FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

Dear Members:

It's early January as I write this, so let me extend best wishes to each of you for a great 1984!

Plans are in full motion for the March 17 seminar, and we are eagerly anticipating another large turnout. Pat Bennett has again arranged for an excellent program for the day, as she did for the Fall Seminar that was so well attended.

Plans are also being made for the future. One of our objectives is a concerted effort to include more varied information in the Arkansas Family Historian that will be of benefit to all our members.

There are also plans underway for our 25th anniversary, which will be here very soon; for the participation of the Society in Arkansas' 150th birthday celebration; for special publications; and much, much more.

You will also be receiving newsletters from time to time to let you know what is being done and containing notices of interest to you. Please feel free to contact those Board members working in the area you need. They will be more than happy to assist you whenever possible.

The Board has discussed the possibility of holding workshops to help those just beginning in genealogy. If you are interested in this type activity, or interested in participating in any such workshops that may be scheduled, do let me know.

Many people have contributed to this issue, and we publicly thank each of them for their generosity in sharing information for our members. Keep in mind that this is your organization. Your contributions and participation are solicited and encouraged.

Best regards,

Margaret Hubbard, President

IN MEMORIAM

Remembering a friend

We only had the privilege of knowing W. E. Bailey of Enola in connection with his consuming interest in historical things. In that, we found him well informed, interested, and interesting and a quiet resource for the people of Faulkner County. It is possible that many folks were unaware of his efforts to preserve the knowledge of our past and its physical remnants.

He could — and did — become indignant at vandalism of a historical marker, yet in the associations in which we shared an interest, we found him a gentle man who liked to talk, but who also liked to listen.

We will miss his occasional visits to this newspaper; more importantly, we will miss the contribution he was making to the preservation of our past in Faulkner County.

Mr. Bailey was a long-time member of the Arkansas Genealogical Society, and will be greatly missed.

BIOGRAPHICAL SCETCHES
THE ARKANSAS HOME
LONOKE, LONOKE COUNTY, ARKANSAS

The Arkansas Home published it's first edition on June 1, 1879, but immediately discontinued publication with the outbreak of the Yellow Fever in Memphis. The Editor assumed the duties of publishing the Lonoke Democrat and finally was able resume publication of the Arkansas Home on October 18, 1881. The extant issues of this newspaper, covering a period of thirteen months, are on microfilm at the Arkansas History Commission. The following sketches were extracted from that film.

HON. W.F. HICKS

This gentleman was born in Anderson county, Tennessee, in 1824, he came with his father to Arkansas in May 1836, before the state government was organized and stopped at Little Rock, then a small village. In 1837, he went into the Times-Advocate printing office, then owned by John Reed and Albert Pike; a short time afterwards Budd, Colby & Steak became proprietors, where he remained as a printer boy until 1841, when he went into the Gazette office, conducted by W.E. Woodruff, Sr. In 1845 he commenced the study of law under Ebenezer Cummins; in 1846 he went to Mexico in Capt. A. Pike's company of Arkansas cavalry - Gov. A. Yell commanding the regiment; after his return from that country, he went into the farming and milling business, in Pulaski county, south of Little Rock, where he was burned out, losing every thing; when he went to Ft. Smith, and worked in the Fort Smith Herald office for a short time; he then went into the mercantile business as a clerk. In 1852 he sent to the Choctaw Nation, merchandising until 1854, when he went to California with a drove of cattle for Bennett & Walton, merchants of Ft. Smith. After arriving in the land of gold he worked at the printing business in Sacramento and Marysville, at the latter place he bought an interest in the California Express, where he published a Daily, Weekly, and Semi-Weekly edition of the Express, until the close of the war in 1865 - he having been arrested for disloyalty by military authorities, and detained as a prisoner on parole for three years, as soon as he was discharged he sold out his interest and returned home in May 1866 - on his way hither he was robbed of everything he had except a three cent piece. He went into business with his brother the late lamented I.C. Hicks. He was elected to the Constitutional Convention in 1868 from Prairie county, with R.S. Gantt as his colleague; was elected to Legislature in 1868 by 596 majority, but was not allowed to take his seat by the carpet-baggers. He commenced the practice of law in 1873 and was elected to the State Senate in 1874.

JOHN LAKE BLACK

The subject of this sketch was the first attorney to hang out the shingle here after Lonoke county was made. He was born in Holly Springs, Miss., in 1850, his father Dr. Black, coming west soon after, settled at Searcy, Arkansas. After the war, "John," as he is familiarly called, went to Little Rock, where for two or more terms he attended St. John's College, the military institution of the Masonic fraternity. He read law under Chief Justice English, and the Supreme court being in session, in 1871 he applied and was admitted to the practice. A few days afterwards he was recommended and received the appointment of Attorney for Pulaski county, which office he held until he moved to Lonoke in 1873 or 4. Mr. Black possesses considerable of the "cacoethes scribendi," and writes fluently. He corresponds for a number of paper (sic) over the non de plume of "Bohemian." He is affable and courteous, and perhaps knows as many people in the county as any man in it. As a lawyer with energy and application he has a bright future before him. His address to juries is usually better than to the bench, as he often grows eloquent and his remarks are sweeping His perception is quick, judgement is firm, and in his speeches his sarcasm (sic) is bitter. "John" has in him a heart as big as a church house, and as we have heard it remarked is universally popular.

COL. JOHN HALLUM

Col. Hallum was born in Sumner county, Tennessee, in 1833, and educated at Wirt College Tenn., and was admitted to the bar at Memphis, in May 1865; practiced law in that city until July 1870. He was a Douglas elector, and took an active part in the presidential campaign preceeding Lincoln's first election, entered the confederate army, but was discharged soon after because of physical inability, part of the time was on Gen. Pillow's staff. In 1870 he removed to Little Rock, and in the fall of the same year located in the practice of his profession in the city of St. Louis, where he enjoyed a lucrative practice until 1874, when he took up residence in Colorado, from which state he moved to Lonoke in 1876; entered in partnership with Mr. Jno. C. England, which was dissolved about a year since. Col. Hallum has acquired quite a handsome fortune in his practice most of which is invested in rich mining lands in Colorado. This gentleman is very decided in his convictions, jovial in nature, and liberal with his means and interprising, fond of work and enjoys life in season and out of season, (hard times or no hard times.)

HON. GEO. M. CHAPLINE

Mr. Chapline was born in Greenville, S.C., in the year 1849; moved to this state and settled in Crittenden county, in 1867 returned to his South Carolina home a few years after, where he remained until 1873, when he located at Little Rock. When the new county of Lonoke was created by the legislature that year, he was appointed by Gov. Elisha Baxter, clerk of the county, which position he filled until the adoption of the new constitution in 1874, when Wm. Goodrum, the present incumbent of the office, was elected as his successor. Mr. Chapline studied law at the University of South Carolina; was admitted to the bar by the Supreme court of Arkansas, in 1875. He began practice in Lonoke that year, as the partner of Mr. Thos. C. Trimble. Since the residence of the subject of this sketch in this place, he has filled important positions of trust; first Recorder, Alderman and Mayor of the town, and next one of the representatives in the legislature, which trust he now holds and to which he was elected September 1879. Mr. Chapline is small in stature, very unassuming in manners, agreeable in companionship, and eloquent in speech.

JUDGE THOS. C. TRIMBLE

Judge Trimble, the subject of this sketch was born at Holly Springs, Mississippi, in 1848, reared in Sumner county, Tennessee, where he spent his school boy days in the school of the beautiful little city of Gallatin. He studied law under Judge Adams at Jackson, Mississippi, where he was admitted to practice in 1873. He came to this state in 1875 and entered at once into a paying practice. Mr. Trimble made the race for Prosecuting Attorney for the sixth judicial district, and was nominated and elected to the office in 1878, which trust he filled very creditably for two years. During his residence in Lonoke he has presided on the bench as special judge on several different occasions. His rulings have always been clear and strictly to the letter of the law. This gentleman is fast taking position among the bar of the state and higher honors await the coming years.

JNO. E. ENGLAND

Mr. England was born in January 1850 at Brownsville, Ark., where he was raised. In 1863 when the Federal army occupied this country, his mother, like many others, was stripped of everything in doors and out, and the burden of supporting a family was then thrown upon him, although he was but thirteen years old. He succeeded in earning a sufficiency to keep the wolf from the door for two years, when the war stopped and his older brother Ed. returned home. "Cal." was then engaged in running a full size peanut stand and confectionery at Hick's station. He then went to Little Rock where he engaged in business for a year, returned to Hick's station when J.E. England & Co., opened out, to work for them. He only clerked there a short while and went to Hickory Plains to school and a year later at Brownsville. In 1868 his money giving out, he quit school and went into the law office of Gantt & Bronaugh at Brownsville, paying for his board by writing. In a short while these lawyers removed their office to DeValls Bluff, whither he also went. In 1869 he applied twice to Judge John Whytock for admission to practice, but owing to his youthful face, the Judge enquired (sic) his age, and learning that he was not twenty-one refused to appoint a committee to examine him. In 1870 he applied to the Supreme court for license, was examined and admitted without any questions about his age. He was only two months passed twenty years old. After this he was taken in as a partner by Gantt & Bronaugh, the style of the firm being Gantt, Bronaugh & England; until Mr. Gantt withdrew, on account of his removal to Little Rock. The firm then remained as Bronaugh & England which year Mr. England removed to Lonoke and dissolved the partnership. His newspaper experience begins with a partnership with Edwin Bancroft in the publication of the DeValls Bluff Liberal, in 1870. It only required a few months to "bust" him as Bancroft was busted when he was "taken in." In 1872 Geo. Emack and him (sic) started the Prairie County Democrat at DeValls Bluff, where it was published for six months, when he removed the office to Lonoke changing the paper's name to the Lonoke Weekly Democrat, Emack retiring. He remained in charge as Editor of the paper until January 1, 1878, when he retired, devoting his time to the law practice. He is a large real estate dealer, and by this has accumulated a snug competency.

Jan. 28, 1882, Page 1, Column 1

ELBERT OLIVER

The subject of this sketch was born in DeSoto county, Miss. in 1841. His father, Maj. Simon Oliver, was one of the pioneers of that state, having moved there from Georgia in 1834. Mr. Elbert Oliver was educated at the State University Oxford, Miss. At the breaking out of the war he enlisted in Company D 1st Regiment Mississippi Infantry; served with that command until July 9, 1863, when suffered the fate of the gallant band of heroes that defended Port Hudson. After being properly exchanged, Mr. Oliver was transferred to Gen. Forrest's command as 1st Lieutenant Company K 18th Mississippi Cavalry; was shot through the right foot in a cavalry charge on the 29th of November 1864, when Forrest cut the Federal line at Spring Hill, Tenn., his foot was amputated that night. Fell into hands of the Federals at Franklin, when Hood fell back from Nashville; remained in prison until close of war. Immediately after war ended, married and commenced farming which vocation he followed until 1876, when he commenced reading law under Hon. O. McKenzie of Hernando, Miss. When in due time admitted to the bar with license to practice in any or all courts of the state. Having visited our state in December 1881, and being well pleased with our town and people, he has cast his lot among us. He was admitted to the practice of law in our courts by the term of circuit court just closed.

Jan. 28, 1882, Page 1, Column 1

DR. LEMUEL H. HALL

This gentleman was born in Covington, Tipton county, Tennessee, Dec. 16, 1830; moved to Hernando, DeSoto county, Miss., in 1840. In 1849 he served as assistant post-master under F.S. Lathan at Memphis, Tenn., until Jan. 1851, when he returned to Hernando, Miss. and was appointed post-master at that place. Having read medicine for two years previous to going to Memphis, he again resumed that study. Married in 1853. In '58 attended medical lectures; following year commenced the practice of medicine with his father, Dr. Joseph G. Hall, in Chelsea North Memphis. Graduated in the Memphis Medical College March 1st, 1861. Secession being rife and war threatening, he returned to his old home in Mississippi. Being an old line whig and a great lover of the union, opposed secession until war was inaugurated, when he enlisted in company "D" 1st Mississippi Infantry; was elected first lieutenant, and served as such until commissioned surgeon of the regiment. Was taken prisoner at Ft. Donaldson and carried to Mound City, Ill., where he had charge of the Confederate sick and wounded, until June, '62, when he was exchanged, went into the Kentucky campaign as surgeon of the 9th Miss. infantry, Chalmer's brigade, (Dr. J.S. Oliver surgeon of the 9th being disabled.) Was captured with his sick and wounded at Danville, Ky., having been exchanged, he was assigned to duty as surgeon of Gen. W.N.R. Beals' brigade at Port Hudson, La., when was again captured. After his release, was assigned to duty as surgeon of Bells' brigade, Forrest's cavalry; served with that command until Hood retreated from Tennessee, when he was assigned to duty as chief surgeon of Chalmers' cavalry division, which position he held until the close of the war. He returned to his old home, Hernando, Mississippi; engaged in the practice of medicine until Dec. '70, when he moved to Prairie county, Ark; moved to this place February 1881, and at one entered into a lucrative practice.

Notes

1. The earliest record of Robert Carpenter found by this researcher is in the 1840 census for Henderson County, Tennessee, where he appears as head of a household consistant with the above bible record. He is also listed in the 1850 census in Henderson County with his wife Matilda and all of the children appearing on the second page of the bible record. Only one book of land records survived the Civil War days in Henderson County; it contains a record where Robert Carpenter sold 250 acres of land to Edmond Gawf; witnesses John A. Criner and Elias Goff. This deed is dated 8 October 1851 and recorded 8 January 1856. Adjoining property owners were Stephen Hefley, Jackson Petty, Daniel Mayberry, Edmond Gawfs, and James Long. I believe Robert Carpenter was running a store at the time of the 1840 census as his occupation was categorized as "trade or manufacturing". Evidently he left Henderson County after 1851 and before 1856. By the beginning of the Civil War the entire family had settled at Maxville in Lawrence (now Sharp) County, Arkansas, where they and many of their descendants remained.
2. Thomas M. Carpenter married Rebecca Clements by whom he had one son, Francis M. Carpenter, born July 1862. 1st Lieut. Thomas M. Carpenter, 21st Ark. Infantry died June 19, 1863. He had been among the wounded left at Corinth the preceeding winter, was captured and imprisoned at Iuka, Mississippi, where the records show he recovered from his wounds; he died immediately after recovery. This researcher does not know his cause of death or burial place.
3. On some records Sarah appears as Sarah A. It is not known what became of her.
4. James Harden Carpenter with wife Eliza are listed in Sharp County, Arkansas in 1870. See bible record for their removal to Childress, Texas.
5. Rodise Carpenter married James Deavenport. In 1860 they were living in Ash Flat, Arkansas, and James was teaching school. At that time they had a one year old son, Charles H. Deavenport. Later children were Daniel, Mary, and James R. Rodise was a widow by 1880.
6. Edmon Carpenter married Mary Debbie McCord Campbell, daughter of Joseph M. McCord of Maxville. Their children were Joseph Robert, Nancy M., Isabell, James F., Horatio, Clarend A., Filmore, and perhaps others. Most of the Carpenters in the south part of Sharp County descend from this family.

7. Martha Jane probably married a Shirely and is the mother of John Clayton Shirley of the bible record. If so, she must have died soon after his birth as he would not otherwise have been raised by his grandparents.
8. Mary Carpenter married a Mr. Anderson from Poukeepsie, Arkansas. After his death she made her home with her nephew Joseph Robert in Cave City where she lived for many years known affectionately as "Aunt Mary". She is buried as "Aunt Mary" in the cemetery at Maxville beside her brother Edmond.
9. The only known record of Henry Carpenter is in this bible and the 1850 census.
10. This and the following two entries are evidently grandchildren who Robert elected to enter in his bible. Other grandchildren are not entered. Mary Jane Devenport may have been a daughter of Rodise (who would have been 15 years, 2 months, old at the time of birth). Otherwise, she must be the daughter of Sarah which is entirely possible.
11. As this entry is immediately following Mary Jane Devenport and at the time would have been on a page with no other entries, this researcher concludes that the full name should be Stepen Robert Devenport. In any event, no record of either child has been found outside of this bible.
12. All entries up to this point have been in the same handwriting, evidently that of Robert Carpenter, and in the old-fashioned style known as "round". This entry is in the beautiful Spencerian style used by both Thomas and Edmond Carpenter. James Clayton Shirley was raised by his Carpenter grandparents.
13. Unfortunately, there is no year date on this entry. There is a John Criner (Jr. and Sr.) as near neighbors in Henderson County, Tennessee. One of them witnessed the deed when Robert sold out there. This researcher has not been able to establish the connection between the two men.

Mrs. Davenport states her line of descent from Robert Carpenter is through Edmond, Joseph Robert, Joseph Austin, and that response to this record will, hopefully, help her fill in the gaps, some of which are from fires in the courthouses of both Henderson County, Tennessee and Sharp County, Arkansas. She is also researching the CROWNOVER lines, among others.

Mrs. Davenport was a new member of Arkansas Genealogical Society in 1983.

SANDERS/SAUNDERS RESEARCH - Bobbie Jones McLane

As a result of Mrs. Fletcher King's material on Sanders/Saunders, which we have been using in the AFH, I received a letter from Mrs. Louise C. Ryan, 3086 Westridge Dr., Kelseyville, CA 95451, who is researching a Perry line. Nancy Elizabeth Perry married Jesse E. Sanders in Clark Co., Ark. 7-24-1861. Mrs. Ryan sent additional information on Jesse E. Sanders' service. He was a private and a bugler, discharged Sept. 1, 1864. His date of birth in his pension application papers was 11 Dec. 1842 at Saline Co., Ark. He married Nancy Elizabeth Perry, 25 July 1861 in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Clark Co., Ark., Richman Cole, Minister. He stated he had been married only the one time, and listed the following children:

J. A. Sanders 3 May 1862
G. E. Sanders 4 Jan. 1865
J. H. Sanders 29 Dec. 1866
E. B. Sanders 20 Jan. 1868

Mrs. King wrote in Sept. of this year and hopes that this Sanders series will bring forth more information on John L. Sau/Sanders, as she still does not know what became of him, where he or his wife were buried, and what became of his daughter, Sarah, born ca 1832 in Tennessee (1850 census Saline Co., Ark. She tried in vain along with the late Frances Bowles to find out whether or not she married and if so, to whom. She adds the following on John L. Sau/Sanders and his family:

Hamlin Sau/Sanders was buried in Mt. Harmony Cemetery in Traskwood, Arkansas.

Julius Sau/Sanders was buried in Traskwood Cemetery, Traskwood, Ark. and died about 1903.

Although the family thought Julius did not marry, he did indeed have two wives, according to her research:

- m. 1st Elizabeth Page (born 1839) on 1-20-1871 (Hot Spring Co., Marr. Records)
- m. 2nd Mrs. Jane Jones 12-21-1881 in Saline Co., Ark. Marr. Records.) (Jane Jones born 1837) Security Hamlin Sanders.

One of the above marriages has Julius spelled "Insious", but we believe this to be mis-reading of the "I" and "J", which is often difficult to decipher.

Mrs. Delaine Edwards of Modesto, CA had written in 1979 that she was interested in a family listed on the 1850 Hot Spring Co. census, Prairie Township, family #362:

SANDERS/SAUNDERS RESEARCH - Bobbie J. McLane

Sanders, Daniel	30 m Ky farmer
Elijah	77 m SC "
John M.	20 m Tenn
Lurana	15 f Mo

Her information based on family tradition was that Elijah Sanders (wife's name unknown) had four sons: the oldest, Elihu, was born 1814, followed by Ben, Daniel and John. It is said that Elihu left home in Georgia as a young man and followed his school teacher to Tennessee in order to complete his education. There he met and married Lucinda Brown ca. 1836. Though Mrs. Edwards has been unable to prove it, she believes they are the Elihu Sanders family on the 1840 census of McNairy Co., Tenn. Elihu and his family arrived in Van Buren Co. AR by 1843 and remained there the rest of their lives; both he and Lucinda died there in 1891.

Of Elijah's son Ben, the family story only says that he "was a 'wealthy' man who never married." Her Sanders, in the later generations used the same names over and over again and one of those is Benjamin Holloway Sanders and she suspects that this Ben may have been a Benjamin Holloway as well.

Elijah's son, John, it is said, "was killed by a negro slave near Hot Springs Ark. He was returning the slave to its owner; was stabbed with a knife while giving the slave a turn at riding the horse. The slave was hanged."

The family stories told nothing of Daniel. They say that Elijah "went to live with his son and daughter-in-law near Hot Springs, Ark. when he was a very old man. He died there - was found dead in his bed one morning when the daughter-in-law went to waken him."

A marriage was found in Hot Spring Co. for Daniel Sanders, 29, of Clark Co. (not found on 1850 Clark Co. census) to Elizabeth Coffman, 20, Dec. 23, 1852. She believes this Elizabeth may have been a daughter of Andrew and Anna Coffman, family #390 on the 1850 Hot Spring Co. census.

The 1860 Hot Spring Co. census shows (Antioch Twp.) page 16, family #138:

Sanders, Daniel	50 m Ky farmer
John N.	7 m Ark

1870 Hot Spring Co. Mortality Schedule lists: John H. Sanders, 18, male, born Ark. died March, whooping cough (Family #86)

The 1850 Hot Spring Co. family #367 of Elihu Sanders, age 63, is not Mrs. Edwards Elihu, though she has felt there is probably a connection between that family and the family #362 living nearby.

This Elihu Sanders was born in NC, about 1787, according to information in 1850 census of Hot Spring Co., Ark. In 1810, he was living in White Co., Tenn. and acquired lands there, as did Reuben P., George W., and Elijah or Elijah B., all thought to be his brothers. They lived near each other and all seem to have moved to Lowndes Co., Miss. about the same time between 1820 and 1830. The tax records of White Co., Tenn. for 1816, show him paying on one white poll and 100 acres of land. (One white male over 21 years old). Also listed in the tax records for White Co. that year are Reuben,

SANDERS/SAUNDERS RESEARCH - Bobbie J. McLane

George, Elijah, and a James Sanders who might also be a brother to Elihu.

The 1820 census of White Co., Tenn. shows: Elihu Sanders, head of household
Males under 10 years of age - 3
Males 26 to 45 - 1 (This would be Elihu)
Females under 10 - 1
Females 16 to 26 - 1 (Elihu's wife)
Females over 45 - 1 (Probably the mother of Elihu or his wife)

In this census, I think the daughter would have to be Catherine, and that the three sons were Elihu (Jr.), George W., and one probably named Jackson. It may be George B, instead of George W., since we think this is the brother Catherine was living with in Clark Co., Ark. in 1850, and his name is shown in that census as George B.

The 1830 census of Lowndes Co., Miss. page 75, shows in family headed by Elihu Sanders:

Males under five	1 (we think this is Jemison)
Males 5 to 10 -	3 (Probably Jackson, Daniel and ?)
Males 10 to 15 -	2 (Probably Elihu, Jr. & George W.)
Males 50 to 60 -	1 (Elihu)
Females 15 to 20 -	1 (Catherine)
Females 40 to 50 -	1 (Elihu's wife)

The 1840 census for Lowndes Co., Miss. lists Reuben, age 40-50; George W., age 70-80; and E. B. (Probably Elijah B.) age 50-60; all thought to be Elihu's brothers, but no listing is found for Elihu. He must have still been living in Miss. at that time, since in 1850 he lists William H., then age 9, and the next two older children, as being born in Miss.

1850 census of Hot Spring Co., Ark. Prairie Township, No. 367:

Sanders, Elihu	63	NC
Margaret	38	Tenn
Lucinda J.	17	Miss
Henry C.	11	"
William H.	9	"
Jesse E.	7	Ark )
Elizabeth	7	" ) twins
James A.	5	"
Levi M.	3	"
Thomas F.	1 mo.	Ark.

The youngest child, Ann, evidently was born some time after 1850.

It is probable that all of the children shown in the 1850 census are the children of Margaret, but not definite as to Lucinda J. This is Lucinda Jane, who married Sterling Coffman, whom we believe was a brother of Elizabeth Coffman who married Daniel Sanders. It is probable that Margaret's age was listed incorrectly, and that she was actually only about 30/31 in 1850. Tradition is that she married Elihu when she was only about 12/13, and this would correspond with the age of the oldest child, Lucinda, who appears to be about 6 years younger than the youngest of the older set of children, and is further supported by the fact that when she married Levi Spencer in 1865 after both were widowed, she gave Catherine among the the older, if not the oldest, of the children of Elihu Sanders. All information indicates she was born about 1816 in Tennessee. She was married July 8 1833, in Lowndes Co., Miss. to Charles C. Keeton. The marriage record shows Elihu Sanders as her father.

Presumably, Charles C. Keeton died prior to 1850, and Catherine moved to Ark. The 1850 census records of Clark Co., Ark. show in one family group in Cedar Twp., D-85:

Sanders, George B.	32 Tenn
Keeton, Catherine S.	34 Tenn
Charlotte Keeton	15 Miss
William Keeton	10 Miss
Mary Keeton	8 Miss
Sanders, Daniel H.	24 Miss
Sanders, Jemison	23 Miss

Sometime between 1850 and 1860 Catherine appears to have married Jesse Will (Clark Co. Marriage Bk. C-p.295 - Jesse William 62 of Hot Spring Co. to Catherine Keeton, 39, 22 Dec. 1853) The 1850 Clark Co. census shows:

Williams, Jesse	70 Va
Catherine	45 Tenn
Lucinda C.	6 Ark
Margaret A.	4 "
Sanders, Jesse	18 "

The 1860 census does not mention any of the Keeton children, but the young would then be about 18, and they could all be married then, if living. The Daniel Sanders, Jemison Sanders, and Jesse Sanders all are known to be the children of Elihu Sanders, and their ages, at least as to Daniel and Jesse, are known to be approximately as shown above. Daniel and Jemison were Catherine's full blood brothers, so far as is known, and it is rather definitely established that Jesse was her half brother.

The survey of Hicks Cemetery was done in early summer of 1983 by Eileen Lasiter Poss, Rt. 2, Box 76, Cabot, AR 72023.

According to Mrs. Pank Ford, daughter of Samuel B. Hicks, the first person to be buried in Hicks Cemetery was an infant of Howell W. Hicks and Angie Rebecca Hicks in early 1860's. This grave is not marked.

Many graves are not marked. Mrs. Myrtle Justice helped us get some names of people buried in unmarked graves.

SPENCE

The following material was submitted by Russell P. Baker, 6525 Magnolia Drive, Mabelvale, AR 72103, who would like more information on this family.

ABNER SPENCE was born about 1789 in either Camden or Pasquotank counties, North Carolina. He was the son of Edward Spence and had at least two brothers, Mark and Jordan Spence. He received some land from his grandfather, Greaces Spence, in Camden County, N.C. about 1802. He married for the first time about 1806 and is listed in the 1820 U. S. Census of Camden County with four sons, ages one to sixteen, and four daughters, ages one to sixteen, and a wife of about his own age. He sold his land in North Carolina and moved to Madison County, Tenn. about 1821 where he lived near his brother Jordan. A few years later, he relocated to Haywood County where he settled near his brother Mark. He was living here in 1830 with a household composed of three sons and three daughters. The census seems to indicate that his wife had died. Soon after 1831, Abner moved his family to Polk County, Missouri, where he entered lands in Polk and Greene counties with Charles Spence, perhaps a son, and Peter Apperson in 1837. The 1840 census of Polk County shows Abner with two sons and three daughters and a wife about his own age. The 1850 census is the first which gives the names of any of Abner's children: The 1850 U. S. Census, Polk County, MO

D#158/158

Abner Spence	60	N.C.
Luck Spence	20	Tenn.
Abner T. Spence	19	Tenn.
Nancy A. Spence	16	Mo.
William S. Spence	14	Mo.
Ester Spence	12	Mo.

His second wife seems to have died by 1850. About 1853 he remarried. This time to Nancy Amanda, the widow of Solomon H. Stanley, one of his neighbors. About 1858 Abner moved his family to Franklin County, Arkansas, and settled on a large farm five miles northeast of Ozark.

In Arkansas this family's name was often spelled "Spencer" as can be seen in the entry for Abner in the 1860 census:

The 1860 Census, White Oak Township, Franklin County, Arkansas

D# 267/268

Abner	Spencer	72	N.C.
N. A.	Spence	39	Ala.
J. N.	Stanley	14	Ark.
Fletcher	Stanley	10	Ark.

James	Spencer	3	Mo.

Abner Spence died on May 8, 1865, in Franklin County, Arkansas. No burial place for him has been located. His widow and the two youngest children seem to have left the area about 1875.

SNOWBALL CEMETERY
Searcy County, Arkansas

Snowball, Arkansas (Searcy County) is located 12 miles West of Marshall on Hwy. 74 West. In 1887 when the name of the post office was being changed from Calf Creek, a request was sent to the Post Office Department in Washington to change the name to Snowhall, but when the papers came back, the name had been approved as Snowball.

This survey was researched and prepared by Bobby Mays and her mother, Ira Cash.

Arkansas Genealogical Society has recently received a donation of some five plus years issues of publications by the Weld County, Colorado, Genealogical Society. These will be catalogued, bound and placed on file with our books at the Little Rock Public Library. I am sure all will enjoy seeing this contribution to our collection.

This contribution was made by member Iris M. Jones, P. O. Box 334, LaSalle, CO 80645, and we certainly thank Mrs. Jones for her generosity and for caring and sharing.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT: The Don Francis Collection

EDITOR'S NOTE: Much time and thought has been spent (by several persons) on this collection. Mr. Don Francis, 426 E. 85th Street, Apt #5-C, New York City, N.Y. 10028 has sent large boxes (pre-paid) of material he has xeroxed from his files, several different times, to our ARKANSAS GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY. This material has been grouped into several (many) books, some are so large they needed to be bound in hardcover, others have been bound in velo-bind covers. As much information, as time and energy would permit, has been listed here! These books are now on the shelves, at the Little Rock Public Library (2nd Floor - GENEALOGICAL)

ARCHBISHOP'S PALACE, QUEBEC

Quebec, December 17, 1908

Rev. J. A. Kirouac

Parish Priest of St Malachy,

Dear Sir,

I learn with pleasure that you are going to publish shortly the history of your parish St Malachy. You will thereby imitate the good example already given by several priests of the diocese who have agreeably and usefully employed their leisure time in doing a similar work, and have thus saved from the unavoidable ravages of time, annals that are often precious and traditions of great interest.

All those who follow closely the development of our province according to the double standard of material and spiritual advancement will be happy to learn how your parish was colonized, what sacrifices it cost the first pioneers to clear their lands, what devotedness and activity the missionaries had to display to make of his poor region the important and flourishing parish of St Malachy.

Your work, Monsieur le cure, will do good no doubt to your readers; it will make them admire the courage and virtues of their ancestors and help to make them love more than ev their native country.

Accept, dear monsieur le cur, the assurance of my entire devotedness in Our Lord.
†L. N. ArchBP of Quebec

Pope County Historical Articles, Book 4, compiled by J.B. Lemley, 1120 N. Detroit Ave., Russellville AR 72801, softback, indexed, 215 pages, $20.00 postpaid.

This is an absolutely marvellous potpourri of short articles about Pope Co., Arkansas, its citizens and events around the turn of the century. Many of the excerpts are from the Russellville Courier-Democrat newspapers of that era, and all offer fascinating glimpses into local history and the families involved.

In a random selection of some of the article titles I find: "Uncle Jimmie" KELLEY - Sailor, Scout, Soldier and a Russian Prisoner in Siberia Coal Mine; Pioneer Baptist Church est. 1833, Reminiscence of Early Days; The Reign of Terror During Reconstruction Days; Present and Former Communities and Towns in Pope County (211 are listed); 1870 Personal Property Tax; Dardanelle & Russellville Railroad (railroads are Mr. Lemley's specialty); Pisgah Cemetery; and hundreds of other such sketches. Readers with Pope County connections dare not ignore this series!

NOTES AND QUERIES

This section of our publication is set up to contain questions the members may have in regard to 'lost family' members. It is not intended to contain all the information you have on your Arkansas family. That can be published in another section. Please limit your query to about 50-60 words, but send as many queries as you like of this length and we will publish as space permits.

Always give full name of family member, an approximate date, and a location. These are more likely to result in a response. Few people will respond to a "Jones in Arkansas." Please remember that our organization is not set up to do your research. We cannot tell you if your ancestor Doe was in a certain county at a certain time without doing the same type of research that you can do on your own. We are set up to publish your query, if you're a member of the organization (Membership: $12.00 per year), and we will publish your bible records, your cemetery records and any other source records which might be of help to other people and who, in turn, can contact you if he/she is interested in the same family.

Address your queries to ARKANSAS FAMILY HISTORIAN, Rt. 6, Box 238, Hot Springs, AR 71901.

ANDERSON Mrs. Vera S. Rock, Rt. 5, Box 362, Spokane, WA 99208 seeks information concerning Carroll D. Anderson, born in Tennessee, living in Hemp County, Arkansas, Redlands Township in 1850 Census. In 1860, he and family are found in Navarro County, Texas. Sons were listed as Henry, Joseph, Lewis, William and David. Daughters were Matilda, Mary and Martha. Who was wife of Carroll D. Anderson? (You might check Civil War records in Texas for a lead on this family; the father and the older boys probably served in the conflict. Any child dying after 1912-14 would most likely have a death certificate in which ever state he died in and this might reveal the name of the mother. Navarro County Cemetery Records (in many libraries) might have some of these people.)

DOLLARHIDE Mildred Gray, Box 219, Winslow, Arizona 86047 asks about Sevier County records. Asa Dollarhide died March 23, 1845 in Sevier County, a left children - James, Rebecca, Manerva, Nancy Cornelius, Andrew and Pleasant Samp Dollarhide. Ms. Gray would like to contact any Dollarhides in southwest Arkansas.

MCCALL Mildred Gray (address above) seeks information on Hugh McCall who married Rebecca Dollarhide in 1841 in Sevier Co. They became parents of two sons, Pleasant Moment McCall, born ca 1846 and Hugh McCall, Jr., born ca 1848 (Again, a search of the Civil War records should reveal service of some of these parents.) The 1880 census records of the children (any of them) should give birth states of parents.)

CALDWELL Bob Van Dyke, 2006 Breckenridge Drive, Little Rock, AR 72207 asks for data regarding Richard Everett "Doc" Caldwell, born in Pike Co. Arkansas in 1847, enumerated in household of A. J. Caldwell in 1850 in Pike. He enlisted in U. S. Army at Louisburg in Conway Co. 6 Aug. 1864, under the name of "Richard Jack Caldwell". He married on 11 Nov. 1869 to Lucrea Elizabeth Weaver in Van Buren Co. Was the "Richard Jack Caldwell" in Pike Co. in 1850 a connection to Andrew Caldwell, early pioneer of Hemp County? Where was this family in 1860? (Do you have his Civil War record? Is that where he learned the alias? Check the 1880 census for other information.)

CAUBLE Reba Hughes Torres, 1405 Humac, Pine Bluff, AR 71602 wishes to find information on Mary R. "Mollie" Cauble born 1838 in Texas who was daughter of John W. Cauble, born 1816 in Tenn. and Eliza Chaney, born 1816 in Virginia. Eliza Chaney Cauble later married a Stuckey. Cauble married _____ Hughes. She had a son, Benjamin McCullough born 1860 in Texas and a daughter named Liza. Mollie Cauble Hughes later married Capt. Jackson Puckett and had one child, Allie Puckett. (There seems to be no Arkansas connection, and a query in a Texas publication would probably be better.)

COZEAN Mrs. H. E. Holter, 5400 NW Cherry St., Vancouver, WA 98663 needs

What is an SASE? It is a "self-addressed, stamped envelope" and is an absolute must when you write to an organization such as ours and wish a rep.
If you write to an individual, again send an SASE. It is a cheap advantage you w have and it's an expensive amount for the one who has nothing to gain for its use.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE WATTS FAMILY, 1817-1954, by James Earl Watts. This is a small family history beginning with the grandfather, Joseph Andrew Watts, who was born December 12, 1817 in southern Michigan and lived there all his life. He had four children by his first wife, Sarah Frederick, who died in 1851.

James Earl Watt's father, Huron Deforest Watts, was the eldest of seven children by the second wife, Abigail Houghton. He was born March 30, 1853. In 1876 Huron D. Watts left Michigan and traveled through Indiana looking for a new home. He finally settled in Arkansas County, Arkansas. Life on the prairie land is described in detail, often telling how things were done at that early date. That was before railroads and supplies were brought in by boat to St. Charles on the White River.

Huron was married July 18, 1877 to Catherine Rosier. They rented a farm around timberland. James Earl Watts was the second of seven children born to these parents. The history tells of daily life and adventures of the children, even with a very mean goat. They moved to Iowa in 1901.

This is a very interesting and folksy family history. It was donated by Bill D. Morgan of 5201 N. 7th Avenue, Phoenix, AZ 85013.
