AGS began the year with seven of our members attending the 2004 NGS Gen Tech Conference in St. Louis. The world of genealogy and technology is changing almost on a daily basis.

Gen Tech does a terrific job keeping the genealogical community up to date on the latest software, equipment and methods. The lectures were informative and the visits to the exhibit hall exciting.

The next national conference we attend will be the Federation of Genealogical Societies 2004 Conference to be held September 8-11 in Austin, Texas. For more details, visit their website at <http://www.fgs.org>. I would like to ask that you give serious consideration to making the trip. AGS will have a booth in the exhibit hall to show our publications and to invite anyone to become a member of our society. It is a lot of fun and with more members helping with the booth, everyone would get an opportunity to attend the lectures that would benefit them. Gloria Futrell and Buford Suffridge did a great job representing AGS at Gen Tech. Our "Priors" books and CD received a great review by Paul Milner in the recent edition of the FGS Forum.

Our Fall Seminar is scheduled for October 8 and 9, 2004 at the Holiday Inn Airport in Little Rock, AR. The Friday workshops have yet to be determined, but Craig Robert Scott will be the guest lecturer all day on Saturday. Craig specializes in military records at the National Archives and is owner of the largest genealogical bookstore, Willowbend Books. He will bring some of his inventory with him to Arkansas and would welcome any suggestions on any books of interest. His website is <http://www.willowbendbooks.com> and e-mail your suggestions to jhdavenport@comcast.net. Please put Willowbend in the subject line.

In order to bring in nationally known speakers we must plan years in advance. Otherwise, many of the excellent speakers are not available. Sherry Irvine, our speaker for the Fall Seminar 2005 will be lecturing on how to begin your English, Scottish and Irish research from this side of the ocean. Sherry is the English and Scottish Course Coordinator for Samford Institute of Genealogical and Historical Research in Birmingham, AL. She is also the Tour Leader for the British Institute of Historical and Genealogical Research to England and Scotland each year. If interested visit their website at <http://www.samford.edu/schools/ighr/ighr.html>.

The AGS research trip to Salt Lake City is shaping up nicely. We have fifteen rooms reserved at the Salt Lake Plaza Hotel next to the Family History Library. When all of the rooms are filled, we will start a waiting list. The airlines will not give a group rate for the flight until May, so please notify me if you want to go and the information will be sent to you when it becomes available. The dates are December 5-12, 2004. The hotel will provide an optional lecture on Sunday night on a topic yet to be determined. The Family History Library gives free orientations on different subjects daily, so you will be able to receive the guidance you need from their volunteers.

My suggestion is you start preparing now, by visiting the Family History Library website at www.familysearch.org, and use the card catalog to decide what you want to research. Having a research plan before you leave saves precious time. Some microfilms that are stored in the vault will need to be ordered in advance.

At the January meeting of the Board of Directors, a committee was appointed to update our Constitution and Bylaws. This has not been done for at least 25 years. In 1996 a committee worked on this huge task, but unfortunately the board did not implement the revisions. For this reason, I have asked the committee to have their proposals ready for the May meeting. These proposals will be published in the June and September quarterlies. They will be voted on by the general membership at the October annual meeting.

Please note below the new mailing address for AGS. This change was implemented to take advantage of competitive prices for printing and the mail distribution center in Little Rock, which should result in speedy delivery to the members. All mail sent to the Little Rock post office will be distributed to the proper person, for example, treasurer, secretary, membership chair, editorial committee, and publication chair. We are establishing a computerized membership list which will be placed at an encrypted storage off site.

WE are here to serve you the members; YOU are the ARKANSAS GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY!

Primitive Baptist Library

If your ancestors were Primitive Baptists, you might be interested in the following library which welcomes biographical or genealogical information on members of this denomination.

The Primitive Baptist Library, 415 Main Street, Carthage, IL 52361, (217) 357-3723, was organized in June 1978 by Elder Robert Webb and three other trustees (all members of Primitive Baptist Churches in Hancock County, Illinois, with a constitution and by-laws.

The Primitive Baptist Library is a reference library, rather than a loaning library, but the library has republished several books which are available for purchase, and its collection of books and records is available for use by Primitive Baptists and others (including descendants of members) who are doing research either on the church or on family members who were connected with the church. Over 46,000 names have been entered into a computer database of past and present members of Primitive Baptist Churches, the majority of these being for churches in Illinois (nearly half of all the names are for Illinois), Missouri, Indiana, Iowa, Ohio, New York, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Virginia, Kentucky, Oklahoma, Oregon, New Jersey, Arkansas, Kansas and Nebraska. Over 12,000 association minutes from various parts of the United States are also part of the Library's collection. It encourages Primitive Baptists and their friends to help preserve their heritage by donating old out-of-print books and periodicals, association minutes (and especially current year's minutes of the association), photos, church records, etc. They will gladly purchase copies of records and minutes they lack.

The Library sends out a free publication called "The Primitive Baptist Library Quarterly," four times a year, which lists material which is available either free, or by purchase, to the general public.

Parker and Pierce Family Notes

Submitted by Kirby Watkins, 1511 Tulip Drive, Arlington, TX 76013-5036, who said: "Recently I read about an Arkansas family named Mills who descend from Elizabeth Rumboll who married Peter Mills. Elizabeth Rumboll was a daughter of Francis Rumboll, and granddaughter of John Parker (1570-1612). I myself descend from these Parker and Pierce Families.

"This data can be verified by the volumes written by Winston Churchill; also see Victoria's History of Hampshire by Queen Victoria and her researchers. On the Isle of Wight, members of Queen Victoria's family married Callaways.

"Sir Winston Churchill traces my Cade family back to Jack Cade of 'The War of the Roses' fame.

"For the benefit of my Parker-Pierce kinsmen, I hope there is room to store this data."

History of Marble Landmark Missionary Baptist Church Garland County, Arkansas

In 1991 Elder Jimmy D. Johnson, pastor of Marble Missionary Baptist Church, compiled a history of the church and published the same in booklet form. His introduction to the history credits a number of people, along with the Garland County Historical Society and the archives office in Little Rock, Arkansas, for providing copies of the record books containing the organization, charter members and all the business meetings from 1848 through June 1885.

The church is still active in Garland County and is situated in Marble Township. In earlier days Marble Township was large in area and was originally in Saline County. Township boundaries were changed as the area developed, and the township was divided so that part remained in Saline County and part was in Garland County. A book on this township is being compiled by Garland County Historical Society, 222 McMahan Drive, Hot Springs, AR 71913, and will be available from that organization. (Copied from first publication and original spelling retained)

Following is a portion of the history of the church, and the membership roll from the first record book covering 1848 to 1991:

Most likely, the most memorable occurrence in the year of our Lord 1848 would be the California gold rush. People by the thousands were headed west in search of riches and a better life.

One of the lesser known routes taken by west-bound travelers was a road out of Little Rock, Arkansas, known as the Little Rock-Mount Ida Road. This route came west out of 12th Street to what is now Paron, then to Beaudry, and westward through now Jessieville, and up what is now state highway 198 into Mt. Ida. From there, it pointed west and connected with other routes in Oklahoma to the westward lands.

Approximately half way between Little Rock and Mt. Ida, a few folk had decided to make their homes along the banks of the clear mountain streams of what was then the northwestern portion of Saline County. (This would later become the northeast corner of Garland County.)

The official description of this very large and scattered settlement was Marble Township, Saline County, Arkansas. The mailing address was Beaudry, Ark. where the names "Marble" and "Beaudry" originated have been the objects of a long and fruitless search. I have learned that "Beaudry is a French word pronounced "Bow-Dra."

For an idea of the size of Marble Township, using present landmarks, you will readily see the enormity of this frontier community. The eastern line is about two miles east of the present Garland, Saline County line. The north line is the top of Oak Mountain. This is north of the Iron Springs camp ground on Hwy. 7 North, which [is] about five miles north of Jessieville. The west line has been difficult to establish, but it seems to have taken in all the territory up Hwy. 298 to the present Hamilton Church house. The south line was the top of Cedar Mountain, where the entrance to Hot Springs Village is located.

The first known site of the Beaudry Post Office was at the Akin home on Mill Creek, near Newt White's gristmill. The area is presently covered by the waters of Lake Cortez in Hot Springs Village. Beaudry Post Office was later kept by Mrs. Pearl Baldwin, and was under the supervision of Mrs. Eula (Johnson) Rice, when it was discontinued in the mid 1950s.

While the California gold rush is remembered in history, it was by no means the most important event of that year. On Saturday before the third Sunday of October 1848, a small seemingly insignificant group of seventeen men and women met together with two Baptist Ministers for the purpose of organizing a Baptist Church. The location of the place where they met is unknown, but it is very possible, even likely, they met in the home of Mr. Sharp D. Glenn. They were later known to have met there at different times at later dates. Mr. Glenn lived on the middle fork of the Saline River near the present Newkirk Cemetery.

How movement to organize a Church begins is only speculation. Some of the people had been there for at least ten years. (Sharp D. Glenn moved here on May 12, 1838, and he may not have been here first.) It is known that he was a member of the Kentucky Baptist Church, near Benton, Ark., which was organized in 1822.

John Young Lindsey, one of the presbyters, was also a member of the Kentucky Church, and a former pastore. At this time (Oct. 1848) he was serving as missionary for the newly formed Arkansas State Convention.

Aaron Boalt, the other presbyter, was the pastor of Spring Creek Baptist Church of Benton, Ark. Spring Creek had been organized in 1836.

We are fortunate to have retained the records of this historic event. In January 1967, this writer copied the record of this organization from the original old Church book. Shortly thereafter, this book was borrowed by Ouachita Baptist University in Arkadelphia, Ark., and during the process of microfilming, all the contents were destroyed. We are thankful, the entire book is on microfilm at the History and Archives office in Little Rock. This record is from 1848 until 1885. The following is a copy of that record. I have chosen to use the same spelling and grammar that they used in 1848.

SOME OF THE FOREFATHERS

1. Sharp D. Glenn came to Marble and settled on Middle Fork on May 12, 1838. He and his family remained active in Marble Church for several generations. His son, C. T. Glenn, was a deacon and Church Clerk. This family intermarried with the Newkirks and Youngs. Sharp & Syntha Glenn are the only charter members to remain at Marble until death; Sharp D. Glenn died in 1863.
2. Anderson Cunningham is listed in the 1840 census. He served as clerk in the organization of the church, was the first church clerk and was ordained the first deacon in June 1850. He was one of the few slave owners of the area. He cleared and farmed Cunningham farm which included the Baldwin, Hunter, and Talley farms of today. His property included the land on which Marble Church now stands. At least two of his slaves are buried in the Talley Cemetery.

3. The Blocker and Speer families are the forefathers of those bearing these names today. They settled west of Marble around what became known as Rock Springs. They later became active leaders of the Baptist Church that was organized there. George Blocker was a casualty of the Civil War, being killed by Jay Hawkers while home on furlough in 1863.
4. Morrison Cotner was born in Illinois in 1817 (March 12) of Black Dutch parents. He moved from here to Chismville in Logan County. He died in 1895 and is buried in Springhill Cemetery (Logan County).
5. Eld. John Young Lindsey was born in Christian County, Kentucky in 1800. He was a charter member of Kentucky Baptist Church near Benton. The first county treasurer of Saline Co. in 1836. He surrendered to preach in 1842, pastured Kentucky Church in 1845, then went on mission field as missionary for the Ark. State Convention. He led in organizing Churches all over central and west Arkansas. His death seems to have resulted from a beating he received while being robbed. Although he lived two or three years, he died Sept. 20, 1866 and is buried in Kentucky Cemetery near Benton.
6. Eld. Aaron Boalt was born in 1796 in South Carolina. He was known to have been preaching in Ark. as early as 1825. He was a charter member of Spring Creek Baptist Church in Benton in 1836. He was not ordained until July 17, 1841. He led in ordaining the first black man to the ministry in Ark., Wilson Brown, who was a slave, in 1853. He died at his home on the Bland Trail south of Paron in 1861.
7. James J. Cobb, the second pastor at Marble was born in Eastern Tennessee in either 1812 or 1814, depending on which record you use. In 1840 he moved to Flat Creek, Lawrence County, Ark. In the summer of 1844, he along with Eld. P. S. G. Watson, organized a Church in the home of Carney Strangham. Bro. Cobb was called for pastor. Within a short time, they had a meeting house with 12 members. Bro. Cobb was an excellent singer and superior at exhortation. Eld. J. J. Cobb came to Marble as pastor in May 1854 and served the Church almost six years. He was excluded in Feb. 1861 for wishing Melinda Glenn dead and in hell. He also called all Baptist swindlers and left the ministry. He moved to Perry County and resumed his practice of medicine. He moved to Illinois during the Civil War where he died shortly after.

MEMBERSHIP ROLL
MARBLE MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH

This has been the greatest challenge of the entire undertaking in compiling a history of Marble Church. While we have almost a complete record of the Church roll, minus those from 1885 to 1890) the paper is old, ink fades, some of the names are illegible, making it necessary to look other places, talking to old timers, etc. I suppose a complete roll is impossible, but I have given it my best shot. Some of the names may be misspelled, as they are spelled different in different places. They just spelled them as they sounded to whoever was doing the writing. Several of the members moved off, then came back, sometimes three or four times. Often when this happened, the Church had changed clerks. The new clerk might spell the name different, or use initials, sometimes they would use a nick name.

I have tried not to duplicate names, but probably did at times. Then there are different people with the same name, spelled exactly the same. I ran into this in the charter members. There are two Elisabeth Speers; one is a married woman. the other her fifteen year old niece.

Therefore, because of these and other problems not mentioned, I freely admit this roll is not 100% correct. It is, however, a pretty good list, and with a few exceptions, fairly accurate.

This concludes the Church roll of the first old book. As you can judge, this list is most likely not complete. In reading the minutes of the business meetings, occasionally I would run across names that had been baptized or received by letter that were not on the roll. A few times I found there was someone been dismissed by letter or even excluded, but could not find the name on the roll. Understand, these names may have been listed, but were lost because of torn pages, faded ink, or other problems that arise in trying to read something that is almost one hundred fifty years old.

[Note: The submitter is interested in knowing if there is a published list of towns in Arkansas where Freedmen's Schools were located. In her interesting article, "Bureau Agents, Post Commanders and Yankee School Marm's" Dr. Jane Fagg states that at the end of October 1868, freedmen's schools were operating in new buildings in Helena, Batesville, Lewisville, Camden, Washington, Pine Bluff, Arkadelphia and Fort Smith. Dr. Fagg's article was published in the Independence County Chronicle, v, 25. nos. 1-2 (October 1983-January 1984), pp. 2-36. The list above is found on page 28. Her article also includes drawings of the exterior and interior plans of the school (pp. 43-44).

THE SUNNY SOUTHLAND

Grand Reunion of the Old Heroes of Dixie's Land
By our Special Reporter

It was our good fortune to be present at the Reunion of the ex-Confederate Veterans at Ft. Smith last week. Our sister city had everything in readiness for the large crowd, and the Grey and Blue of the county seemed to vie with each other in making everyone welcome. The city was decorated everywhere with bunting and flags. Each command as it arrived was met and escorted to the camp ground amid the cheers of the crowds on the streets.

Mayor Cooke delivered an eloquent address of welcome, which was responded to, on behalf of the veterans by Hon. J. E. Cravens, in his happiest manner. After supper, old comrades met, and many an eye grew dim at the mention of the name of some comrade who had gone over the river to rest on the other side; while band after band filled the air with the sweet strains of Dixie and other songs of the days gone by. There were in line in the grand parade on Thursday, over 1500 veterans while more than 500 were among the spectators on the sidewalks, too old and infirm to participate in the long march. Among the camps present and regularly enrolled were;

Stonewall Jackson Camp of Huntington and Hackett City- 200 men.

Pat Cleburne Camp, of Charleston, Captain Cabell- 117 men.

Ben McCullough Camp, Greenwood, Captain Milam- 100 men

Jeff Lee Camp, McAllister, Indian Territory, Captain Coleman- 50 men.

B. T. Embry Camp, of Russellville, Captain J. R. Homer Scott- 60 men.

Hill Camp, of Clarksville, Captain J. F. Hill- 125 men.

Cabell Camp, Bentonville, Captain N. S. Henry- 112 men.

Jeff Lee Camp, of Muldrow, Indian Territory, Captain S. Byrd- 40 men.

Pat Cleburne Camp, Conway, Captain W. D.

Cole- 10 men.

B. T. DuVal Camp, Fort Smith, Captain P. T.

Devaney- 65 men.

John Wallace Camp, of Van Buren, Captain John Allen- 58 men.

John B Gordon Camp, Sons of U C V, Huntington, Captain Eugene Bates- 85 men.

Several old Confederate flags were carried in the procession, torn and tattered by bullet, shot and shell. G. P. Holcomb, Paris, Texas, had the flag of the 2nd Mississippi. It was in the battles of Manassas, Gettysburg, and Seven Pines. John Hill Camp had a flag which was all through the war. Stonewall Jackson Camp had a Federal flag captured at Fredricksburg, Va., by Pickett's Division.

Camp John Wallace, of Van Buren, had the old flag of the 22nd Regiment (Wallace's); it was with the Van Buren and Ft. Smith boys at Oak Hills, Elk Horn, Prairie Grove, Helena and Jenkins Ferry. It was carried in the parade by Joe Clegg, who owns it. Camp Wallace had another flag in the parade, the property of H. A. Meyer. It was the flag of the 1st Texas Artillery, of which he was a member. There were many other historic flags of which we did not get the records, and many an old Vet wept when he gazed upon the tattered banners he had loved so well and followed so faithfully through the long and bloody war.

Colonel D. W. Moore, who was appointed by General John B. Gordon to organize camps, deserves great credit for his energy and activity in the interest of the U C V.

Tot Englan was there with the old bugle which called together the first cavalry company (Carroll's) to leave Van Buren in 1861. Tot blew the last call of Monroe's Regiment in 1865.

Rem Smith, an old Van Buren boy, who went out with the boys in 1861 as drummer, and who carried a drum all through the war, came from Fayetteville to beat the drum for the John Wallace Camp.

On Friday the camp broke up, with cheers for Fort Smith, and separated, all never to meet again until the last roll is called on the other side of the river.

We'll be there; we'll be there; When the general roll is called, we'll be there. Duroc.

[1905 was not a very good year for some Arkansans]

Arkansas Gazette, Little Rock, Ark. 1905

Mrs. Cornelia Steadman, who was the wife of the station agent at Bingen, I.T. and was shot and instantly killed by robbers there recently, formerly resided in Cleveland county, Arkansas. She was a daughter of T. A. Calloway.

Paul Holmes, a brakeman, whose home is at Batesville, fell from the top of a box car between Magness and Newark Monday while the train was running full speed and though no bones were broken, he received a number of severe bruises.

William, the 15 year old son of Lee Hammons, of Omega, was fatally wounded by the accidental discharge of a 22-caliber target rifle. He died two days later.

County Clerk Jesse Core of Jefferson county met with a painful though not serious accident at Tucker a few days ago, when a mule kicked him on the leg, inflicting injuries that have laid him up at his home.

Van Buren: Rosa Boice, a 16 year old Choctaw Indian girl, was caught in the Iron Mountain yards here, masquerading in boys clothing, and was taken in custody by Sheriff Moore and Constable Ferguson. Her home is at Wapanucka, Choctaw Nation, she says, and she adopted this disguise to escape her enemies. She is perfectly rational. Some ladies of Van Buren provided her with suitable clothing, and she will be sent home.

En route home from a visit to her son, L. T. Kieger, at Pocahontas, Ark., Mrs. V. Kieger, 61 years old, of Shoals, Ind., died suddenly yesterday afternoon.

S. C. Parish, S. D. Wood, C. L. and R. A. Pickens and W. L. Cordon, who were recently appointed to select a site for a national park in the vicinity of the old Pea Ridge battleground, have located a tract comprising 180 acres and they hope to receive help from the national government to aid them in developing it.

Marianna, Jan. 24 - County Judge W. T.

Derrick stated today that the smallpox situation is well in hand. In an official statement made at the request of the Gazette, Judge Derrick said that the situation may be summed up as follows: deaths 3, recoveries 10, cases on hand 7, the latter all doing well.

Two camps have been established, one for developed cases and the other for those who have been exposed. All the present cases are under rigid quarantine, and all persons who have been indirectly exposed have been vaccinated. The smallpox camp is eight miles from Marianna.

(Note from submitter: Does anyone know if the "camps" and "pest houses" were one and the same?)

Arkansas Queries

General guidelines for submitting queries:

- 1) Queries are limited to members only
- 2) Please submit no more than one query per calendar year
- 3) Keep the query to approximately fifty words
- 4) Neatness counts! If possible, type, double spaced. Otherwise, print legibly leaving a space between each line.
- 5) Capitalize surnames
- 6) Remember the 4 W's
Who - Give complete names of interest
What - What do you want? Keep it short and to the point

Where - Locality in ARKANSAS

When - Give a time period

Since we always work with a large backlog of queries, we strive to print them in the order in which they were received. It may be several months, however, before your query appears. We do use all queries received in a calendar year by the end of that year. We continue to receive queries with no name and address included. If the query gets separated from the envelope, we cannot use it. It simplifies the work of the all-volunteer staff of this publication if you send your query with your membership fee to Arkansas Genealogical Society, P. O. Box 17653, Little Rock, AR 72212.

Book Reviews and Notices

By Russell P. Baker

Index to Arkansas' World War I Soldiers A – Z by Desmond Walls Allen, Arkansas Research, P. O. Box 303, Conway, AR 72033, 6 vols. plus, soft cover, each volume approximately 250 pages. Write for a price quote. Some 65,000 men from Arkansas served in the U. S. Army during World War I. Although these records have been available at the Arkansas History Commission and State Archives in Little Rock for some time, these are the first published indexes to appear on the market. Each alphabetical entry gives the veteran's name, service number, race, residence, place of enlistment, dates of service, and usually the date and place of birth. What it does not give is information on the soldier's unit and branch of military service. Copies of the original discharges, containing all of the information, may be obtained from the History Commission in Little Rock. These World War I records are even more valuable in light of the destruction of the original Federal Government copies in the 1970s. In many cases, these records are the only service information for these soldiers that is available. Desmond Allen has also published an index to African American Soldiers during World War I and several volumes indexed by Arkansas County. Contact her for a current listing of her works.

Field Guide for Genealogists, second edition, Clearfield Company, Inc. by Genealogical Publishing Company, Baltimore, MD, 2003, soft cover, 316 pp, index, by Jody Jacobson, $25.95. Contact Genealogical Publishing Co., 1001 N. Calvert Street Baltimore, Maryland 21202-3897 for more information or a sample catalogue. At long last, a book that fits its name. The genealogical field guide is really a mini encyclopedia of all things a practicing genealogist needs to have at their finger tips. It is a book of lists such as sources of surnames, "where to find" information suggestions, glossary of genealogical terms and abbreviations, place name prefixes and suffixes, etc, plus tidbits such as the world's worst disaster. Few subjects are left out; even internet research sites are listed. This is a wonderful little book that should be in the back pocket of every family historian on every research trip. Just reading it is an education.

Index of Death Notices Appearing in The Arkansas Democrat – Gazette January 1 to June 30, 2003 by Oscar Russell, Russell Publishing Company, 506 Loop Rd., Sherwood, AR 72120-2216, 262 pp, hard cover $34 and soft cover $21. Volumes are mailed postpaid. Mr. Russell continues to provide Arkansas researchers of all stripes with a comprehensive index to deaths reported in the largest daily newspaper in Arkansas. Each entry contains the name of the deceased, the location of their death, their age, and a complete reference to the newspaper article. Write Mr. Russell for a complete list of his publications.
