President's Page

Since my term of office as president of AGS will conclude at the end of this year, this will be my final President's Page. Although the deadline for this column often "snuck" up on me, I have enjoyed having a forum to ramble about what interested me or whatever I felt was important in the field of genealogy and, particularly, Arkansas genealogy. I can only hope that what I found to be of interest or important coincided with what you, the reader, found to be of interest or importance!

AGS has continued to grow and prosper and improve in the two years I have served as president, but the credit for that growth, prosperity and improvement can be more accurately conferred on the many people who do all the work and invest so much of their time in AGS, rather than being credited to anything particularly astounding or innovative that I personally did. I particularly credit AGS' continued success during my tenure to Desmond Walls Allen, Bobbie Jones McLane, Margaret Harrison Hubbard, Russell Pierce Baker, and all the other hard-working, dedicated members of the AGS Board of Directors, as well as many other members who made important contributions.

Without willing volunteers, no organization will prosper for long. It is not enough merely to sit on the sidelines and belong to a genealogical society or to attend meetings. We're all too busy for our own good these days, but each of us should strive to choose at least one organization to which we can make a contribution. Each time I have volunteered (or displayed a lack of resistance when drafted), I have ended up enjoying the experience, as well as learning something. Furthermore, my interaction with the other people involved has generally turned out to have been a positive experience.

So—I guess in my final moments on this "soapbox," I'll leave you with a message exhorting you to get involved and make a contribution. Serve as an officer or in some other position in your local society; let AGS know what we can do to serve our members better, then help us do it; write up at least part of your family history (with good documentation please!) and share it with the rest of the world—either photocopy it or print it, to share with relatives, or send it to an appropriate organization for publication; volunteer to help out at your local genealogy library; pass on genealogical research methodology you've discovered or learned; volunteer to help less-experienced genealogists, either one-on-one or as a teacher or lecturer; help clean up a cemetery or form a cemetery association to protect that cemetery in the future; organize a family reunion; transcribe or index a census or some other record group, to publish or at least place in your local genealogy library.

There's no end to the number of things you could do to help genealogy and/or genealogists. When you think of all the things other genealogists have done to help make your research easier, better, and more interesting, you'll know it's your turn to make a contribution.

And the funny thing is—it may begin as a chore, but the end result will be a positive and rewarding experience for YOU.

Good luck with your genealogical pursuits and thanks for making my tenure as president a pleasurable one.

Carolyn Earle Billingsley
AGS President

Guilford Courthouse National Military Park

Information Wanted by U. S. Park Service

Guilford Courthouse National Military Park is actively seeking information on any participant who fought in the Revolutionary War Battle of Guilford Courthouse in North Carolina on March 14, 1781. Men from Rhode Island, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Georgia, South Carolina and Virginia fought there, not just North Carolinians. The information may concern an ancestor or a soldier known by an ancestor.

This information gathering program has been an on-going historical research project for many years and has produced a growing card file containing the names of more than 75% of the estimated 4,400 Americans who fought in the Battle of Guilford Courthouse. There is also an interest in the names of any of the British and German (Hessian) soldiers who fought in the army of Lord Charles Cornwallis. Fewer than 20% of the British and German soldiers are known. The information form below may be used, or it may be copied and the copy used instead:

BIBLE RECORDS OF THE FAMILY OF BRUNETTA W. COULTER

Town of Lockesburg in Sevier County, Arkansas

Submitted by Robert W. Worley, 1208 W. Elm St., El Dorado, AR 71730

Ida Margaret Coulter Stone gave me loose pages from a Coulter Family Bible in the Spring of 1992. In July of 1992, at the Coulter Reunion in Nashville, AR, she loaned me the Family Bible of Brunetta W. Coulter to study and add to family information I am compiling. This Bible had been preserved and rebound years ago by John W. Coulter of Ashdown, AR. Verda Coulter, his widow, passed the Bible on to Pearl Coulter, her sister-in-law, to keep with other records of the Tom S. Coulter family.

On comparing the copies of the loose pages with the bound Bible, it is evident information in the Bound volume was originally copied from the collection of loose pages. All the information included in the loose pages was copied to the bound volume except one entry as follows under DEATHS:

Sarah Props, Mother of Polly D. Burton, departed this life 28th ----1860 at 4 o'clock A.M.

The bound volume contains additional information not included in the loose pages. Inconsistencies in the bound volume and loose pages are minor and consist of spelling errors such as:

Mathew--Matthew
Kearney-Kerney
Wesly-Westley
Pickton-Picton

One error of note occurring in transcribing to the bound volume was the year Polly D. Props was born. It is listed in the bound volume as 1824 when the loose pages use the date of 1805. I took the liberty of correcting my typewritten transcript to the year 1805.

WILLIAM E. BURTON AND EDGAR A. POE.

VOLUME V.

FROM JULY TO DECEMBER.

By a gentleman, we mean not to draw a line that would be invidious between high and low, rank and subordination, riches and poverty. No. The distinction is in the mind. Whoever is open, just, and true; whoever is of a humane and affable demeanor; whoever is honorable in himself, and in his judgment of others, and requires no law but his word to make him fulfil an engagement;—such a man is a gentleman;—and such a man may be found among the tillers of the earth as well as in the drawing rooms of the high born and the rich.

PUBLISHED BY WILLIAM E. BURTON,

DOCK STREET, OPPOSITE THE EXCHANGE.

1839.

We have thought it right to give publicity to the following very intelligent letter, lately written by a settler to his mother, in St. Giles, London, on account of the valuable statistical information it contains.

Catchum's Shallow on the little Red River
Arkensaw April 1838.

My dere Muther,

Yer mustent wander if you havnt herd of me for some time, but grate grefe is dumb as Shaxpire, and I was advised to hop my twig and leaf old ingland, which indede i was very sorrowful, but now i am thanks gudnes saf, and in amerrykey, i hardly no ware miself, but the hed of this will tel my tail. I ham a sqwatter in the far wurst, about 1/2 a-mile this side of sundown, an if i ad gon mutch father i shud av found nothin but son, and no nite at all. You kno how the hummeggrating Agent tolde me that if peepel cudnt live in Sent Gilses ammerkey was capitle to dy in; besides ses he if youre not verry nere you can ade yure mother in distres, so i went aborde a ship that was going to Noo Orlines. Ive herd peepel tawk abowt rodes at C but the rodes on the atalantick is the very ruffiest i evir rode on and it was very long an very cold an we had nothin 2 heat hardly, but we founde a ded rat in a water cask witch the flavur was grately increased thare-by. at last we cam to the arbur at the city of Noo Orlines witch is all under the bottom of the top of the rivver and we ad a ankering to go a-shore. I ad no idear as the rivers was so hi in this contry, but as the assent is so very easy i didnt fele it at al. The noo orlines peepel is odd fishis and not at all comun plaice; wen all the peepel in the streets is musterd it is a pepper and sault poppulashun, there is blak wites and wite blaks an a sorte of mixt peepel caled quadrunnts because they are of four colors blak, an wite, an wite blaks, an blak wites. Has the rivver is so verry hi it is always hi water, an the munnifold advantiges of the citty dipends on the gudnes of its banks. there is loks in em to let water out and keys to kepe it in. munney ere is very common and is called sentse, and everything is cheep in Noo Orlines 5 dollers bills being only worth 2 dollar. We went up the rivver in a large bote like a noise ark only more promiscus. the current acount was against us. it dont turn and turn again like putny bridg, and as it runs always won way i wonder it dont run away altogethir. Thire is no towns nor tailer shops nor pallisses as i expectorated there wood be. the wood was all quite wilde not a bit of tame no ware nor no sines of the blessedniss of civilazashun as jales and jin shops nor no kitching gardins nor fields nor ouses nor lanes nor alleys no gates nothin but alleygators. after a grate dale of settlin i settled to settle as above ware you will rite to me. These staits is called the united staits becawse theire mails and femails all united. there's six of them wimmin staits. 2 Carolines, Miss Sourry, Missis Sippy, Louesa Anna, an Virginia, all the rest is mails. i have sene no cannibels and verry few ingins besides steam ingins they're quite unhedduated and dont emply no tailers. I dont like fammin mutch but praps I shal wen i get used to it, tho it is very ilconvenient at furst. I am obliged to wurk very ard and if i have to chop my one wood much longer i han determined to cut my stick.

Dere muther, i think i shud be more comfortable if i had a few trifels witch you culd bye me, if yew wud only sel something, and send me all of the bills particklar, and i'll be sure to owe it to you--namly sum needils and thred, and sum old buttens, but thens of little use without you send me sum shirts, and a waistcote, and upper cote, to put them on, when those thumbles off thats on when you sends em, and some brads, and some hammers to drive em with, and a spade and a pickax, an a saw, and sum fish hooks, and gunpowdr, an sum shot, witch they will be of the gratest conveniency, if you can send me a gun. Ilkewis som stockins, an shues and other hardwears, only its no use to send me any bank nots, for my nerest naybours is some ingin wagswams above 70 miles of, an i cudnt get change thare, so dont forgit some led, and some bullit moldes, for some blak fellers has bin fishin close by, jist within 10 miles an I wants to have a pop at em with luv to all youre dutiful son

Sam. Stroller.

General guidelines for submitting queries:

- 1) Queries are limited to members only
- 2) Please submit no more than one query per calendar year
- 3) Keep the query to approximately fifty words
- 4) Neatness counts! if possible, type, double spaced. Otherwise print legibly, leave a space between each line
- 5) Capitalize Surnames

Remember the 4 W's:

- Who - Give complete names of interest
- What - What do you want? Keep it short and to the point
- Where - LOCALITY IN ARKANSAS?
- When - Give a time period

Since we always work with a large backlog of queries, we strive to print them in the order in which they are received. It may be several months, however, before your query appears. We do use all queries received in a calendar year before the end of that year. We continue to receive queries with no name and address included. If query gets separated from the envelope, we cannot use them. It simplifies the work of the all-volunteer staff of this publication if you send your queries with your membership fee, to the Arkansas Genealogical Society, PO Box 908, Hot Springs, AR 71902-0908.

Blount County, Tennessee Chancery Court Records Book O and Book 1, 1852-1865 by Albert W. Dockter, Jr., 172 pp., paperback, 1992, $17.50, plus $3.00 shipping. Published by Heritage Books, Inc., 1540-E Pointer Ridge Place, Suite 300, Bowie, MD 20716. Book O, dated 1852-1859 begins the record keeping for Chancery Court in Blount co., TN. The Circuit Court heard most cases, with any appeal made to Chancery Court. In the case of settlement of estates, Minors' interests required the appointment of guardians, thus these settlements named heirs of the deceased person and often gave the names of parents, land grant numbers, etc. Lawsuits filed and listed in these records are primarily of a personal nature - the entries describe what transpired in court. In some cases spouses are named as well as children, slaves, solicitors, sureties, attorneys, agents, and administrators and executors of estates. There is a full name index. (BJM)

Fisher Funeral Home Records, Vicksburg, Mississippi, 1854-1867 by Mary Lois S. Ragland, 344 pp, paperback, 1992, $27.00, plus $3.00 shipping. Published by Heritage Books, Inc., 1540-E Pointer Ridge Place, Suite 300, Bowie, MD 20716. Having been in continuous operation for 147 years, Fisher Funeral Home in Vicksburg is the oldest of its kind in the state of Mississippi. In addition to the burials of local residents, its records also show burial information for soldiers of both the North and South who died near Vicksburg before, during, and after the Siege of Vicksburg, together with pertinent military information. There are three books of entries, arranged separately in alphabetical order. The entries include the deceased's name, date of death, age, cause of death, brief description of funeral arrangements and expenses, and in some cases, the physician's name. (BJM)

Surry County, North Carolina Wills 1771-1827, Annotated Genealogical Abstracts by Jo White Linn, 215 pp., Indexed, cloth, 1992, $25.00, plus $3.00 shipping. Published by Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202-3897. Surry County, at one time during this period included the present-day NC counties of Ashe, Alleghany, Wilkes, Yadkin, Stokes, and Forsyth. Based on recorded wills and original wills at the NC State Archives, and on "Loose Estates Papers", the abstracts cover not only wills but powers of attorney, bonds, inventories, bills of sale, etc., many not recorded in any other place. There are no extant marriage bonds for Surry County for the period 1771-1780, so these will abstracts can be very important in proving these relationships. In addition to the usual information found in will abstracts, the compiler has included annotations from a variety of supplementary sources and had made additions and corrections to the earlier version of this work published in 1974. An excellent resource book for this area of North Carolina. (BJM)

The Genealogist's Address Book by Elizabeth Petty Bentley, 568 pp., indexed, paperback, 1992, $29.95, plus $3.00 shipping. Published by Genealogical Book Company, Inc., 1001 N. This new 1992-93 edition updates addresses and information, includes hundreds of organizations new to the scene or previously overlooked. There is a new index to all the main entries for quick and easy reference. This book will put you in touch with all the key sources of information, providing names, addresses, phone numbers, contact persons and business hours of government agencies, societies, libraries, archives, professional bodies, periodicals, newspaper columns, publishers, booksellers, services, databases, bulletin boards, etc. Essential for institutions or individuals seriously pursuing genealogical research. Reprinted by Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202. This is the first of three volumes of Cavaliers and Pioneers and is one of the most outstanding records of early emigrants to Virginia. It records under the name of the patentee or grantee, the earliest Virginia land grants and patents from 1623 to 1666, giving the number of acres, locations and dates of settlement, names of family members, and it further provides references to marriages, wills, and other legal instruments. This volume will aid researchers in locating and/or purchasing a specific genealogy on microfilm or a paper copy. (BJM)

1880 Federal Census, Polk County, Arkansas by Shirley Gross and Wanda Tilley, PO Box 12, Hatfield, AR 71945, $20.00 pp., spiral bound, 119 pages. [Hatfield, AR: the authors, 1992] An excellent transcription of the 1880 Polk Co. census, which includes two pages, which do not appear in the original microfilm for 1880 Polk Co. [They are filmed out of order on this particular roll of microfilm, and actually appear just before the listing for 1880 Ouachita County! - BJM] This census is especially helpful as Polk Co. Court House records have been destroyed by fire three times, the last in 1883, which makes research difficult for this time period. The book includes a surname index. (BJM)

Genealogical Records in Texas by Imogene Kinard Kennedy and J. Leon Kennedy, 248 pp., cloth (1987), repr. 1992, $35.00 plus $3.00 s/h. [Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc. 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202]. Texas covers a lot of territory, but this guide cuts it right down to size and makes record searching much easier. It provides detailed information on the legal and historical background of the state, the origin of each county, the location of records for each portion of the county before it was organized into its present boundaries, and the specific records available in the various county courthouses, the Texas State Library, the Texas State Archives, and the Texas General Land Office. An excellent aid to finding the vast genealogical records of Texas available to researchers. (BJM)

North Carolina Wills: A Testator Index, 1665-1900 by Thornton W. Mitchell Corrected and Revised Edition, 630 pp., cloth (1992), $49.50 plus $3.00 s/h. [Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc. 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202]. This index, in alphabetical sequence, to more than 75,000 persons who died and left wills in North Carolina between 1665 and 1900 is, with the possible exception of census records, the single-most important finding-aid in North Carolina genealogy. It lists the county in which the wills were proved, the date of probate, the precise location of the recorded copy of the will in each of the counties by book and page number and the location of the original will. The author has provided a concise history of the probate records of every county in NC including the status of the records (intact, lost, destroyed, incomplete). No claim is made that this work contains the names of everyone who died in NC between 1665 and 1900, but if there was a will involved, and if it still exists, the testator will be found in this volume. Originally published in 1987 in two volumes, this work has been completely re-formatted, incorporating all corrections and additions noted over the past five years, and has now been published in one comprehensive volume at a very substantial savings. The original edition sold for $65.00, but this new revised edition, superior in all respects, is only $49.50. An extremely useful research tool for Arkansans, many of whose ancestors were North Carolinians. (BJM)

Quakers in South Carolina, Wateree and Bush River, Cane Creek, Piney Grove and Charleston Meetings, edited by The Rev. S. Emmett Lucas, Jr., Orig. published in 1905, 1892, 1936 and reprinted in consolidated format 1991, 151 pp, indexed, soft cover, $20.00 plus $3.00 s/h. [Southern Historical Press, Inc. PO Box 1267, Greenville, SC 29602-1267] This material consists of considerable early records pertaining to many of the pioneer Quaker families that settled in SC, many of whom intermarried with other pioneer families and were assimilated into other religious denominations. Many SC families will be surprised to find that they have Quaker roots. The consolidation of three major sources Historic Camden, SC, Encyclopedia of American Quaker Genealogy, Vol. 1, NC, and The Annals of Newberry provide a storehouse of information on this area. [BJM]

The 1833 Land Lottery of Georgia and Other Missing Names of Winners in the Georgia Land Lotteries by Robert S. Davis, Jr., 69 pp., index, soft cover, $20.00 plus $3.00 s/h [Southern Historical Press, PO Box 1267, Greenville, SC 29602-1267]. Farris Cadle, author of a new book on the history of Georgia land grants and surveys, discovered a Georgia law of 1833 that ordered the fractional land lots of the 1832 Georgia Gold Land Lot Lottery to be dispensed in a special 1833 land lottery. The winners were to be drawn from the remaining losing tickets of the two 1832 land lotteries. A search of the Georgia Surveyor General Department turned up the list of some 1500 Georgia citizens who won the lots dispensed in this forgotten 1833 land lottery. Reproduced are these names, as well as a list of more than thirty land lots omitted from the original drawing of the 1820 Georgia land lottery. (BJM)

Natchez Postscripts, 1781-1798 by Carol Wells, 77 pp., surname index, soft cover, 1992, $12.50, plus $3.00 s/h. [Heritage Books, Inc., 1540-E Pointer Ridge Place, Suite 300, Bowie, MD 20716]. This volume comprises a compilation of the official documents of Natchez, MS, which was under Spanish rule from 1779 until 1798. It is compiled from a manuscript originally translated from the Spanish in 1818, and includes records such as depositions, declarations, wills, deeds, bills of sale, and reports of disagreements. The majority of the records fall between 1781 and 1798, although there are scattered earlier and later dates. Over 550 surnames are given; over 100 slaves are named. (BJM)

State Census Records by Ann S. Lainhart, 116 pp., cloth, 1992, $17.95 plus $3.00 s/h. [Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202] State censuses have been taken at one time or another by most states since the formation of the country for purposes varying according to the needs of the state. Whatever their purpose, these state census records rank with federal records as a major genealogical resource, and have remained under-utilized. Many state censuses ask different questions; for instance the 1925 Iowa state census asked for the names of parents (including mother's maiden name) and place of marriage of parents. The author has provided researchers with the first comprehensive list of state census records ever published. State by state, year by year, often county by county she shows the researcher what is available in state census records, where it is available, and what one might expect to find in the way of data. Arkansas had few state censuses and the information on our state (with the assistance of AGS President Carolyn Billingsley) is covered on pages 19 and 20 of this volume. (BJM)

Secretary of State 1902 Voter Registration Records, Wayne County, North Carolina "The Grandfather Clause" by Kay Waters Sakaris, Southern Pioneer Press, 4808 Fairmont Parkway, Suite 269, Pasadena, TX 77505, $25.00 plus s/h $2.50. A Voter Registration Act of 1902, more popularly known as the Grandfather Clause provided that no male could be denied the right to register and vote in any state election due to lack of education. The Permanent Registration Books, one type of record, contained name, age, residence, date of registration, name of the ancestor they were claiming their right under, the state or country in which their ancestor voted. This is the first in a planned series of books covering what was once the area of Old Dobbs County which has suffered numerous courthouse fires and these Voter Registrations are one way to reconstruct who was living in the area at the time. Index of Obituaries and Death Reports Appearing in The Arkansas Democrat-Gazette January 1 to June 30, 1992 by Oscar G. Russell, CAE, 506 Loop Road, North Little Rock, AR 72116. 9,653 entries, spiral binding $25, hardbound $40. [No. Little Rock, AR: the author, 1992] With no access to any sort of index for Arkansas death records, Mr. Russell's continuing efforts in abstracting this data from old and current newspapers are very important for family historians. The books present the material both in alpha order by name and by city name, with a listing of other out-of-state localities in which individuals died. The ages of the deceased persons are given and the Gazette citation. (BJM)

Ruth Mings Goddard, 9901 Chapala Dr., Albuquerque, NM 87111, has sent some 29 pages of Menzies, Minzes, Mingués, Mings, Minns, Minges family data, containing very early records beginning in Europe and migrating to the U. S. These records will go to the Arkansas History Commission to be placed on file for researchers. Mrs. Goddard states some of this family were in Baxter Co., AR, and Marion Co., AR in 1850-1860-1870; a Jacob Mings died in the White River during the Civil War.

Call for Arkansas Researchers—

1993 List To Be Compiled

Arkansas Genealogical Society receives many requests to supply a list of researchers who will do research for a fee within or about the State of Arkansas. In past years, this listing has been compiled from registration sheets printed in The Arkansas Family Historian. It is time to prepare a new listing that will be mailed to those requesting the names of Arkansas researchers.

The 1993 listing will be accomplished from a researcher's information form, and there are some requirements for it. First, those wishing to be listed must be current members of Arkansas Genealogical Society, must concentrate their research in Arkansas, and must return the listing form by February 28, 1993.

To obtain a registration form for this listing, send your request, along with SASE, to Arkansas Genealogical Society, P. O. Box 908, Hot Springs, AR 71902-0908.

GATEWAY TO THE PAST

*A Conference For The Nation's Genealogists
St. Louis, Missouri
5-7 August 1993*

Dear fellow genealogists,

Many of you joined us in Phoenix this past August and enjoyed our very successful conference there. We enjoyed meeting many of you and sharing in the camaraderie created when so many genealogists gather in the same place at the same time. The 14th annual Federation of Genealogical Societies Conference, to be co-hosted by the Missouri State Genealogical Association, will be held in St. Louis, 5-7 August 1993. A pre-conference workshop dealing with society issues will be held on 4 August 1993. The conference will prove to be another marvelous opportunity for you to advance your genealogical knowledge, and have a great deal of fun in the process.

A national-level genealogical conference is an exhilarating experience! If you haven't yet attended one, here is your chance. Come and join us as we enhance our skills, further our knowledge of resources, advance our understanding of methodology, and last but certainly not least, share our obsession in chasing illusive ancestors with others who are equally obsessed.

Once again this conference will feature sessions for every skill level (beginner through professional) on virtually every aspect of genealogy including ethnic and foreign research, regional/state research, computers, society management, methodology, resources and more. The exhibit hall will be packed with vendors displaying the latest in books, forms, computer software and various genealogical services.

Would you like to know more about the conference? Would you like to see a complete listing of the sessions? The complete information and registration packets will be mailed early in 1993 to those who have requested them. To get your name on the list simply return the request slip below to the FGS office. We'll see that you get your registration packet just as soon as it's off the press.

Plan now to meet us in St. Louis!

Sincerely,

The Board of Directors

1993 National Genealogical Society Conference in the States

NGS will celebrate its 90th birthday in 1993, and the big party will be the Conference in the States in Baltimore.

The program will focus on the history, records, repositories, and ethnic and religious groups of the Chesapeake region (Maryland, Virginia, and adjoining states), but there will be something for everyone—methodology, problem solving, land records, organization of materials, use of computers and related technologies, and much more.

Research opportunities will abound—in Baltimore, the Maryland Historical Society, Peabody Library, Enoch

Baltimore, Maryland 2 - 5 June 1993

Join us in Baltimore in 1993
for a real Chesapeake Homecoming!

Pratt Free Library, Baltimore City Archives, and Baltimore City Courthouse; in nearby Annapolis, the Maryland State Archives and State Law Library; and a little farther away in Washington, D.C., the National Archives, Library of Congress, DAR Library, and NGS Library.

Baltimore's diverse attractions include the Inner Harbor (with water taxis, cruises, the National Aquarium, the Maryland Science Center, and the U.S. Frigate Constellation), Fort McHenry, a variety of museums and art galleries, H. L. Mencken's home and Edgar Allan Poe's grave, distinctive neighborhoods and ethnic restaurants, and, of course, seafood!

Please send me the conference program and registration brochure when it becomes available in January 1993.
