling when you are doing research). Thank you Mrs. Coffin for bringing this to our attention, it may help many others in the future.

RUFF Would like to contact descendants of John RUFF, (S.C.) marri-GOODNIGHT ed Elizabeth GOODNIGHT, KY. Their children came to Searcy
Co., AR.: Pressley B, b. 1818; David Crockett, b. 1821; Henry Lewis, 1822; Jonathan W., 1823; Elizabeth; Cathern; Daniel Perry, 1830; Frances L.; Sallie (Susannah); Nancy Adeline, 1835; Mary Caroline, 1835.
Children were born in Giles Co., Tennessee, but married in Arkansas.
Spouse names include: ROBERTSON; CASH; JAMESON; MORRIS; HOLMES; McCUTHEON; ROBINSON; SMITH; & BROOKS. Will gladly exchange information.

MAXWELL E. H. Maxwell, 215 E. Cottonwood, Amarillo, TX 79108 - I need GOSNELL inf. - Scotland, Van Buren Co., AR. My grandfather, James L.
REYNOLDS MAXWELL, b. 1869, had 2 brothers: John & George; & one sister RILEY Dolly. Believe father of these children to be G. W. MAXWELL CHOAT & mother's name, Nancy (?). Nancy (?) was supposedly married PARNELL to a (?) GOSNELL, prior to her 2nd marriage to MAXWELL. Both parents of James; John; George; & Dolly either died or disappeared & children were supposedly raised by a family named REYNOLDS, but where?

James L. MAXWELL married Margaret A. RILEY in 1891, Scotland, Van Buren
AR.

Margaret RILEY'S parents were Hugh & Nancy RILEY. Need Nancy's last name. Possibly, Margaret's mother's name was CHOAT? Grandmother's name was PARNELL?

I have thoroughly renjoyed working with the Arkansas Family Historian & do very much appreciate the efforts of the entire staff.

Any inf. will be appreciated and I will gladly exchange with others interested in these lines.

ANY BOOKS Mrs. Virginia Begley, 2484 Mahan Way, San Pablo, CA 94806 - PUBLISHED ON I would like to know about any books that might have been SEARCY & published about Searcy & Van Buren Counties in Arkansas, that VAN VUREN may be for sale. I am searching in these two Counties for COUNTIES IN the surnames of: BEGLEY (BAGLEY); CASSNER (COSSNER); GILES; ARKANSAS? and hope there may be some Books already published that might help me. I will gladly share any inf. with others working on these lines.

WILHELM Wilma Brown Young, 4305 S. First St., Austin, TX 78745 - Can anyone help me with inf. on the Otto WILHELM Family that moved to Washington Co., AR from Missouri, between 1900 and 1910?

Or the Richmond BROWN family who moved to Johnson Co., AR from Mississippi between 1865 and 1870? I will appreciate any information on these people and will gladly share data with others interested in these lines.

LINK Mrs. Elizabeth Sallie, Rt. 3 Box 144, Cheney, WA 99004 - I like to find out where Christian LINK is buried in Pulaski County, Arkansas. He was found dead on a house boat on the Arkansas river 8 August 1883. I will appreciate hearing from anyone who can help me with any information. (Mrs. Elizabeth Gaisbauer Sallis)

CURBY Mrs. A. E. Quinn, Box 11, Tomball, TX 77375 - Nancy Ann CURBY KIRBY (KIRBY) married Samuel Reed MILLER, the son of Simon MILLER. MILLER Nancy Ann CURBY (KIRBY) is my husband's grandmother. I can find no word about her any place. In the census it shows: she was born in Virginia. Was in Arkansas in the years 1816 to 1824, then they came to Texas. Nancy Ann CURBY and Samuel R. MILLER had 2 children born in Arkansas, 1820 & 1822 & they may have married in Arkansas. Can anyone help me? I will appreciate any small clue and will gladly share with others working on this line.

LAFFERTY O. George Haskell, 940 S. Madison, La Grange, Ill 60525 - I have been trying unsuccessfully- for a very long time to obtain inf. regarding my Grandparents who came from Arkansas. Please! I will appreciate and gladly pay for any help. Austin LAFFERTY, b. about 1834, AR (but where?) died in Texas, married about 1863 (where?) to Harriet (?) b, about 1845 (where?) died in Texas. Children: Sallie, b. 1865; Jane, 1868; Mollie, 1869; Belle, 1870; Oma, 1875; Arnie, 1879 (all born in Ark.) This family lived in Ark. until about 1880 then moved to Texas. I realize this is not very much inf. but it is all I have! Any suggestions will be helpful.

HARRISON Hugh H. Harrison, 3808 Overland Dr., Del City, OK 73115 - My grandfather, Thomas Harrison (not sure of name), but my father, Benjamin Craven HARRISON, 11 Feb 1858 ('54 or '56 possibly -very dim copy) White Co., AR. In the census of 1880 shortly after his marriage to Francis AUTRY, his age was given as 22, which would make the date of birth 1858. The census of 1900 gives age 46, which would make the date of birth 1854. His death certificate gives his age as 72, which makes the date of birth 56.

1860 Census for White Co., AR shows a son of 2 years, in the home of Thomas HARRISON, named Binji. My fathers name was Benjamin (Binji is the only person whose name fits my father). I will certainly appreciate any inf. on this family, descendants or ancestors.

Since retirement from the Oklahoma Conference of the United Methodist Church, I have time to pursue this.

HULING Nannette Whitney, 108 Pershing Place, Monroe, LA 71202 -

RUYLE Sylvia Goodson, 1226 Hopkins Ter. N. E., Atlanta, GA 30324 -
I seek Family BIBLE or other records of Solomon RUYLE, who was in Lafayette Co., AR in 1830 and in Texas in 1840. He was son of Henry RUYLE, SR., who left a WILL in Sumner Co., TN in 1790. Any help will be appreciated...just a small clue will be helpfull.

McKINNEY Boyce J. Porter, Box 1004, St. Augustine, Fla., 32084 - Can PENNY anyone help me locate the date & place of birth & parents of my grandfather, James Thomas Whitehead McKINNEY, also known as "Big Jim" McKINNEY. Family tradition is that he was born in Texarkana, AR about 1855-1858, his father's name was Thomas, and had a sister Anna. The earliest record I can find for him is July 1874 when he married Margaret Angeline PENNY (my grandmother) in Colorado Co., TX. The 1880 census of that county lists him living with Hugh SHERIDAN & his wife, both from Arkansas, and the 1900 census gives his residence as Coryell Co., TX where his five surviving children: Major John; James Novel; Ben; Sam; and my mother, Hallie Beatrice, lived with him on his farm. He died Jan. 1924 in Waco, TX. All census index's (1850 & 1880) for the southern states have been searched, each county where the index listed a McKINNEY has been followed through both the 1860 & 1870 census, and both county and court records in RX have been checked. Records list his birth place as TX, ALA, TN, MO as well as Arkansas. He is said to be part Cherokee. I will appreciate any and all leads or suggestions.

TURNAGE Kaleta K. Livesay, Rt. 1 Box 136, Griffithville, AR 72060
LAMPLEY Dillard TURNAGE, b. 1837 S.C. came from Chesterfield Dist.
KIRK to Prairie Co., AR with wife, Sarah Jane LAMPLEY TURNAGE, b. 1845 N.C., and my grandfather, John Wesley TURNAGE, b.
14 Nov. 1867, and before birth of 2nd son Henry, 1869. According to the 1850 S.C. census, Dillard's mother was Lavinea, b. 1800, S.C., her children: Eliza, 20; William H. 17; Thomas F. 15; Dillard, 13; & Alonzo, 10.
(1860 lists her with Dillard 23 & Peter (Alonzo?) 21); Thomas F. with wife Harriet, b. 1843, GA; children: Marrita; Wesley; Reuben; Presley & Allice lived in Prairie Co., Hickory Plains, Township, 1877, 1878, 1879, & 1880 1900 Soundex lists Peter TURNAGE, b. 1839 with wife, Harriet, children:
Maggie & John in Marlboro Co., S.C., probably the one brother who stayed in S.C. Who was Dillard's father? Sarah Jane married E.C.W. KIRK, Feb.
1882; she had a brother, John Thomas LAMPLEY, who lived in Prairie or Lonoke Co., AR. Dillard died after 1877, buried Butlerville Cemetery (now Lonoke Co.) No marker now, only one LAMPLEY marker among several grave depressions. Appreciate hearing from LAMPLEY descendants on ancestors, or anyone who has inf. on grave location, he was Confederate Veteran. Any TURNAGE inf. sets me dancing for joy.

NOTE: Recently was lucky enough to see a trunk (yeilded some 1878-80 letters that set me and another HOLLOWAY researcher on cloud nine).
This is my first year with the ARKANSAS FAMILY HISTORIAN....love it!

HANCOCK Joe Saville, Jr., 237 1/2 Broadway, Cambridge, MA 02139
ELLIOTT There seems to be a family connection between the HANCOCK/SISKS ELLIOTT and the SISKS. I know there is a large number of SISKS in Kiowa Co., OK and that Martha, my great great aunt married my great grandfather's father in law after his wife or wives passed away. Very confusing! Anyway I suspect that the SISK, ELLIOTT, and HANCOCKS either all went to Oklahoma together or were intermarried from Arkansas or Texas. It's a long shot, but if anyone is connected in with the SISK family, I may be able to run down some inf. in Oklahoma when I visit my parents again.

James Dawson HANCOCK, b. ca 1849, AR & died ca 1899, Grayson Co., TX, married Ada ELLIOTT, b. ca 1869, AR, died ca 1906 Grayson Co., TX. James probably married before 1887 in AR.

Mattie HANCOCK, b. 9 Sept. 1887 (dau. of James D. HANCOCK) married (?)
Messick, and they were the parents of at least one daughter, Leah Bee HANCOCK, b. 5 Feb. 1897, Grayson Co. TX, married 15 Aug. 1915 to John R.
SAVILLE (divorced 1924) she later married Douglas M. Phillips. Can anyone please help me? I will appreciate even a small clue.

Robert Dawson HANCOCK is supposed to have had 2 brothers and 2 sisters:
Robert HANCOCK, was 18 during Civil War and was wounded, was a carpenter and helped build the Court house in Little Rock (may have been an uncle, rather than brother?). William (Billie?) HANCOCK, carpenter, lived in TX.
Electra HANCOCK married Willie O'NEAL (well to do salesman, & lived in Ft.
Worth, TX, parents of 2 children. Maggie HANCOCK LONDON, had 3 children.

KIRKPATRICK Mrs. Goldie (Kirkpatrick) Fuller, 330 East Steed Dr., Midwest ity, OK 73110 - I am so completely fascinated with my copies AFH that I wish I had become a member of the society long ago.

The only inf. I have on my grandfather was in the 1900 census for YELL County, AR (Galley Rock Township). Head of house: William Washington
KIRKPATRICK, born 1847, AR; wife, Sarah Vienna (McLain) KIRKPATRICK, b.
1857, Indiana; dau. Nancy Belle, 1882 AR; son James Valentine "Tine" 1882
AR; son Heseekiah "Hese" 1885 AR; (my father) Otto Mercellis "Otto", 1887, AR; son George Celby "Selby" 1890, AR; Fredrick Jerome "Gerome" 1893, AR;
Charley Sylvester, 1899, AR.

My grandfather's mother-in-law, Nancy J. McLAIN, was also living in this household at this time. My father mentioned another sister, Maggie Arona KIRKPATRICK, not listed in the 1900 census.

MC LAIN My grandmother, Sarah V. McLAIN was the dau. of James V.
MORRIS McLAIN and Nancy Jane (MORRIS) McLAIN. James V., had a brother, named Austin.

Nancy Jane also had relatives in Toledo, Illinois in 1909. Some names were Kansas (?), Mona (?), and Logan (?). These were all mentioned on a postcard I have that was written by Kansas (?) a neice to Nancy Jane in Chickalah, Yell Co., AR in 1909, Dec. 24.

My father, Otto M. KIRKPATRICK and my mother Bertha Lee (CAMPBELL) were married in Yell Co., AR 22 August 1915.

My grandfather, William Washington KIRKPATRICK, died in October 1914, and is thought to be buried in Spring Creek Cemetery near Havana, Yell Co., AR.

My father mentioned another brother, & son of William Washington KIRK-PATRICK, from a previous marriage) that was sent to prison for bigamy and died while incarcerated. He was known as "Dink".

It has also been mentioned that the KIRKPATRICKS were intermarried with the GANTTS and GRAYS.

When my father, Otto, and my mother, Bertha, were married in 1915, father was living in Chickalah (not known, whether with his parents or not).

Would like to know where William W. KIRKPATRICK was born? Who were his parents? Where were they born? and if William W. had brothers or sisters?
Where that all lived prior to 1900? Where and from what did James Valentine; Heseekiah; Maggie Arona; Charley Sylvester died? and if they left descendants?

I can share inf. on Nancy Belle KIRKPATRICK, Otto, George Celby "Selby", Fredrick Jerome "Gerome" and their descendants, if anyone is working on those lines.

I will appreciate any help, any small clue, or suggestion. I had so hoped to get something compiled before my parents passed away, but failed to make it, but I have not given up! Please help!

NOBLE Mrs. Emma Harris Hughes, 1409 N. Humac St., Pine Bluff, AR GRAVIER 71601 - Desire inf. concerning my NOBLE ancestors. Needs to HARRIS know if her great grandfather, John NOBLE, had any brothers RAGSDALE & sisters. Would like to correspond with any descendants or HUGHES anyone with knowledge about this family. Baptismal record shows, John NOBLE, b. 3 June 1798, to Mark NOBLE and Cath-ine ELLIOTT. He married Frances GRAVIER, 1827. He discovered NOBLE LAKE in Jefferson Co., AR., and it was named for him, after his family settled near the area. Mrs. Hughes descends from his son, another John NOBLE, who married Drucilla Jane RAGSDALE, and Mary Elizabeth NOBLE who married William Creed HARRIS. Traditional has it, the NOBLE Family came from France through Tennessee by river to Arkansas Post, where the Baptismal Record was made on 11 May 1799, by the Spanish Priest, Pedro Janin. The NOBLE LAND Certificate
3666, dated 5 Sept. 1842, was signed by John Tyler, President. On 24 April 1820, it was shown to be 160 acres, and more was added later. Please help!

HOPKINS Mrs. R. P. Hickman, 209 Hornbeck Ave., Mena, AR 71953 - My COPE father's great grandfather, Benjamine Franklin HOPKINS was WILLIAMS born near Chattanooga, Marion Co., TN (the Sequatchie Valley) SIMMONS 4 Dec. 1808, died 28 Nov. 1884. He married Judith COPE. My father's father was Louis Anderson HOPKINS, and he married a WILLIAMS and had four sons; he later married Elizabeth SIMMONS, and they had nine children. My father was the oldest, his name was John HOPKINS.
He was born in Tenn. At the age of three years, they moved to Greeley, CO and he helped settle the Greeley Colony. He is buried in the Lyn Grove Cemetery, Greeley, Colo.

To the best of our knowledge, the first HOPKINS that we can trace came over on the ship "Mayflower", his name was Stephen HOPKINS. I have a copy of his WILL, also copies of at least twenty five other HOPKINS men.

I would like to correspond with others working on the HOPKINS line.

PHILLIPS Mrs. Della Y. Guise, P. O. Box 915, Grants Pass, OR 97526 - NATIONS I am desperately seeking inf. on my PHILLIPS ancestry. My BROCK grandfather James Marion PHILLIPS, born 24 June 1872, Walker TOWRY Co., Alabama. He married Kizzie Isabelle BROCK (when?). His parents were James Matterson PHILLIPS, b. North Carolina. I have searched for the county or town, but to no avail, and Nancy NATIONS, all I know of her is that she was born in Walker Co., Ala. and died in childbirth, "somewhere" along the Arkansas River on the move from Ala to Arkansas.

My grandmother's parents were Thomas BROCK, b. 23 June 1823, died 22 Mar.
1907, buried Vandervoort, Polk Co., AR Mary Jane TOWRY, b. 5 Dec. 1841, died 18 June 1916, buried Vandervoort, AR. I have some inf. on PHILLIPS which I will be more than glad to share with anyone interested. Can anyone tell me if Witherspoon Cemetery or Foote Cemetery at Vandervoort, Arkansas have been inventoried? If so, how could I get a list? I am very anxious to contact anyone who has an interest in any of the above families. Also thank you for such a great magazine.

NOTE: I will gladly do research in my area for anyone who needs help. I have access to the JOSEPHINE COUNTY records and some in JACKSON COUNTY, OREGON. Please send S.A.S.E (Self addressed stamped envelope).

GINKINS Jo Ann Jenkins Adams, P. O. Box 255, Warrenton, Oregon 9146
JENKINS I am interested in any inf. about my Great Grandfather, MINOR William A. GINKINS. The following inf. is all I have:
HILES William A. Ginkins of Little River Co., AR died 21 January 1889. He was in Captain Bellamy's Company, Florida Militia, Florida War, no dates on the War. I believe he was married 3 times. I have a copy of a document deeding property to his heirs. His heirs included his widow, Mary Jane, guardian of Obadiah Ginkins (my grandfather b. Feb. 1880), M. E. Minoe (wife of John T. Minor), Fannie Minor (wife of E. T. Minor) Daniel Hiles of Cooperville, TX (all heirs of Bettie Hiles, presumably William Ginkins' daughter) also W. B. Ginkins, Mary Wood and Eliza Cooper of Webb City, Arkansas. (Franklin Co., AR). I don't know if the W. B. Ginkins is William B. Ginkins or Warren Boston Ginkins, there is some doubt as to whether there were 2 boys or if the name was just mixed up.

I do have copies of the documents where I obtained the above inf. and I would be happy to exchange inf. with anyone interested. I will appreciate any help.

FULFORD Patricia E. Funk, P. O. Box 132, Sweet Home, AR 72164 - I
SEYMOUR will share any inf. that I have on any of these families, I ROCHELLE am researching: FULFORD; SEYMOUR; ROCHELLE; & HOPKINS on my HOPKINS mother's side and PARKER; MILEY; STANTON (?); WILSON (?) on PARKER my father's side. These people lived in North Carolina, MILEY England, Jamaica, Mississippi, Tennessee, Alabama, Michigan, STANTON (?) and Arkansas.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS Harris F. Botsford, Royal Garden Estates, Lane 5 Box 227
Bradenton, Fla. 33505 - I am one of eight disabled veterans in six states who have volunteered to help update the burial records of Confederate Veterans, on file, at Richmond, Virginia. Each of us pays his searching costs from his own pocket, so we are in no position to pay fabulous prices for out of print books, but that seems to be where some records are.

I am the grandson of two Union Veterans, and a member of Sons of Union Veterans, 1861-65, Memorial Post #300, York, Penn. I am a disabled Navy Veteran World War II, wounded twice, with 36 months combat duty, 19 of which with the 3rd Marine Division. I am also an honorary member of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, and would assume someone had done a grave search on the National Cemetery in Little Rock, AR. Can anyone tell me if this has been done?

I have had very good cooperation from Wisconsin, Indiana, Ohio, New York Maryland and Delaware so far, but very poor response from any department in the State of Illinois. I will be deeply in your debt for any help on the National Cemetery in Little Rock, also Ft. Smith, Fayetteville, and any other Cemetery in Arkansas, with Confederate Veterans buried there. Please help, if you know the grave site of any Confederate Veteran, in Arkansas.

GOULD Joseph H. Gould, P. O. Box 715, Sarasota, FL 33578 - I am trying to get sufficient inf. on the Military Record and the life of William E. GOULD, to apply for a government copy of his War Record. I have his birthdate as 1828, TN; that he served in Cabbel's Brigade, C.S.A., and also with Price; that he married Elizabeth PATTON and an inference he was still living in Bentonville, Benton Co., AR in 1889; and that he served in the Ark. State Legislature after the War.

I need to know where he lived after his War service was over and where & when he died and where he is buried. Please help!

FLETCHER John L. Fletcher, PSC Box 4307, APO New York 09283 - I am trying to identify my great great grandfather, who was known as "Major" FLETCHER. Presumably, he was born in Little Rock, AR around 1830, served in the Arkansas forces in the Civil War and after the War settled in Logan Co., AR near the town of Chismville. The only sibling of the "Major" that I can positively identify, is my great grandfather, John Paul FLETCHER who is buried in the Landmark Cemetery near Chismville. Unfortunately, this is all the inf. I have.

I am writting with the faint hope that based on the above very superficial inf. and with hopes that some of the readers of AFH can help me with even a tiny clue. I will appreciate any help and will gladly share with others interested in this person.

STELL Kermit Stell, Box 514, Sturgis, South Dakota 57785 - Seeks PYRON proof acceptable to the D.A.R. of ALL, repeat ALL the children of William PYRON, the Revolutionary Soldier, whose children later migrated toward the West. Will also exchange data with anyone interested in the names shown. I've been researching 25 years and have a considerable ma-erial available on these Ashley County, Arkansas names.

COX Nannette Whitney, 108 Pershing Place, Monroe, LA 71202 - James Thomas COX, b. 7 Nov. 1875. He was killed in a sawmill accident & buried at Shady Grove. He was the son of Sarah (?) & John COX. James T. married Mattie BARHAM, b. Oct. 1875. Who were her parents? When did she die? When did she marry? Mattie B. & James T. COX had 2 sons: Sidney, b. Nov. 1896; & Vic, b. Jan. 1900. Need any inf. on them, & will gladly exchange data.

HOWARD Also need help on Mary Ann HOWARD, dau. of Melinda & Bridges

CATES homa City, OK 73122 - Will appreciate any help and will glad-EDDINGS ly exchange data. Searching for the parents of three sis-MORGAN ters and their brother and the husbands (if the ladies married) and any of their descendants. 1870 U.S. Ark. Census: Joseph Martin MORGAN, Sarah J.; Nancy A.; and Elizabeth (all four and their parents were born in Kentucky. In 1880 U. S. Ark. Census, Independence Co., Nancy A. MORGAN was listed with my grandfather, Joseph Martin MORGAN, his wife and their three oldest children. (In both 1870 & 1880 Census they were in the Healing Springs Township and this is now in Cleburne Co., AR.) Please help!

MOORE Irene L. Moore, 4732 Cotton St., Apt. 3, Indianapolis, Indiana 46226 - My grandfather Jerome Bonaparte MOORE, b. ca 7 Nov. 1858, AR. Possibly near Hot Springs, AR, son of John & Maria (or Marida) MOORE. There were 3 children older than my grandfather: DeWit, 14; Olive, 11; and John, 4.

My grandfather's parents apparently returned to their previous home in Indiana soon after Jerome B. MOORE was born, because he appears in the 1860 census of Switzerland Co., Indiana. His father does not appear in that census although his mother does. Can anyone help me with these records? Did John MOORE die in Arkansas? where is he buried? I will appreciate any help!

HARDY James Hardy, Rt. 4 Box 110, Menomonir, WI 54751 - I am trying WELLS to locate inf. regarding my grandfather & great grandfather FIKE who lived in Arkansas, and Missouri. Grandfather was James Arthur HARDY, who married to Nellie WELLS. Great grandfather was James HARDY who married to a Gina FIKE. James & Nellie married 25 Jan.
1909 in Pascola, MO. Grandfather & greatgrandfather moved to Arkansas and were living in Trumann, Poinsett Co., AR in 1924. They worked for a box making factory or barrel making company. Both belonged to Woodman of the World Ins. Co. (or Society), and they were also members of Red Gunn (spelling?) Camp # 486. Can anyone help me find birth, death, or property records or any other inf.? I will appreciate any help on these people or their ancestors or descendants, and will gladly share data with others.

LAFFERTY Hattie Kearby, 2613 McKinley Ave., Ft. Worth, TX 76106 - I WOODY would like to learn the name of my great grandfather! His GODFREY son was Austin James LAFFERTY, born 2-10-1834, Washington Co., AR., he married Mary Harriet WOODY, at Marion Creek, AR.
Grandfather has two sisters: Margaret, born 7-6-1830; Mary married John GODFREY. I feel my grandfather was in the family of John Lindsay LAFFERTY, born 2-20-1794. He was the 1st County Judge of Virginia. The other children's names were: Elizabeth; Margaret; Henderson; Austin Binks; and Lorenza Dow, born 1806. (These are the children of John LAFERTY, born ca 1759 in Ireland, died 1815 & is buried at Lafferty Creek, Independence Co., AR (or Union Township, Independence Co., AR). Many LAFFERTY are recorded in the Methodist Church record, also the Military records.

MILLER Coralee Paull, 8001 Posiline Dr., St. Louis, MO 63105 - I am SWANK seeking inf. (parents, place of marriage, etc.) of: Amanda MILLER, b. 24 Dec. 1831. From census inf. Benton Co., AR 1870 (shows she was born in Ark.) married David SWANK, 14 March 1849 but where?? Amanda and David's 3rd child was born in Phillips Co., AR 1853 (according to Bible records).

It is believed that the father of Amanda was Jacob (in this family, one member "Uncle Jake" really had the name John), but Amanda's father was referred to as Jacob. Can anyone help me?

I will be happy to share my rather extensive collection of MILLER notes, of Arkansas and Southeast Missouri.

David Swank was born in Hardin Co., KY. Quite possibly Jacob MILLER was from there also. A Martha MILLER married a Jake SWANK (possibly a sister to Amanda). Please help!

WHITE proof of death of Frederick William HANCOCK (or William Frederick HANCOCK) who died 14 Sept. 1880...and his wife Martha Sue (possibly maiden name WHITE) HANCOCK, who died 5 Jan. 1869. They may have died in Pulaski Co., AR, but were buried in Old Austin Cemetery in Lonoke Co., AR I would like to correspond with others working on the HANCOCK and related families, I have a great deal of HANCOCK inf. which I will gladly share or exchange with others.

YOUNGBLOOD Mrs. Jack Bowman, P O Box 162, Carlsborg, WA 98324 - Seeking SHAHAN inf. on my great grandparents, William YOUNGBLOOD and Dora SHAHAN of Green Forest of Carroll Co., AR. Had a daughter Mellie D. YOUNGBLOOD, born March 1885. Any inf. will be appreciated and I

VINCENT Betty Moss Chaney, P. O. Box 18462, Houston, TX 77023 - My great great grandfather, John VINCENT was the son of James VINCENT, who was born in Pope County, Arkansas 24 Feb. 1858 and after two years moved with his parents to Dyer Co., Tennessee.
John VINCENT was killed as a result of a disagreement ii October 1862 in Pope County, Arkansas. I would like to find out when he was born and exactly where in Tennessee. I have also heard there is a VINCENT newsletter published...can anyone tell me about that? I will appreciate any help on this family, especially John VINCENT.

NOTE: You might like to contact the Societies in the area of your interest, many great contacts have been made thru the large memberships in each group. You might ask about back issues, etc. These various groups have been publishing either Quarterlies (or other publications for many years) and many of the articles have been researched (and later other facts have come to light, and another article has been written). You might also like to mention these Societies to friends who may not know about them. Memberships make great gifts! You might make a great friends by just mentioning them to an interested person.

Atlanta, Ga., Library Aids Handicapped in Research

In Atlanta, Ga., Diane Dieterle, busy mother of five, is volunteer director of the Genealogical Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, a non-profit corporation that provides genealogical instruction and materials through the mail to blind, deaf, or otherwise handicapped persons interested in genealogy.

It is the only genealogical library of its kind in the world, and was begun three years ago. Following a suggestion by a member of the Paralyzed Veterans of America, and realizing the need of those who cannot have access to record depositories and libraries because of their disability, Mrs. Dieterle opened her library to prove that, no matter what your physical condition, it is possible to work on your family history.

She uses a teletype machine with a telephone for communication with deaf persons, and proudly showed a recent visitor a family tree completed by one library patron who is both blind and deaf, showing four or more generations.

Those eligible to use the services of the library include the visually impaired, the hearing impaired, and the physically handicapped — those in wheelchairs, on crutches, braces, or a walker, or homebound because of accident, illness, or old age. To use the facility patrons must register with the library and pay the $5 per year library charge, plus 25 cents per package of books ordered, to cover the cost of mailing. There is no charge for borrowing materials in braille, large print, or on cassette. The library has no microfilms to loan.

Not only does the library cater to mail patrons, but it is open to the public, being structurally accessible to the handicapped. Doors are 36 inches wide, it is on the first floor, and it has restroom facilities. The library (at 15 Dunwoody Park, Suite 130, Atlanta) is open Wednesday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., and on Thursday night from 7 to 10 p.m. Though the library is primarily for the blind, deaf, and physically handicapped, all are welcome to use its facilities.

At the moment there are 181 printed census indexes in the collection, as well as 5,000 regular print genealogical books, pamphlets, and magazines, and a surname file of 16,000 names in the card catalog. A genealogical correspondence course is offered for a fee of $2 which leads to a certificate for completion of each of four parts. The library has staff who will put letters, certificates and other documents into braille, large print, or cassette for patrons at no charge, and video tapes of genealogy lessons in sign language are available on loan.

Mrs. Dieterle also edits The Genealogical Gazette, a quarterly genealogical magazine in large print, cassette tape, or braille, which is published for $10 per year and contains articles, queries and advertisements.

A dedicated genealogist of some 20 years experience, and author of three published family histories, Mrs. Dieterle also teaches genealogy to the non-handicapped, holds genealogy workshops, and is a volunteer genealogical consultant to the regional archivist at the Federal Archives and Records Center in Atlanta.

With the aid of other volunteers she runs the library through the mail now on a fairly small scale, but she has plans for a $5 million library to be opened near Atlanta in 1981 which will include every facility imaginable for the handicapped; and the very latest equipment in library services, with money to be procured through a fund-raising drive. The library will have a residential building attached to it for overnight accommodation.

For more information or registration with the library, either for yourself or someone you know who would be aided by its services, send SASE to Genealogical Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, Inc., 15 Dunwoody Park, Suite 130, Atlanta, GA 30338.

Mrs. Diane Dieterle, Director Genealogical Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, Inc.
4176 English Oak Drive
Doraville, GA 30340

Dear Mrs. Dieterle,

Thank you for making it possible for me to register with your Library.

Please find enclosed my registration form. You will note that I mention my daughter as being cerebral palsyed... I would like to help her get into the act, so to speak, in regard to the genealogy work I am now involved in, so we can make it a daughter and father project. In doing so, I hope to broaden her interest and help her to overcome her main problem which is being emotionally handicapped.

It is wonderful to find that there is a library on genealogy that is for the Blind and Physically Handicapped. Out here on the West Coast, there are many fine libraries that have much to offer... but if architectural barriers are a problem, making use of their facilities is difficult if not, impossible. This lack of access, I'm sure, is not a new problem to those of us who due to our own particular problems are eligible to use your services. I, for one, am most appreciative of this offer you have made to us of the Handicapped spectrum.

My Sincere Thanks and Best Regards,

Clare Gould

 EDITOR'S NOTE: Our many many many thanks to Chalman Green, formerly of Batesville, AR & now of Mt. Vernon, Washington, for this long Index again this 1979 year. He had already started the first 2 issues, and then moved-and volunteered to finish the entire year!! That is a good friend to AFH!!!
 AND OUR MANY MANY MANY thanks to James L. Morgan, for typing all these many names again this year & turning them in for our December issue, to both these men we really do appreciate all this very valuable work.
 REMEMBER You always receive your AFH on time, if we know where you are!
