Editorial Policy

AGS welcomes contributions of family records, public record transcriptions, and other information of interest to those interested in family history and genealogy in general, and in Arkansas specifically. Responsibility for the accuracy of information and for opinions, omissions, or factual errors is that of the contributor.

Manuscript Submissions

Submitters of articles and material for possible publication in The AFH are requested to send typewritten or mechanically generated manuscripts on white, 8 1/2 X 11 inch paper, double-spaced, one-inch margins on all sides, with all pages numbered. The sources from which the material was obtained, specific statements of facts, or statistical information MUST be documented, that is, the specific, detailed source description must be listed either within the body of the text or as notes. Previous publication of the material in any form must be brought to the attention of AGS. AGS encourages submissions on IBM compatible computer disks in WordStar or ASCII format accompanied by a hard copy of the material.

Membership

AGS offers individual, institutional, sustaining, life and honorary membership classes. Membership is by calendar year and may be entered at any time of the year (late subscribers will receive the year's back issues of The Arkansas Family Historian). Individual membership is $15 per year.

Queries

Members of AGS are invited to submit one fifty-word, Arkansas related, query each year. See the Query section for details.

Book Reviews

Authors and publishers who wish to have reviews or notices of their works published in The Arkansas Family Historian are invited to submit a copy of the work with ordering information and price, if applicable.

President's Page

Welcome to the pages of The Arkansas Family Historian. Since 1962, members of the Arkansas Genealogical Society have sought to preserve our state's genealogical and historical records through our publication, and to create a forum for the exchange of family history information. This effort would not have been possible without the support of all our members scattered throughout the nation. Several of our new members have asked how they could help. Well, since you asked: write an article about your Arkansas ancestor, copy a family bible record, inventory a cemetery, abstract a church record or a county tax list; let our readers know about a new Arkansas historical or genealogical publication; share copies of old family letters, diaries, Civil War correspondence, etc.; and, of course, keep those queries coming in. If there are new or different types of features or articles you would like to see, let our editor know.

Is There A Map In Your Future?

As the winter months overtake us, now is the time to begin collecting material for another season of research. One of the basic research tools all genealogists need are maps. They allow us to see the "lay of the land" before we venture out into the highways and into the courthouses. Many researchers do not know that they can obtain a free current highway map for almost any state simply by writing the highway and transportation department of the state of their interest and asking for one. Not only do these maps give current information on roads and county boundaries, but they list the many small communities that are not on so-called travel atlases or even on post office directories. If you need a current state map for Arkansas, write to the Arkansas Highway and Transportation Department, Map Sales, Room 203, P. O. Box 2261, Little Rock, AR 72203 (501-569-2444). You can usually obtain the addresses of similar agencies in other states by writing in care of the state capitol building. When you write or call, ask for a complete catalog and price list for obtaining copies of county maps as well. Many of these agencies now have copies of historic maps that one can purchase as well. In Arkansas, copies of detailed county maps dating from the 1930s are available for purchase. Here is a list of companies that specialize in reprinting historic maps: Northern Maps Co., Dunnellon, FL 32630; The Gold Bug, P. O. Box 10998C, Alamo, CA 90457; and J. Sheppard Books, Box 2020, Plaza Station, Albany, NY 12220. Write for a catalog and indicate the state of your interest, and the time frame. You should also contact the state geological commission in the state of interest about copies of detailed U. S. Government maps.

A Tribute To Dr. Marion S. Craig

The entire genealogical community in Arkansas has been saddened by the recent death of former AGS President, Dr. Marion S. Craig, of Little Rock. Marion was born in Batesville, AR, the son of Dr. M. Stark Craig, Sr., and his first wife, Mary Case. Most of his ancestors were pioneer settlers in Lawrence and Independence counties. He was a retired Little Rock physician and devoted much of his life to his interest in genealogy and family history. He had authored some 25 books and numerous articles on these subjects. He served for many years on the Board of Directors of the Arkansas Genealogical Society and was its president for two years beginning in 1977. After his retirement in 1982, he and his wife, Evelyn Torrence Craig, spent many hours working as faithful volunteers at the Arkansas History Commission in Little Rock. Besides his wife, he is survived by one son, Dr. Andrew G. Craig, a daughter, Catherine Clinger, and two grandchildren. He died October 21, 1994, at his home in Little Rock at the age of 74. All of us will miss his wise words and kind attentions.

Russell P. Baker
AGS President

[Editor's Note: AGS has received contributions in memory of Dr. Craig from Bobbie Jones McLane, Hot Springs, AR; Margaret Harrison Hubbard, Hot Springs, AR; Patte B. Graydon, Little Rock, AR; and Mary P. Engels, Forrest City, AR.]

We are advised that the 1986 volume Index of Arkansas Wills and Administrations From the Earliest to 1900 is still available. This volume is in hardcover, 748 pages, arranged by county, and very well presented. Order from Mrs. Frank F. Sloan, 602 West Oak, Jonesboro, AR 72401-3903, $36.50 postpaid. Mrs. Sloan also edits the quarterly for the Craighead County Historical Society, whose address is P. O. Box 1011, Jonesboro, AR 72403-1011.

Notice was received in September, 1994, that the Library of Congress is holding a half-price sale on genealogies in hardback. While the supplies last, Genealogies Catalogued by the Library of Congress Since 1986, 1,349 pages, will be available at $35.00 USA/$37.50 international. Their address is Library of Congress, Cataloging Distribution Service, Customer Services Section, Dept. DS, Washington, DC 20541-5017 (1-800-255-3666)

Silent City of the Dead

From The Springdale News, Springdale, Washington County, Arkansas, Friday, February 28, 1908

"A Long Neglected Spot That Should Have Best of Care and Attention.

Many people in Springdale do not know that there is another cemetery in the town aside from Bluff Cemetery, or knowing it the matter has escaped their attention, due to the fact that it has not been used for a number of years. The cemetery in question is located in the west part of town and comprises about three acres. It was used for a burying ground many years ago before there was any town here and when the county was sparsely settled. Later on Bluff Cemetery, north of town, was laid out, and it has been seventeen years since any one has been laid to rest in the old cemetery. As a result of disuse the rounds have been neglected and are becoming overgrown with weeds and brush, and some of the graves, without stones to mark their location, have become obliterated.

This is a condition that should not be allowed to exist. The community owes it to itself and to the dead to see that these grounds are protected and some little care, at least, taken of them. The graves are now in an open field and some kind of fence should be provided in order to afford them some protection. Since the corporate limits were extended this old cemetery is now inside the town, and if it is not the duty of the town authorities to look after the matter a subscription should be taken up among the people and a sufficient sum collected to enclose the grounds.

Following is a list of those buried in the cemetery so far as obtainable:

Oiley S., daughter of C. & A. Petross, died Dec. 24, 1869.

John and Minta, son and daughter of C. & A. C. Petross, died 1872.

Two unknowns, S. E. corner.

Francis Holcomb, died Sept. 9, 1853.

Catherine Holcomb, died July, 1872.

Reuben Holcomb, died Nov. 30, 1851.

Name defaced, died 1849.

John Holcomb, died Nov. 9, 1866.

Martha Holcomb, died Oct. 25, 1858.

Wm. and Rebecca Holcomb, died July 20, 1859.

Four Smileys, no stones, inside fence.

Tabitha Smiley, died Jan. 27, 1852.

Francis M. Smiley, died Dec. 30, 1861.

Margaret Smiley, died July 12, 1848.

Catherine Holcomb, died Aug. 30, 1855.

Marian N. Collins, died Aug. 1889.

Two Beelers.

Marilla, dau. of A. & E. Atwood, died Aug 19, 1853.

Prominent Benton County Farmer Dead

John Hughes, one of the leading farmers of Benton county, died Saturday at his home north of Elm Springs from an attack of pneumonia. The remains were taken to Gravett for interment. Mr. Hughes formerly resided at Osage Mills and something over twenty years ago purchased the old Payne Gotcher place near Elm Springs where he has since resided. He came to Benton County from Waldron, Scott County. Mr. Hughes is survived by a wife and six children, three sons and three daughters. Of the children only two of the boys are now at home. Mr. Hughes was eminently successful from a financial stand point and leaves a valuable estate.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Dodson arrived home Friday night from San Antonio, Texas, where they went some time ago for the benefit of the former's health, who has been a sufferer from rheumatism for the past few years. Mr. Dodson's many friends will regret to learn that he is no better. Mrs. Jennie Nickerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dodson, returned with them. The new buildings to be erected by E. A. Gillett necessitates removal of the platform scales that have stood so long on the lot, and Berry & Lane, owners, are preparing to locate them in the rear of the Springdale Cash Dry Goods Co. J. C. Johnson is also having platform scales put in the rear of Daily's drug store. Mrs. Roland Clark came in Tuesday from Leslie to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Smyer.

W. H. Kelso is seriously ill at his home in the west part of town with an attack of pneumonia.

Lawrence County, Arkansas Territory

Submitted by Dr. Marion S. Craig, 300 Beckwood Dr., Little Rock, AR 72205-2615; a native of Batesville, Independence Co. and former president of Arkansas Genealogical Society. He has compiled 27 published books and numerous articles in the field of genealogy and family history research. He does not sell his books; rather, copies are given to various libraries and societies.

The Legislature of Arkansas Territory ordered that the sheriff in each county take a census of all inhabitants, free and slave, for the years of 1823, 1825, 1827 and 1829. This was done, but, unfortunately, only a few complete censuses have survived the ravages of time.

The 1829 Sheriff's Census of Lawrence County has survived, intact and complete. The original enumeration sheets are at the Arkansas History Commission in Little Rock, which Dr. Craig photocopied. In 1829, the County of Lawrence was comprised of seven townships, namely: Spring River, Union, Columbia, Current River, Lebanon, Strawberry and Davidson. The county seat, Davidsonville, was always located in Spring River Township and never in Davidson Township.

This listing provides a complete and true transcription of the names appearing in the same order as they appear on the original enumeration sheets. The same spelling has been retained, though obviously, the enumerator spelled some names phonetically. Only the head of each household appears by name. All members in a household, including the head, were enumerated in various age groups, namely: White Males Over 21, White Males Under 21, White Females over 14, and White Females Under 14.

Slaves owned by each household appear on the census enumeration sheets, not by name, but in various age groups, namely: Under Age 10, Age 10 But Under 16, Age 16 But Under 45, and Age 45 and Upwards. For lack of space on a page, I have listed with each household the total number of slaves rather than the various age groups.

This 1829 census is very important to genealogists because quite a number of the names do not appear on the 1830 Federal census of Lawrence County.

Lawrence was created on 15 January 1815 as a county in the Territory of Missouri. Out of Lawrence have come, in whole or in part, 32 of the current 75 counties in the State of Arkansas. She is known in Arkansas as the "Mother of Counties."

Recapitulation

White males over the age of 21 years-----	419
White males under the age of 21 years-----	796
White females over the age of 14 years-----	498
White females under the age of 14 years-----	528
Free coloured persons, males 5, females 4-----	9
Slaves of both sexes and all ages -----	266
 Grand Total -----	 2516

On 25 March 1829, James M. Kuykendall, Sheriff, certified that "the foregoing list contains a true statement of the census of said county taken by me for the year 1829." However, Kuykendall failed to include himself in the enumeration. Therefore, the Grand Total would be 2517, not 2516.

1845 Letter, Franklin County, AR

George Powell to Charles F. Powell in Ellridge, Onondaga County, New York

Submitted by Beatrice Greenwalt, 2449 Center Ave., Alliance, OH 44601-4531

McLeans Bottoms, Franklin Co., Arks.
Dec 1st 1845

Dear Charles

It is a long time since I have written to you and I am ashamed to apologise. I have been the busiest man in this state I am sure. I am quite married and have been so some weeks. I cannot tell you what sort of woman my wife is but I hope you will see her some time & then you can judge for yourself.

I have abandoned the idea of visiting N. York state for 2 or 3 years or perhaps not so long. I cannot leave home without great sacrifice, and I know although it would be a great satisfaction to me to see home, it would not compensate me for the loss of time & expenditure of money which would be a necessary consequence.

But Chas. that need not prevent you coming to this state & I assure you would do well at least I know you can do as well as you can in your state. if you had been here for the last 2 or 3 years you could have done well & I have no doubt that the same opportunities will occur again. I should like very much to have you come out if you are desirous of visiting I am sure you can do so as well here as any where & if any thing turns up in the state you will be here to avail yourself of it. I am settled now & have a house to invite you to & I know you will be welcome as long as it suits your business or convince (convenience?) to remain.

Chas. O. Collins is at Fort Gibson & is the Quarter Master under whose superintendence the work is going on. He wrote me a letter when he first went up & urged me strongly to come up & see him I promised myself to pay him a visit when I went up to get married but my home affairs claimed my attention at that time so imperiously that I set? at once home again.

Now it is possible if you were to visit him that he might give you some situations which would promise? something for the present at any rate. The lady whom I married is of good family although much decayed in point of wealth & at this time by no means rich though in comfortable circumstances. She has 2 house women of her own but they are in Alabama where most of her family reside & I have no time to go for them--I think I shall some time go to Ala to see her folks and thence eastward to see my own.

I have recently purchased 40? acres of land at $10.00 per acre & I must now pay for it which will take me some time. money is so hard to get here--but I can get along if I ever get my place improved as I wish it. It is troublesome & expensive in this country to built & improve a place. I have not yet finished my houses & it will be 12 months before I get enough done to live as I desire to.

But I keep going & will be well settled some time or other. Chas. I have every thing wrong to write you a decent letter this night but I will make amends for this & other negligence another time. I have a bad pen & a crude knife. rough paper & no opportunity of supplying the defect. I rec'd mother's very kind letter a few days ago & will answer it as soon as I can. I shall send you all tho a notice of my marriage when I mail this & you will then know a little more about it than I have told you in this hasty scrawl. I have had a heavy __ace this year & find it difficult at times to obtain a supply of ingredients for Hok's river has got out of sorts late years. It gets too low for boats or it is so high that it overflows everything within its reach. Always on the extreme. Our first snow is now falling. It is a cold disagreeable night and the wind is howling in northern style around us tonight. I want you to come out as soon as you can find the means to do so & you shall find with me a home as long as you can content yourself & I think you can do well enough. bear this in mind & act accordingly.

Not a word from Dan lately. I owe him a letter & will pay it. Give my love to all & remember me to all our friends. Good night.

Dec 5th I have not had an opportunity to mail my letter as yet--I see Dr "G. C. Powell" getting much credit for chalk beds &c. There is another Richard in the field. It is Dr. Wm. Byrd Powell. I have enough to do with the bowels of the inhabitants to permit the Earths bosom to remain undisturbed coal, chalk & all.

We have had 2 weeks of the coldest weather that I have ever seen in this state. The ice is now 5 inches thick & the Arks river is frozen across at this place. The wild turkeys & other game in abundance flock to the bottoms for grapes of which there was a plentiful crop this year. If you were here you could amuse yourself finely killing turkeys, geese and cluckers? we often go out & kill 9 or ten fine fat turkeys at a hunt.

Write me as soon as you get this & tell me all the news and do not take umbrage at my not writing sooner for I assure it has been no other cause than multiplicity of engagements which occupied all my time.

Chas. F. Powell & &

Your Brother
Geo C. Powell

The letter had a wax seal and was apparently sent through Fort Gibson, I.T., as it contained the written name "Chas. O. Collins" on the flap above the seal. It showed a return address in the upper left corner of Morrisons Bluff Arks
Dec 9/45

George Powell, from New York, married Caroline "Cally" McClellan, dau. of Col. McClellan, of Atlanta. It is implied that he was a doctor. Is there a list of physicians in that area at that time?

The submitter seeks information on the location of McLean's Bottom in Franklin County, AR, as well as land records for George Powell, who said he bought 40 acres of land (in the wilderness?)

Boosting or Boasting?

By Linda Reed Evatt, PO Box 164, Conway, AR 72033
Copyright 1994, by Linda Reed Evatt. All rights reserved

One of the characteristics of the nineteenth century was what was known as "boosterism." The term meant that each place advertised itself as the best, fastest growing, the most pleasant, the most prosperous, etc. This advertising, bragging, boosting occurred regardless of the size of the town. It was all tied to economics. Land owners were promoting their area to make money on the property they owned and hoped to sell at a profit. Businessmen dealt first in land, and these men related personal and public growth, public and private property. As Daniel Boorstin said, "Not to boost your city showed both a lack of community spirit and a lack of business sense."⁽¹⁾ As more and more people came to an area, land prices went up. In order to get more people to an area, they had to be attracted by public improvements: bridges, roads and streets, railroads, water supplies, sewers, parks, schools, hospitals. And these public improvements themselves depended on growth. The competition among communities for these improvements was fierce. Newspapers were an integral part of competition. They promoted an area just as hard as the landowners. They wanted more people to have more subscribers to make more money. The newspapers that had the government printing contracts printed legal notices, laws, legal documents. In public domain areas the newspapers fulfilled the requirement that homesteaders advertise final proof notices six times which stated they had followed all government requirements to claim land. At the same time the papers were fulfilling the printing contract, they were boosting their particular area. Tradesmen were also involved in boosting their own town. They, of course, hoped to prosper from increased trade for their businesses. It seems that all of society was in the business of promoting, boosting, boasting. See Boorstin's The Americans: The National Experience for full treatment of this dynamic aspect of our history.

Individuals were on the look out for better prospects than they had at home: cheaper land, better jobs, prettier women. Their friends who had moved on were urged to report on what they found in the new areas. All of the public boosting and boasting slipped over into private letters. Some of these reports have survived in letters mailed to their friends back home. One recipient of such letters was William H. Evatt of Waldron, Arkansas. The letters and documents quoted here were found among the papers of John Wesley Evatt (26 Dec 1863-27 Aug 1956) who was Will's next younger brother. They are currently in the possession of the author of this article. No attempt has been made to "correct" spelling or punctuation.

Will Evatt was born in Scott County 21 January 1861 to John Washam Evatt (1829-18 Dec 1887) and Martha Payne Evatt (23 May 1833-23 Aug 1900) who had moved from Walker County, Georgia, the year before. Will was the fourth of ten children born to this couple. He was employed by his father in his mercantile business for a time. He subsequently served as assistant postmaster and then as town marshal for two years.⁽⁴⁾ The letters he received sometimes reported on the females in whatever area the men were located ("Girls here are scarce with the exception of Chippies there is plenty of them;"⁽²⁾ and "spanking good looking girls"⁽³⁾). Some also noted religious revivals("we have been having a Big meeting here it lasted 2 weeks & there were 117 conversions. And most of them were old men who had been sinners all of their lives. Atch was converted & baptized - & is quite a different man to what he was."⁽⁵⁾ or "By the way did you get religion during the revival."⁽⁶⁾)

But, mostly, the men wrote of business conditions. From his first cousin John Wesley Evatt (9 September 1864-12 Feb 1949), who was a medical doctor practicing in Billings, Missouri, came the following, dated 14 July 1888:

I Am Running the Drug Store and Doing Some practice too. I Have Road 8 miles to Day father [Thomas Wesley Evatt, 28 Jul 1826-9 May 1901] and tom jr [Thomas Reno Evatt, 4 Apr 1868-20 Feb 1933] is on the farm and Doing Better than I Ever known them to Do. they Have 40 acres of fin Wheat this year they will thresh to Morrow and Market

Same. they all so Sell about 50 head of fine Hogs Every Year and some cattle. I and Dr Joe [Joseph M. Mannes, born 21 Sept 1846, married to Martha V. Evatt, oldest sister of the writer] Ride the fines Saddle stock in the S.W., they Single foot a mile in 3 minutes on a Race it is hard to tell Which is Best Dr Joe owns 160 acres of very find Land Where he Lives. 120 acres in cultivation worth 25 Dollars per acre. and 120 acres in 4 notes of his worth 10 Dollars per acre and 200 Dollars in Drug store and 2000 Dollars worth of good notes and accounts So you can See that Jo has come out of the kink. Lige [Elijah O. Evatt, 2 Jan 1862-10 Dec 1940, older brother of Tom Jr. and the letter-writer] is worth five or six hundred Dollars. I am not worth much. I am still Improving some.

Both John Wesley and Elijah O. Evatt had returned to Arkansas by 1900. John Wesley was listed on the Washington County census in 1900 and Elijah was in Conway County the same year.

From Indian Territory came the following:

...people are preparing to sow wheat this fall some thinks this will be a great wheat country as soon as it is broke up and matured come out and take a look at the country I sure you would like it I think if you would come here and invest some money in town property you would make something out of it I am going to invest as fast as I can we have bought some now I received a letter from Jim today I think he done well in concluding to stay there there is so dam many machines here and some dam fools who want to work for glory we havent done much this week made a well on our own property is all. ...(7)

Even the older settled areas had their own boosters/boasters:

I have been very busy all summer - You see both of the houses do an extensive credit business. and now during the sickly season I sell an increased amount of Drugs - I average about 20 prescriptions per day. Besides the other Drugs & then I have the books of both houses to keep & Therefore all of my time is occupied. I have though struck for higher wages & got them. I am to begin work on 15th Sept for Mr. Tewpel You remember he lives right next to the Depot ... that is the store I am going to work at - $40.00 per month & my Board paid. That is the best Job I have had for some time. He is going to carry a $10000.00 stock of Gen. Mdse. ...(8)

Even the stationery reflected a bit of boosting: R. H. Hicks, Dealer in Drugs, Medicines, Toilet & Fancy Articles Stationery, School Books, Etc., Mulberry, Ark.

The one surviving letter which does NOT promote an area was from an older man who knew Will Evatt was suffering from the latter stages of consumption. But even it contains reverse or backhanded boasting. His letter states:

...and as to Employment - there is 3 men here to one Job - and in fact in the cities stout men are actually working for their Board! Farm hands get from $30.00 to $30.00 per mo & board $30.00 to $60.00 & Board their selves - but it is a very rare thing that a farm hand is wanted! My friend this is good Country if a man has plenty of money it is a rich mans country & a poor man has no show - if a man has to pay $4000.00 to $10000.00 he can buy him an improved farm of say 20 or 30 acres yes sir it takes $4000.00 to $10000.00 to buy a well improved farm of 20 or 30 acres & some here are worth from $100.00-

$500.00 per acre! Health here is good [marked through but legible: but no place for a consumptive] Well as to clerks there are 25 to where there is one wanted and consequently the wages are very low - My advice to all is to remain where they are if they are doing well - unless they are about to go into business of some kind or buy them a farm - to those I say come - the climate is what brought me here I knew before coming that in all probability I would not do as well here as back in Arkansas - but I will if nothing happens go into business at some point near here soon. A man can get work in the Gold & Silver Mines some 200 miles south of here - but he would have to work hard - but the pay is good & paid weekly or monthly - but it is a very dangerous business.(9)

Will Evatt died 17 July 1889 before he had a chance to visit or invest in any areas that had been touted to him. He is buried in Birdview Cemetery, Scott County, Arkansas.

Boosterism was prevalent in the nineteenth century, in the private sector as well as the public forum. Seldom would a personal letter today contain what we have been taught is blatant bragging. But in the last century, it was a fact of life and was actually "the thing to do." It was proper to promote your state, your town, your business, yourself.

Tuesday, 24 November, 1835: "Among the passengers who went down on the s.b. Neosho, last week, was John Pope, Esq., late Governor of Arkansas, on his return to his residence in Kentucky." This must have been the return trip of the Neosho. John Pope, in one of my lines, of course, did not die in the sinking, but I thought it was quite a coincidence to find these two articles on this boat.

General guidelines for submitting queries:

- 1) Queries are limited to members only
- 2) Please submit no more than one query per calendar year
- 3) Keep the query to approximately fifty words
- 4) Neatness counts! If possible, type, double spaced. Otherwise print legibly, leave a space between each line
- 5) Capitalize Surnames

Remember the 4 W's:

Who-	Give complete names of interest
What-	What do you want? Keep it short and to the point
Where-	LOCALITY IN ARKANSAS?
When-	Give a time period

Since we always work with a large backlog of queries, we strive to print them in the order in which they are received. It may be several months, however, before your query appears. We do use all queries received in a calendar year before the end of that year. We continue to receive queries with no name and address included. If query gets separated from the envelope, we cannot use them. It simplifies the work of the all-volunteer staff of this publication if you send your queries with your membership fee, to the Arkansas Genealogical Society, PO Box 908, Hot Springs, AR 71902-0908.

Book Reviews and Notices

By Bobbie Jones McLane, Desmond Walls Allen,
Lynda C. Suffridge, Susan Gardner Boyle,
Russell P. Baker

The following are reviews and/or announcements of book acquisitions for the Arkansas Genealogical Society. The reviewed books are permanently housed at the Arkansas History Commission, or in the local History and Genealogy Room of the Little Rock Public Library. The Society expresses its appreciation to the authors and contributors. In ordering copies of these books, please remember to say you saw the review or notice in this publication!

Only The Names Remain, Vol. 3, Saline Dist. and Cherokee Orphanage, by Sandi Garrett, P. O. Box 48, Spavinaw, OK 74366, soft cover, $15.00 postpaid, complete name index. This is Volume 3 in Ms. Garrett's attempt to make native American - in this case Cherokee Indian - genealogy easier. She has combined information from the 1851 Drennen Cherokee Roll that lists most Indians by Cherokee name only, with the 1910 Guion Mill Roll that contains full "White" type Cherokee names, with first and last names. An example of the information available is Drennen Roll #Kar-Kar-Lor-Ha-Nar, who or whose descendent appears on the Miller Roll as Polly David (M-GM-GF) #922. This book contains information on the old Cherokee District of Salin and the Cherokee Orphanage in Eastern Oklahoma. Contact Sandi for a list of her other publications. [RPB]

Our Family Tree: Nichols, by Kathleen Lipsmeyer Nichols, 1213 SW 97th St., Oklahoma City, OK 73139-2614, 220 pages, spiral bound, $30.00. This is the second family history from the pen of Mrs. Nichols. The first one was on the Lipsmeyer family. This well printed and easy to read volume contains illustrations, pictures, charts, maps and clippings. It traces back, generation by generation, the ancestors of Gerald Lee Nichols of Oklahoma to the family of Nathan Nichols, Sr., b. 1748 in VA. The family also lived in Ohio. Other families mentioned are Calhoun, Hale, Oakes, Petrey, Lay and Hodgson. However, this well presented book would be greatly improved by the inclusion of an index, or at least a table of contents. Index to Obituaries and Death Notices Appearing in the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette, January 1, 1994 to June 30, 1994, by Oscar G. Russell, 506

Loop Rd., North Little Rock, AR 72120-2216, 189 pp., spiral bound $21.00; hard bound, $34.00. Since the demise of the Little Rock Arkansas Gazette in 1991 and the suspension of the Shannon J. Henderson index to that paper about the same time, there has been a real lack of sources for locating contemporary obituaries and death notices. Mr. Russell is filling this gap. This is his latest volume. It contains an index to all deaths reported on the obituary pages, plus information gained from a "page by page search of the entire daily edition", resulting in information on about one-third more deaths than his last book. Good work, Mr. Russell. Contact him for a full list of his indexes. [RPB]

In Search of Your German Roots, 2nd Edition (1994), 114 pages, soft cover, $11.95, and In Search of Your European Roots, 2nd Edition (1994), 292 pages, soft cover, $16.95, both by Argus Baxter, Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202-3897.

What a difference a few years makes! In the mid 1980s when Mr. Baxter wrote the first editions of these two books, Europe was divided into two armed camps and the Cold War was in full swing. Americans in general and American genealogists in particular were not welcome in most of Europe east of the Iron Curtain. Some countries like Albania were impossible to enter and the extent of their genealogical records impossible to ascertain. German, the ancestral home of many of our ancestors, itself was divided into an eastern and a western part. While research in western Europe was fairly easy and often immensely rewarding, research in the east was time consuming and often non productive, even after permission to use records was obtained. Today this part of the world is an entirely different place. While there have been few changes in the west, the east Soviet empire has ceased to exist. East Germany is no longer a separate nation. Even the old cold war government subdivisions have been returned to their former boundaries. Now genealogists are not only welcome throughout Europe, but eagerly sought after as a source of hard currency in the east. On the down side, where there was just a few years ago a stable Yugoslavia, there is now a number of new smaller ethnic countries still fighting civil wars. Because of these changes, Mr. Baxter has undertaken much needed revisions of these standard research works. Each is well indexed and contains updated bibliographies and lists of genealogical societies and publications relating to ethnic groups that migrated to North America. They are a must for the European researcher, whether or not he plans to visit or just wants to write. Copies are required reading for anyone planning a research trip to Europe, and especially Germany. Purchase copies before you go, take your copies with you and keep them handy. The only down side to these works is the lack of current maps showing recent boundary and name changes in the book on Europe as a whole. The German volume does contain one map showing current state boundaries. [RPB]

Kinship: It's All Relative by Jackie Arnold Smith. Published by Genealogical Publishing Company, Inc., 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202. Charts, 109 pages, softback. No price provided (a catalog listed it as $9.95). This is a very handy little book, concise and to the point. It addresses most of the questions that have come to your mind concerning relationship and defines all of the common and not so common vocabulary and terms, both legal and historical. Charts are used to illustrate the varying kinds and degrees of relationship and also to provide information on the law in different states concerning such things as legal age for marriage and grandparents' visitation rights. The author has also provided a list of what appear to be up to date addresses for requesting vital records from the various states. Last but not least, the book is light and interesting reading. The author balances the presentation of facts with a sense of humor and a style of writing that entertains while informing. [SGB]

The Hancock Family of England and America. By Arvil Dale Hancock. Published by Gateway Press, available from the author at 726 Jura Way, Sunnyvale, C 94087. Illustrations, index, maps. Hardback. $30.00. The author briefly discusses the origin of the Hancock name and the earliest Virginia Hancock as well as the seventeenth and eighteenth century Massachusetts Hancocks and a prominent nineteenth and twentieth century California Hancock family. He then proceeds to present his direct Hancock line, descended apparently from the earliest Virginia Hancock mentioned in the first chapter. This book has a pleasing, professional appearance, being nicely bound and containing print which is easy to read, as well as a table of contents, an index, maps and photographs, and some family group sheets. However, the book contains neither foot nor end notes, nor a bibliography. The documentation is hit and miss and many "facts" are presented without documentation as to how such conclusions were reached. The author includes abstracts and extracts of various documents, but the researcher would find it difficult in some cases to locate the original source. In his introduction, the author admits that no attempt was made to be scholarly, but only to "provide information for ... future generations of Hancocks." Serious researchers would agree that information without documentation is nearly useless and appears to be suspect. In this case the reader does not know if the author has used original or transcribed sources and often has no way of checking his conclusions. Furthermore the flow of the text is uneven with historical asides coming in the midst of family descent and frequent interruptions to go off on female lines. If you have a Hancock line in Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee or Indiana, by all means take a look at this book. It presents quite a bit of information about Hancocks in general and the author's family in particular. The meticulous researcher will use the information as clues and possibilities and try to locate proof amid primary source material. [SGB]

Book C Court of Common Pleas and Circuit Court (Volume 2, 1829-1831) Hempstead County Arkansas Territory, published by Hempstead County Genealogical Society, PO Box 1158, Hope, Arkansas 71801. $15, softbound, 193 pages, full name index. Included is a map of Hempstead County in 1825 showing major trails, rivers, prairies, towns, political townships, geographic townships and ranges. The Society has made a word for word transcription of the original court records, which includes jurors, road overseers, election judges, indictments, trespass, divorce, etc. The area of Southwest Arkansas encompassed in this court record now includes all or part of the following counties: Columbia, Hempstead, Howard, Lafayette, Little River, Miller, Nevada, Ouachita, Pike, Polk, Sevier and Union. Another excellent compilation from this very active genealogical society. (BJM)

Passports of Southeastern Pioneers, 1770-1823 Indian, Spanish and Other Land Passports for Tennessee, Kentucky, Georgia, Mississippi, Virginia, North and South Carolina by Dorothy Williams Potter; [1982, reprinted 1994] by Genealogical Publishing Co. Inc., 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21201-3897; $32.50 plus $3.00 p/h, 461 pp., illustrated, indexed, clothbound. After eight years of research in the records of the War Department, the State Department, the archives of the individual states, as well as records of the Spanish and the British in West Florida, Mrs. Potter has assembled a complete collection of the passports and travel documents which were issued to individuals and families traveling or migrating into the Mississippi Valley area from the above mentioned states. This volume provides the names of over 5,000 people who either travelled through or settled in the Spanish and Indian lands. The Notes, References and Selected Bibliography add much to the interest of this volume. (BJM)

Passenger Arrivals at the Port of Charleston 1820-1829 compiled by Brent H. Holcomb; [1994] published by Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21201-3897; 188 pp., indexed cloth, $25.00 plus $3.00 p/h. Lists of passengers arriving at the port of Charleston from foreign ports exist only for the years 1820 to 1829. The lists are found in (1) copies of original passenger lists prepared by the local customs collector, and (2) State Department Transcripts of the customs collector's quarterly returns. Mr. Holcomb's transcriptions are based on microfilm copies of these records, the originals of which are at the National Archives. Most so-called ships' passenger lists for Charleston are based on secondary sources and very few other kinds of immigration records exist for the period covered. This is a unique source of data on several thousand people coming into Charleston through a relatively narrow window of time. Most were from Great Britain and Ireland, most were young, most were male, and most were unskilled farmers and laborers. However, there were numerous passengers from France, Spain, Germany, even Italy among them. Data gives name of vessel, passenger, age, sex, date of arrival, occupation, where from, country to which he belongs, and country which he intends to inhabit. Lists are printed in the order in which they are found, and there is a complete name index. A remarkable new reference work! (BJM)

Drew County, Arkansas Cemetery Records - Second Edition, published by the Drew County Association for Family and Community Education. Hardbound, 525 pp., complete index has more than 20,000 names listed, $35.00 postpaid. Order from Drew County Extension Office, Drew County Court House, 210 South Main, Monticello, AR 71655. The 121 known cemeteries of Drew County have been resurveyed and are published with a completely new format. The book also contains a county map with all cemeteries spotted by numbers. Each cemetery has its own map, with directions and legal description. Data recorded includes names, birth and death dates through 1993, informative epitaphs such as military records and other genealogical information. An excellent genealogical resource for this county. (BJM)

Camp Fires of Georgia's Troops, 1861-1865, by William S. Smedlund, available from the author, 1666 Glen Arm Dr., Lithonia, GA 30058, $33.50 plus $3.50 shipping. Historians tend to focus on battles and regiments, overlooking the sites where soldiers lived, drilled, and died. Bill has combed a variety of records looking for any mention of locations throughout the South where Georgia troops camped. This book can be very helpful in researching Georgia soldiers. The book is illustrated with photo and drawings. There are three indexes: by name, unit, and location. [DWA]

Verna Baker Banes has microfilmed the Vaughan/Vaughn Collection of Genealogical Research, a compilation of Vaughan, Etc. Newsletters, correspondence, and other information. The roll of microfilm is available for $30 postpaid and includes a paper copy of the 59-page name index to the 2,300 names on the film. Order from Verna Baker Banes, PO Box 7435, Huntsville, TX 77342. [DWA]

Marriages of Scott County, Arkansas, Books A, B, C, D, E, F, and G, 1882-1943 by Wanda M. Newberry Gray, 425 East Sixth St., Waldron, AR 71958, write the author for price. This compilation includes the earliest extant marriages for the county through the middle of World War II. The 9,215 marriages are arranged in groom order, listing the full names and ages of both parties, their marriage date, and the book and page number of the original record. There is a full-name bride index. [DWA]

Jamison, McFadden, Old Lake, Stout and Walker Cemeteries of the Dover, Pope County, Arkansas, area by James & Alta Ballard and C. L. & Lina Boyd, available from C. L. Boyd, PO Box 222, Dover, AR 72837, $12.50 postpaid. The Ballards and Boyds are reinventorying Pope County cemeteries. They plan to publish their work in small volumes specific to particular areas. They have also completed Adams, Annie's Chapel, Brock, Hickey, Madden, Reynolds, Shannon and Treat Cemeteries of Johnson County, Arkansas (also $12.50 postpaid) The cemeteries in this volume are in eastern Johnson County except for Shannon in Pope County. [DWA]

Black Oak, Arkansas, Remembered, by Nan Harrell Snider, available from the author, Route 1, Box 131, Monette, AR 72447, $15 postpaid. This is a delightful collection of photos and articles about the people, events, schools, churches, merchants, industry, and cemetery of this small town in Craighead County. [DWA]

A History of the 15th Missouri Cavalry Regiment, CSA by Jerry Ponder, available from Ponder Books, PO Box 573, Doniphan, MO 63935, $13.95 plus $2.00 postage. This regimental history is actually an account of the war in northeastern Arkansas and southeastern Missouri, since the 15th participated in nearly every engagement in that area. Ponder traces the development of the unit and the war's events and supplements the text with photos and maps. He supplies rosters for the 15th and Reeves' Company of Independent Scouts. [DWA]

Dr. John Perley Ford (1794-1869) His Life and Times, Ancestors, Descendants and Allied Families 1635-1994, by Robert W. Ford, available from the author, 2844 Hogan Court, Falls Church, VA 22043-3534, $42.50 postpaid. This book is divided into two parts--the first is the story of Perley, the second is about allied families: Abbe, Anderson, Cogswell, Denson, Farmer, Follett, Fuller, Galiman, Hovey, Key, Lovell, Moore, Pease, Waldo and Whipple. Ford's research began like that of most other families--with misinformation from family traditions. Bob and a team of family researchers pursued Perley from his birth in New York, through two marriages that created a "northern" family and a "southern" family, and to the descendants of those marriages. The book is filled with photos and indexed. [DWA]

Arkansas Travelers: Descendants and Ancestors of Daniel and Nancy (Denton) Burford, of Cleveland County, AR, compiled by Glen and Hallie Garner, available from Garner Services, 8923 Woodshore Dr., Dallas, TX 75243, 245 pages, 8 1/2 x 11, $25.00 in soft cover, $35.00 hard cover, plus 8.25% sales tax for TX residents. This book is about the ancestors and descendants of Daniel Burford who came from AL to Saline Twp., Dallas Co. (now Cleveland), c1855, with his wife, Nancy Denton, and two sons Hiram and John T., both of whom served in the Civil War. Well presented in columnar form, with end notes and full name index.
